BUTTONVILLE

Correspondent:
Mrs. F. H. Leaf
R. R. 2 Gormley
Phone AXminster 3-6188

Neighbourhood Notes
The Davidson Mission Band members will entertain their mothers when they hold their Easter Thankoffering service at Brown's Corners United Church on Saturday afternoon of this week. Mrs. Wilfred Turner and assistants Mrs. Bob Hood and Mrs. H. Bauthus have planned an interesting afternoon for the children and their parents from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Euchre players won't want to miss the card party to be held in Buttonville Hall on Monday afternoon of next week. Buttonville W.I. members are sponsoring the party to aid the Retarded Children's fund. Play will commence at 2:00 p.m.

If you have been hearing snatches of song, a good beat on the piano, the sound of tapping feet, it's the Junior Farmers practising for the Variety Show which they will present in Buttonville on the evening of Saturday, April 25. Working with the young people are Miss Dorothy Hood who is doing a king-sized job at the piano; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wright who are full of ideas; and Mrs. F. H. Leaf.

It is a late spring indeed, with no thought of venturing onto the land this week. The birds are here to stay apparently, but we have still to hear our first singing, and only the occasional field is turning green.

We note that the Myers Farm at the north-west corner of Finch's and Don Mills Road has been sold for an amount in excess of a quarter of a million.

The Explorer group of the Victoria Square Church was entertained by V. S. W.M.S. ladies at Victoria Square Church on Saturday afternoon of last week, along with members of the Mission Band of that church. The Explorers, under the direction of Mrs. F. Maw and Mrs. E. Storey presented a typical Explorer programme, with stories based on their mission study told by members of the group, while other group members were dressed as the characters in the story. Local girls taking part were Patricia Patterson, Marcelle Storey and Susan Harrott. A point of interest for the children was their special guest, Mrs. Ito, who is newly arrived from Japan, and who dressed Charon MacDonald in an authentic Japanese costume, with elaborate headdress, for the occasion. Following the meeting W.M.S. members served refreshments, and a social hour was enjoyed. On Sunday afternoon next, C.G.I.T. and Explorer groups will provide music at the afternoon W.M.S. service to be held at Victoria Square church. Rev. Muir, a missionary on furlough from Japan will be the guest speaker.

Brown's Corners Y.P.U. entertained young people from points of York Presbytery at a dance held in Buttonville Hall on Saturday evening of last week. The young people danced to recorded music, and were entertained by a music combo from Richmond Hill. After an evening of fun refreshments were served.

TEMPERANCEVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. MILTON WELLS, R. R. 3 KING
Phone PR. 3-5239

The communicants' class for those 12 and over begins at Temperanceville United Church on April 23. The group will begin immediately after school hours. Rev. Kennedy will conduct these classes each Thursday for eight weeks.

Registration for the Men's Association convention in June at Elgin House is now available to those wishing to attend. Please contact Mr. Wilbert Jennings in this regard.

The W.I. met on Wednesday, last. Suggestions for next year's programs included to bring current events back into the monthly programs, review other year's suggestions to see if we are doing our best to carry them out; papers of interest used at meetings be typed and a scrapbook compiled of them, be guests of other institutes in different districts where we could plan to visit historical sites or scenes of interest. These are but a few of the suggestions made. A donation of $40.00 was made toward furnishing a room in the Doan House at Sharon. Open house is being held at the Ontario Hospital the last week in April. The local W.I. decided to attend on April 28.

The program planning meeting will be held on Monday, April 20 at 8 p.m. Convenors and assistants are asked to bring suggestions for their programs.

The committee appointed to plan for the 25th anniversary celebration of the Temperanceville W.I. was Mrs. Clayton Beynon, Mrs. Charles Henshaw and Mrs. Everett Phillips.

There will be no display by Temperanceville W.I. at the Schomberg fair this year. The Tweedsmuir history workshop will be held at Laskay on April 30. Mrs. Nelson Boynton, Mrs. Clayton Beynon and Mrs. Wilbert Jennings were appointed to attend. There will be a plant and bulb sale at the May meeting. It was decided to have a flower display, and Mrs. Pete Beckett some fine embroidery. The talents of Temperanceville ladies are unlimited and it was most entertaining to see these displays.
