Neighbourhood Notes

The last of the Florida winter holidaymakers returned home toward the end of March. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Walton spent three months at Lakeland where they enjoyed wonderful weather. During the whole season, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Craham, who went south in February also report a good holiday except for a stormy trip home.

Mrs. Seiders has been looking after the Morley household recently, while Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Morley are vacationing in New Orleans.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Russell who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Easter week-end. The day was spent with members of their family and a few friends.

Bryce and Mary Jacksie are to be congratulated on the arrival of their chosen son. Much happiness to them.

Miss Dorothy Hood attended the York Presbytery YPU dinner held in Keswick United Church Wednesday evening of last week.

Mrs. A. W. Miller is nursing a broken wrist since falling at the entrance of Brown's Corners United Church Easter Sunday morning. The fall did not hinder her singing a fine solo in the choir anthem.

At the communion service held at Brown's Corners church last Sunday morning there was also a reception of new members, with Rev. A. F. Binnington conducting the service. Among those joining the church were Misses Sandra Burr, Janet Craig, Carol Coleman, Ann Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Halkes.

Cancer Society canvassers are out in full force this month and look forward to the annual campaign. They have been received most cordially in the past and enjoy meeting their neighbours.

W.I. Euchre
There were 12 tables of players at the Buttonville W.I. Hall on Friday evening of last week. Winners were Mrs. Charles Hooper, Mrs. Alick Gardner, Miss Della Stephenson, Messrs. Chas. Sweet, H. Mizen and Jim Cummings. Mrs. Russell Burr and Mr. Howard tied for third prizes but lost the draws. The lucky draw, a chicken, was won by Mr. Jas. Rodick. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Charles Hooper, Mrs. A. Gardner, Miss Elizabeth French and Mrs. Fred Leaf. The next game will be played April 17 at Buttonville Hall.

Home & School Euchre
Euchre, Bridge and Snap! The posters will read. With a bill like that there is no reason for anyone to miss the Home and School party because they can't play bridge or euchre. Anyone can play Snap! Enjoy loads of fun and prizes — Tuesday, April 14, at 8 p.m. at the school!

Executive Meets
When Home and School Association executive members met at Buttonville School on Wednesday evening of last week, extensive plans were made for the annual H & S party to be held in the school on the evening of April 14. Other business included the appointment of a nominating committee and plans for the programme of the May meeting.

Present were Mrs. John Storey, president; Mrs. R. Baugh, secretary; Mrs. Ray McTavish, treasurer; and executive members Mrs. Jack Harrott, Mrs. S. R. Patterson, Mrs. Bert Gardhouse and Mrs. F. H. Leaf.

Davidson Mission Band
Mrs. S. R. Patterson will arrange a devotional service and tell a story when the Davidson Mission Band Thankoffering service is held at Brown's Corners United Church on Saturday afternoon, April 18. Mrs. Turner has a film strip for the very small children, and mothers are invited to attend this meeting.

Easter Thankoffering
Miss Haslam of the Elizabeth Fry Society was guest speaker on Wednesday afternoon of last week when ladies of the Victoria Square charge met at Brown's Corners United Church for the Easter Thankoffering service. Mrs. Wm. Rodick presided and Mrs. S. J. English was organist. During the business discussion, it was announced that Miss Stephenson is the missionary for prayer this year.

Invitations to thankoffering services at Stouffville and Unionville were announced for April 2 and April 9.

The scripture was read by Mrs. John Wilkins and Mrs. F. Leaf read the comment. Mrs. Gordon Purves sang two solos, and offering was received by Mrs. E. Fuller and Mrs. D. Hood.

In her talk, Miss Haslam told of the first woman, Elizabeth Gurney Fry, who interested herself in the plight of women prisoners in England.

In Canada no interest was taken in women prisoners until the late Agnes McPhail investigated in the early 30's, and made herself the champion of better conditions for the woman who must go to jail. Seven years ago a small group of women met at the Unitarian Church, Toronto, and formed a group to aid in reform at the Mercer Reformatory. The group comprised women from all religious and professional groups, and they received no government aid and very little interest. In 1953 an office was opened, and a social worker, Miss Haslam, was engaged. Now there is a haven on Yorkville Street, with seven staff members, including a housemother, where women leaving prison may seek lodging until they become established; where they are aided in seeking employment, and where older women pensioners are assisted with financial difficulties.

Following Miss Haslam's talk the meeting was closed with a hymn and benediction.

Tea was served in the church parlours, with Mrs. Alick Gardner as hostess.

Wedding

MAW-LEMON

A wedding of local interest was solemnized at Fallingbrook Heights Baptist church Saturday afternoon of last week when Linda Jean Lemon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lemon of West Hill became the bride of Derek Maw, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maw, Buttonville.

Rev. John McLeod performed the ceremony and Mrs. John Mad-den played the wedding music. The soloist was Miss Patricia Armstrong.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was beautiful in a white ballerina gown of lace and nylon over taffeta with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt fashioned with three tiers of scalloped lace. Her fingertip veil was caught to a tiera of iridescent sequins, matching the trim on her gown, and she carried a white bible with red roses.

The bridal attendants were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Shirley Armstrong and Miss Sandra Armstrong as matron of honour and bridesmaid, and the grooms sisters, Misses Marie and Jean Maw as bridesmaids. They wore ballerina length gowns in pastel shades of turquoise, blue, pink and lilac with fitted bodices and bouffant crinolined skirts. Their hats were feather bandeaus in matching shades, their shoes and gloves were white and they carried nosegays of spring flowers.

Bob Armstrong was best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Grant Armstrong, Bob Cunningham and Gordon Lemon.

Receiving her guests at the reception held in the church hall, Mrs. Lemon wore pink flowered chiffon with gray accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Maw chose blue figured nylon with white and white accessories and corsage of tea roses.

For a trip to Niagara Falls the bride travelled in a black wool dressmaker suit with red hat and accessories and rose corsage. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Maw will live in West Hill.

Wedding guests were invited to the home of the brides grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Armstrong of Clonmore Drive, Toronto, following the church reception and among those present were friends from Noranda, Peterborough and other points.
