PROCLAMATION

 By resolution of the Municipal Council, I hereby proclaim April 12th to April 18th, to be Safe Driving Week
 And call upon all citizens to use every possible care in driving on our streets and highways.

 Safety is the responsibility of everyone.

Town of Richmond Hill

K. W. TOMLIN, Mayor.
 R. LYNETT, Clerk.

To Call Tenders Police Cruisers

In his March report to Markham Township Council Police Chief C. Wideman stated his department answered 543 calls during the month. Complaints of dogs running at large continue to plague township law enforcement officers. A total of 43 dog complaints were received by police. The next highest figure was accidents with 22 reported. A further breakdown of the main statistics is as follows: four theft cases, four burglaries, three liquor seizures, three domestic complaints, one false pretences, one malicious damage and one stolen car recovered.
 Reeve W. L. Clark reported requests for house checks by the police is increasing steadily. The police made periodic checks of 10 homes where the people were away during March.
 The two police cruisers travelled a distance of 8,836 miles during the month. The total operating expenses for the cruisers amounted to $299.71. The police committee has received the approval of council to call for tenders for two new cruisers.

Salary Schedule For Caretakers

The new salary schedule for caretakers in the Richmond Hill Public School system was adopted unanimously Thursday evening following presentation by building committee member Trustee H. Sanderson and C. Williams. The rates were drawn up following a meeting of the building committee with the caretakers. Effective January 1, 1959, is the following salary schedule:
 Starting salary $3,050.
 Completion of 6 mos. 3,180.
 Completion of 1 year 3,350.
 by Jan. 1, 1960 3,350.
 Completion of 2 years 3,650.
 by Jan. 1, 1961 3,650.
 Completion of 3 years 4,050.
 by Jan. 1, 1962 (max.) 4,050.
 The present caretaking staff has agreed to handle new classrooms being constructed until December 31, 1959.
 At the request of the caretakers the board agreed to a 40-hour week. Heretofore the men have been working 40 hours for two weeks, then 44 hours for two weeks. The staff agreed the day and night shift as set-up some time ago is working satisfactorily, the committee reported.

Beautiful slides were shown at the fireside hour at Richvale Chapel on Sunday evening by Mr. Charles Stevens, who returned just a few weeks ago from Africa. Included with the scenes of Dr. Bob Stevens' Mission Post in East Belgian Congo were others taken along the route in Italy and Spain, and Portugal. Mr. Stevens brought a first-hand report of the work being carried on by Dr. Stevens and his hospital staff, which now has its own government-approved training school for nurses.

Mrs. Stan Baker returned home from hospital last Tuesday evening and is coming along well. Appreciative comments on the new stoplights at Carrville and Yonge St. are still pouring in. Rae Mayher, formerly of Yonge hurst Road, underwent an operation on Saturday in the York County Hospital, Newmarket, and is progressing well, his school-mates will be glad to hear.

The canvassers for the Cancer Society will be out during the month of April. Please have your donation ready when the canvasser calls. This cause is of concern to every Canadian. Anyone particularly interested has an opportunity to hear the Chairman of the Society, Mrs. B. Purves, when she speaks at the Richvale Home and School on Spruce Ave., next Monday night, April 20. The meeting is to start at 8 p.m.

At the executive meeting of the Charles Howitt Area Recreation Association held March 31, it was decided to undertake a survey of the number of children planning to attend the playground held on the C. Howitt school grounds.

The recreation association finances the supervised playground, during the month of July, and all children (five years old and up) from Carrville Road, south to Langstaff are eligible to attend. In order to provide enough supervision for the children the association must know approximately how many children plan to attend. Would you please telephone AV. 5-4210 or AV. 5-3900.
