Leaping Wolf Ceremony

On Friday, April 17 at Thornhill High School, 81 boys of the York Summit - Lakeland Region received their Leaping Wolf badges. Three boys from 1st Langstaff were presented Donald Spears, Jim Perry and Robert Howard.

The Scouts were marched in following a color party. Then the District Commissioner, Tom Harrington and his party arrived. After the singing of "O Canada," Rev. Wm. E. Askev gave the Invocation.

The chairman of Thornhill Village Trustees, Mr. Allen R. Sumner, welcomed all those present with a few remarks. The entertainment was provided by 2nd "The Cub Way" and the skit of the 1st Langstaff Scout Troop acted was called "The Scout Way," by a Rover from 2nd Markham, showing the differences in the training from Cubs through Scouts to Rovers.

The District Commissioner and Assistant Commissioner, Tom Walter Smith, then awarded the Leaping Wolf certificates. After the singing of "God Save the Queen," the color party retired and the impressive evening ended.

Successful Bake Sale
Charles Howitt Home and School executive and chairman of the bake sale, Mrs. Gordon Everall-Newman and Mrs. Glen Lunau, wish to thank all those who baked for the sale, the ladies who sold the baking and the neighborhood householders who bought the goods. The sale was very successful, realizing $92.00 which could not have been done without the kind co-operation of all those mentioned before.

1st Langstaff Mothers' Auxiliary On Wednesday, April 15, the monthly meeting of 1st Langstaff Mothers' Auxiliary for Cubs and Scouts met at the home of Mrs. J. E. Howard, Maryvale Crescent. A good turnout of 30 ladies were present. During the meeting they heard the duties of the offices in the executive being explained, which was very timely as election time is next month.

A nomination committee was formed with Mrs. E. E. Spears, chairman and Mrs. Al Miller and Mrs. G. Patterson as members. After the meeting adjourned, baby pictures of twelve members present were mounted on a card and the ladies were asked to guess who they were. A great deal of peering into faces and hilarity followed, especially after Mrs. Walter Ellis, the president, read out the names. Mrs. B. Webster, Akela of Keego Park, was declared the winner and received the prize.

April 19. The church services will be at 11 a.m. Sunday now they have their own minister. Sunday School will still be at 9.30 for all ages.

Personals

Marlene Wickham is in Branson Hospital recuperating from an appendectomy which was performed at eleven o'clock on her eleventh birthday, April 16th. We hope to see you home again soon, Marlene.

Baby Bruce Butler came home from hospital on Wednesday, in time to celebrate his second birthday on Thursday, April 16th. Mr. Wilfred Sutcliffe, recovered from a bout of pneumonia, came home from Branson Hospital on Sunday.

Neil Craigie and Alan Craigie had a joint birthday party on Saturday to celebrate their tenth and seventh birthdays, respectively. There was a real household of chums to contribute to the merriment. Peter Hamilton, Jimmy Trussell, Larry Shier, Stevie Fowler, Robert West and Bobby Slingsby were Neighbors, and Michael Hamilton, Bobby Merrick, Billy Trussell, David Hill and Freddie Shier were Alan's guests. The children attended the matinee, and came back to the house for birthday cake and ice cream, and finished the "activities" with a game of baseball.

Mrs. J. Sim was hostess on Wednesday evening in her home at a bridal shower honouring Miss Kay Tomlinson, whose marriage to Bruce Blackburn is to take place in mid-May. About eighteen attended the shower. The decorations were pink and white streamers with decorators' garlands, and the bride-to-be received many beautiful gifts.

Mrs. W. Adams is ill with the flu, and the good wishes of friends and neighbours are extended to her for a speedy recovery. Margo Martin had an operation on her knee in Branson Hospital last Wednesday. She is coming along nicely now and able to be up on crutches for a little while each day.

O.R.B. League scores — Hilda Leese 203, Orpha Stone 213, 214, Marie Lawson 245, Tom Lemperg 270, John Sim 234, Earl Freeland 219, Bill Stone 235, 252, George Lawson 211, 231.

Mrs. J. R. Joiner, who has been enjoying an extended visit with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Anderson, left by train on Friday for her home in Sidney, Cape Breton Island. While here she paid a visit to her son in Windsor.

Mrs. James Fitchett of Riley Lake, Muskoka, who had the misfortune to break her arm five weeks ago, is visiting at the homes of her son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Fitchett, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Brittle, Duncan Road.

Mr. Lawrence Rose flew down to Florida on Monday to see his father who is ill. Richvale Chapel Ladies
The April meeting of the Richvale Chapel Women's group was held at the home of Mrs. M. Linder last Wednesday evening. About twenty-five ladies were in attendance. Mrs. William Rea, who went with her husband as a missionary with the China Inland Mission, gave an interesting account of some of their life and work in China. Her message was developed from the theme of Christ's miracle in feeding the five thousand from what was at hand: five loaves and two small fishes.

Mrs. W. Neely sang two selections. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.
