

"THE PRINTER

is the only indispensable
man"

CHARLES DICKENS

(one of the world's wisest men)

said...

"the printer is the only product of civilization necessary to the existence of man, because without him, tyrants and humbugs would have their own way." "He is a friend of intelligence and thought... liberty... of law, indeed the friend of every man who is a friend of order." "Of all discoveries in science and art and all the wonderful progress in mechanical energy and skill the printer is the only product necessary to the existence of man."
