GORMLEY NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. CHAS. MILSTED
 Telephone Gormley 5201

We extend sympathy to Mr. Carl Reesor and family in the passing of a loving wife and mother at her home on Sunday evening. The funeral service was held on Wednesday afternoon from the Wideman Mennonite Church.

An epidemic of measles has broken out in our community among the pre-school children. We wish a speedy recovery for all these little folk.

Mr. and Mrs. David Empringham entertained their three sons, their wives and children on Sunday at a birthday dinner in honour of their son Ralph.

Mr. and Mrs. Derek Hazel and family of Peterborough spent Sunday with Mr. Max Hazel and Mr. and Mrs. G. Campey. Little Mandy and Kurt remained for a week with their aunt, Mrs. Campey.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brillinger visited one evening last week with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steckley of Barrie. Mrs. Steckley is recuperating at her home from an operation in Barrie Hospital.

Miss Elizabeth Langstaff of Richmond Hill spent the week end with Miss Vera Brillinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Heise, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Heise, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Heise, Miss Arvilla Forrester and Mr. and Mrs. Elias Elliott attended the funeral of Mr. James Baker at Stayner on Wednesday.

Mrs. A. E. Fader of Fort William spent the week end with her brother, Mr. Wm. H. Banford and his sister, Mrs. C. B. Read.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken McIntosh and boys moved on Saturday to North York.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Nigh and Mrs. Wm. Wilson returned home on Friday after spending the winter in Florida.

Miss Eileen Lager, missionary on furlough from Nigeria, Africa, spent last week with Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Hunking.

Sunday callers at the home of Mr. Wm. H. Banford were Mrs. John Irwin, Mr. Ramon Shaver of Richmond Hill and Mr. Neil Patterson of Osogode Station.

Bishop and Mrs. Alvin Winger visited Mr. and Mrs. Walter

Steckley of Barrie on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ern Harvey of Newmarket and Mrs. John Sider had dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Doner.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole and Mr. Cole Sr. of Scarborough spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hawkins.

Mr. Walter Beynon, 80 years old, passed away at Newmarket Hospital on Thursday. He was buried at Heise Hill cemetery. Mr. Beynon had worked with Mr. Clarence Steckley when the Doner store was rebuilt in 1935 following the fire.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Meredith Ash on the birth of their third daughter at York County Hospital early Saturday morning.

The annual Missionary Convention at the United Missionary Church was well attended during the past week. Each of the speakers was of the United Missionary Society, Miss Eileen Lager and Rev. Ross Bell showed pictures of their work in Nigeria. Other speakers from Nigeria were Rev. Gordon Bolender, Rev. Willis Hunking and Rev. Eldon Boettger. On Sunday evening Rev. Jos. Jones of Japan brought a challenging message to complete the convention. The financial response was excellent, $5,300 was raised in cash during the past year with pledges of $3,122 to be paid during the next few months.

At the time of writing, Mrs. W. B. Henderson was very ill. Her family was called home on Sunday morning.

Don't forget to set your clock ahead next Saturday night for Daylight Saving time, effective April 26.

Highland Park

Correspondent:
 Mrs. A. A. Smith
 22 Highland Park Blvd.,
 Phone Avenue 5-2795

The Highland Park Association, the original ratepayers' organization for the district, was formally revived last Friday evening, April 17, at a meeting of Highland Park residents held in Thornhill Public School.

A new executive committee was elected, composed of Mr. Doug Dobson as president, Mr. Norm Hall as vice-president, and Mr. Harry Barrow as treasurer; with Messrs. Acheson, Buchanan and MacMillan as directors. The post of secretary was held in abeyance for the time being, as no one at this first meeting was able to accept nomination to the office. Mrs. Betty Headrick acted as secretary for the meeting.

Dr. Smith reported on the activities of the Markham-Vaughan United Ratepayers' Committee, whose meetings he had been attending as past president of the Highland Park Association. It was officially decided to co-operate with the United Ratepayers Committee in joint efforts to have the proposed CNR access line moved to a more suitable location.

It was decided that another general meeting should be held not later than May 15, the exact time and place being left to the executive to decide. Annual dues of $1 per household were collected from those present.

Bomb Threat Said Childish Prank

Students of Richmond Hill High School had a recess from classes for almost an hour last Friday afternoon while Police Chief R. P. Robbins searched the school for a non-existent bomb, which an unidentified hoaxster had claimed was planted there.

John Ashworth, business administrator for the district high schools said, "It was a childish prank but we can't afford not to take such a thing seriously, so we evacuated the school."

Using the school's public address system, Principal F. W. Morrow asked the students, who had just finished lunch, to clear the school immediately. Some students, in the halls on their way to classrooms, were unaware of the warning until notified by other students tearing out of the school, but all were cleared within minutes of the time the bomb scare was perpetrated.

Ethel Burbidge Weds W. Hawman

St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Vaughan, was decorated with baskets of yellow snapdragons, white daisies, 'mums and pussywillows when Ethel Burbidge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Burbidge, Woodbridge, became the bride of W. 'iam Hawman, son of Mr. Thomas, Kleinburg and the late Mrs. Hawman, on Saturday, April 11, 1959. The Rev. Robert Manning officiated at the ceremony and Mr. Stanley J. Harper sang the "Wedding Prayer" before the service, and "Bee use" during the signing of the register. Miss Freda Constable was at the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white delustre satin with fitted bodice and long pointed sleeves, the Sabrina neckline appliqued with lace and the full length skirt having an overskirt of Chantilly lace. Her shoulder length veil was caught to a coronet of sequins and pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of pale yellow daisy 'mums and roses.

Mrs. Barbara Harpell as matron of honour and bridesmaids, Misses Joan Burbidge and Mary Hawman, as well as junior bridesmaid Miss Loreen Burbidge, were gowned alike in French blue crystallite ballerina-length princess gowns, with matching shirred bandeaux, gloves and shoes. They carried nosegays of deep yellow daisy 'mums and roses.

Following a reception in Vellore Memorial Hall, at which the guests danced to celebrate the happy occasion, the bride donned a travelling suit in brown shade, with mint green hat and accessories and corsage of yellow roses. Following their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Hawman will reside in their new home at Kleinburg.

DOWNVIEW — Housewives in the Downview area complain of a "mystery dust" that keeps them cleaning and forces them to wipe their dishes before each meal. It appeared this spring for the first time in the memory of a ten-year resident.

MARKHAM — The film "The Broken Doll" which was screened in Markham last summer, has won first prize in a contest in Chicago.
