

Richmond Hill . . .

"The Liberal" is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Turner 4-1105 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

Mrs. E. J. Redemeier, Bathurst St., is the convener of the Garden Club's Annual Flower Show which is being held at the Casa Loma, on May 12, 13 and 14. All the proceeds this year are in aid of the Enchanted Gardens for Crippled Children, so why not enjoy a delightful experience viewing all the magnificent flower displays, while helping a very worthwhile cause.

The Evening Guild of St. Mary's Anglican Church is sponsoring a performance of "Spring Thaw '59" at Radio City Theatre, Bathurst and St. Clair Avenue on Wednesday, May 13. This is a musical review of interest to all Canadians. It's produced by Mavor Moore of the New Play Society and stars Barbara Hamilton, Paul Klugman and many other well known personalities. Why not get up a party and enjoy a night at the theatre? Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Evening Guild or by telephoning Mrs. Twidale, AV. 5-1401.

Members of the Friends and Book Club were guests of Mrs. M. D. McTaggart at her home, Tyneview Lane, Richmond Hill.

Congratulations to Mona Robertson, Associate Editor of "The Liberal" on being accepted as a member of the Canadian Women's Press Club.

Roger Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wilson, Roseview Ave., spent a few days at home, having just completed his term at Sir George Williams College, Montreal, and left on Sunday to take up summer duties at "Kanawana" a Montreal "X" Camp at St. Saviour, Quebec.

The National Bowling League of the Richmond Hill climaxed its very successful season with an afternoon banquet at the Summit View Restaurant on Tuesday, April 28. Following a delightful luncheon, trophies are given to Blanche Fleury for high average, to Anna Wilkie for high single, to Berenice Darling for high single with handicap, to Edna Maybury for high triple, and to Joan Collier for high triple with handicap. A short business session elected the following officers for the 1959-60 season: President, Berenice Darling; Secretary, Madge Nicholson; and Treasurer, Jessie Patterson. Despite the inclement weather that day, everyone expressed gratitude for the success of the events of the day.

Mrs. A. R. Michell, Paliser Crescent, attended the 6th annual convention of the Ontario Association for Retarded Children, held at the Ontario Hospital School, Smith Falls, recently.

The annual meeting of the East York district Women's Institute will be held at Lakeview Thursday, May 14. Those members wishing to attend this meeting please telephone Mrs. C. H. Sanderson, or Mrs. J. Dewbury. Also anyone who wishes to send an apron should take it to the president prior to that date.

Because the district annual meeting is on the date the Richmond Hill branch usually holds its meeting, the regular meeting is postponed until May 21. The special feature of the May meeting will be a demonstration of flower arranging.

The Richmond Rollers held their annual bowling banquet at the Summit View Restaurant last Thursday with 55 members attending. Each guest received a rose and a bowling ashtray and all enjoyed a delightful chicken dinner. Det Palmer's team (Lions) were the winners of the series, and other prize winners were: Effie Dale, high average; Vi Lawrie, high three fat; Betty Rumble, high single; Det Palmer, high three with handicap; Elsie Mashinter and Ethel Elsie, perfect attendance; Jean Ne, lowering her handicap; Marg. Paton for the most consistent bowler; Mary Flannigan, for high single of the last game; Mabel Haviland high for the final three games; Joan Davenport, mother of the year; Eleanor Lindsay, birthday prize and lucky prize-winner; C. Snaith, M. Musselman, D. Rumble, Z. Teetzel and Edna McCallum. A gift was also presented to Grace Lusignan for all her help given during the past year, and Grace presented Effie Dale with the Richmond Bowl Trophy for high average, which she has won consistently for the past three years, earning herself the great honour of keeping the trophy. Effie then presented Det Palmer with a gift for being her runner-up throughout the last six months.

Election of officers for the new season was held and the following were nominated: President, Marg Blackburn; Secretary, Vi Lawrie; Treasurer, Edna Barker; Sub Captain, Det Stunden. It was agreed by all that they had had a most successful season and looked forward to meeting once again next September.

Eight year old Lynda Reeds of Maple, Ontario, has once more gained honors musically by placing third in her class in singing at the Peel Music Festival. Last year she also placed highly in the competitions of the Peel Festival; as well as being a prize winner on "Uncle Jerry's Club" TV programme from Buffalo, N.Y. For two short seasons of study with Miss Ruth Garson, A.D.C.M. of Richmond Hill, it is hoped that the future will be one of achievement and success for Lynda.

The MTH Musical Club that has been recently organized by Miss Ruth Garson A.D.C.M. of Richmond Hill has now terminated its season and will again resume meetings in the fall. The MTH Club which meets once a month devotes its time to the study of history of music and musical instruments, composers, and to attending numerous concerts. Musical appreciation and the place of music in the world today are usual topics of discussion after which the members enjoy a period of social recreation.

As grand finale to the season, Miss Garson and members of this group had dinner at the Summit View Restaurant where prizes were presented for the most interest shown by members during the season. Prizes were awarded to Patricia MacEwen, Beverly Chan and Thomas Ludlow. After dinner, the group went to the theatre where they enjoyed a musical film. A great time was had by all.

Miss Mary Dawson spent the week end in Midland with her sister, Mrs. L. W. Zuefelt.

The 1st Beverley Acres Ladies Auxiliary will hold their monthly meeting on Monday, May 11, at 8.30 p.m. at the B.A. School. This will be a games night and lots of fun for everyone. Any new members who would like transportation or further information, please call Mrs. C. Lister, at TU. 4-1444.

The Women's Progressive Conservative Association met last week at the home of Mrs. Norman Bone, Representatives from the Young Conservatives under the leadership of Mr. Warren Bailie, West Area Vice-president, discussed plans for their meeting and dance to be held in the Lions Hall on May 9. John Graves read an interesting report of the sessions he attended in Toronto. Mrs. Arnold Price introduced Mr. Lex Mackenzie M.L.A. and paid tribute to his efforts on behalf of his constituents. The local member offered every encouragement to the young people. Mr. Gamble, chairman of publicity for York North presented interesting ideas for the coming election campaign. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Boreham and the hostess.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Stuart V. Paxton, 54 Trench St., who was bereaved April 27 in the passing of her mother, Mrs. Edna Lowndes. The late Mrs. Lowndes who lived with her daughter, died as a result of a heart attack. The funeral was held in Toronto on April 29.

Victor P. McMullen returned home last Friday after spending the last three months in St. Michael's Hospital. He and his wife wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for all their prayers, cards and gifts as well as personal visits during his long convalescence. They were much appreciated and helped to pass the time more quickly.

Mrs. J. W. Mills, Centre St. East is at present in Toronto General Hospital. Her many friends will be pleased to hear that she is progressing satisfactorily, and expects to be home very shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Wight, Yonge Street South, have returned from an enjoyable vacation in Clearwater Beach, Florida.

Mrs. Mel Dalley, 367 Bent Cr., spent a week recently visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. K. Partlow and other friends in Aylmer, Ontario.

Cadet Flight Lieutenant Geo. Walden Dalley phoned from Victoria, B.C. to report the good news to his family at 367 Bent Cr., that he had passed all his exams with honours. George has completed his two years at Royal Roads and will be attending the Royal Military College at Kingston for the next two years. He and other cadets in good standing are now enjoying a much earned Pacific pleasure cruise aboard the S. S. Nadine, prior to graduation day May 19. He then goes to Winnipeg where he is taking an observer's course for the summer and expects to be home in Richmond Hill sometime in August.

Mr. Sidney E. Smith of Beverley Acres has returned to Sunnybrook Hospital after a relapse on April 16. His condition is reported as serious. "The Liberal" joins with his family and many friends in wishing him a speedy recovery.

We are pleased to report that Rev. J. N. Hepburn, minister of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church is progressing favorably after an attack of pneumonia. Mr. Hepburn was unable to be in the pulpit last Sunday when the preacher for the day was Neil G. Smith, Knox College Librarian.

The U. K. Club Saturday night gathering held at its new home, The Richmond Theatre Grill, was most enjoyable. Attended by 40 members and guests, and later joined by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Breunjes, proprietors of the Grill, who made the members most comfortable. Activities consisted of dancing, a sing song and a raffle of a box of chocolates, which was won by Mrs. J. Shep-herd and a basket of jam and preserves won by Mrs. E. Shep-herd which had been presented by Mrs. Finnerty. Meetings will continue every Saturday at the usual time of 8 to 12 o'clock. The club would like to thank Mr. L. Dion of Oak Ridges for his gift of gladioli which were given to various members as spot prizes.

The last three lectures of the Kindergarten in Service Training Course, conducted by Mrs. Rihmora Cornell at O. M. MacKillop Public School concentrated on reading readiness, spring units and such interests as St. Patrick's Day, "signs of spring", Easter and Mother's Day. The next three lectures have been tentatively arranged and will include such topics as the farm, outdoor play testing and number work. The final meeting will consist of a supper meeting at the Summit Restaurant on May 19, with a guest speaker.

Local public school trustees attended the trustees' conference sponsored by the Urban and Rural Trustees' Association held this week at Lorne Park Collegiate.

Dr. H. H. MacKay and Mrs. MacKay have returned to their Arnold Ave. home after spending the winter months in Toronto.

Mr. Tom Murphy, Centre St. W., met his mother at Montreal, Tuesday, after her arrival in Canada aboard the S.S. Corinthia. A native of Bradford, Yorkshire, Mrs. Murphy Sr. will enjoy a two-month stay in Canada. Well known in real estate circles, her son is president of Look Real Estate Ltd.

The 3rd Richmond Hill Scout Group Ladies Auxiliary held its monthly meeting on Monday of this week at the home of Mrs. Timperon, Taylor Mills Drive, Beverley Acres. Final plans were discussed for the garden tea and bake sale on June 20. A very enjoyable social hour followed the business meeting. Numerous small gifts were auctioned off, and the proceeds will aid the Cub and Scout projects. Delicious refreshments were served, thus ending a very pleasant evening.

Following the combined meeting of the Evening W.A. and the Men's Club of St. Mary's Anglican Church held in Wrixon Hall on Thursday of last week, a brief business meeting of the Men's Club was held, with a collection of offers, resulting in the following: President, and Chairman of Sidesmen, Mr. Herbert Montgomery; Secretary, Mr. Monroe Ashkanase; Treasurer, Mr. Joe Goodier; Chief Sidesman for 9.30 a.m., Mr. Don Ross; chief sidesman for 11 a.m. services, Mr. Bob Overall; chief sidesman for 7 p.m. service — Mr. Aubrey Dunn.

The big news of the week for the 1st Richmond Hill Cubs and Scouts was the father and son banquet. About 120 guests sat down to dinner at Wrixon Hall, St. Mary's Anglican Church. A delicious home cooked dinner was served by the Scout Mothers Auxiliary, under a committee headed by Mrs. Bill Smith. Head table guests introduced by group committee chairman Woodburn Thomson were Tom Harrington, District Scout Commissioner; Helen Todd, president of the Mothers' Auxiliary; Jack Wharton, and Walter Smith. A highlight of the evening was some really top-flight legerdemain provided by Del Ray, internationally acclaimed magician.

Mrs. N. Epworth of the Colonial Nutria Ranch and Mrs. W. May, Mayfair Nutria Ranch, will be on CKVR Television next Wednesday, May 13, at 2.15 p.m. Many interesting aspects of nutria breeding will be discussed and garments made from nutria pelts displayed.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoover, of Roseview Avenue, have just returned from a month's vacation at Reddington Beach, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Simpson, Ramsgate, Kent, England, are at present staying with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bennett, Rockport Cres.

Mrs. O. E. Lapp and cousin Miss Anne Holly of Niagara Falls have returned from a five week vacation in Lakeland, Florida.

Magistrate James Butler, Wright Street, returned home from Sunnybrook Hospital Tuesday and is progressing favorably. His many friends join with "The Liberal" in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Entertaining for Miss Kay Tomlinson prior to her marriage to Mr. B. Blackburn at St. Mary's Anglican Church on May 16th was her sister-in-law, Mrs. C. Tomlinson, who held a delightful miscellaneous shower at the home of her mother, Mrs. W. L. Stone, Baker Avenue. Thirty guests, entertained, most relatives and old neighbours of the bride, who was the surprised recipient of many varied and lovely gifts.

On Wednesday Mrs. John Robertson of Weston held a surprise pantry shower inviting all the former friends and neighbours of Mr. and Mrs. A. Blackburn who lived in Weston prior to their move to Richmond Hill 11 years ago. A cardboard pantry completely stocked with food was presented to the couple and a shower cake made by Mrs. G. LeGarde, with a bride and wedding gown all sculptured in icing sugar, was very much admired by all the guests. Assisting the hostess was Mrs. J. Findlay, also of Weston.

Mrs. D. Fettes, Lucas St., entertained 40 joint friends of both families at a miscellaneous shower last Wednesday. It was a shower with a difference as the bride is an enthusiastic gardener and she was presented with many useful contributions for her new garden, four boxes of mixed plants, tools, gardening can and gloves. Delicious refreshments were served, with a shower cake decorated in garden colours, and assisting the hostess was Mrs. W. Turner. The shower was a complete surprise for Kay and she was overwhelmed by the generosity of her many friends.

We extend sympathy to Mr. Barry Brent, Arnold Crescent, who was bereaved in the passing Wednesday morning of his father, Mr. William Charles Brent at Newmarket. Mr. Brent Sr. was formerly a resident of Toronto.

The Rotary Club of Richmond Hill advise that their "Rotary Radio Roundup Night" was an outstanding success — thanks to the many performers who gave unstintingly of their talents — and to the many advertisers who supported this project. The program ran from 6.30 p.m. until midnight, on Friday of last week, with Rotarian M.C. announcers ably assisted by Mr. Stan Larke of C. J.R.H. The humorous errors created by the amateur announcers and commentators all added to the program, rather than detracted. The broadcast, which emanated from the showroom of Birrell Motors, was witnessed all evening by a crowd which at times exceeded 100 people. The Rotarians served refreshments to the crowd, which were appreciated by all. The club hopes to make an annual event.

The Richmond Hill Police Boys' Band offers opportunities to boys from 14 to 20 years of age who are interested in playing soprano and baritone trumpets. Instruments and qualified instruction is provided. Those boys who are anxious to learn to play these instruments are advised to contact the local police department.

On Friday evening, May 1, the Fifth Richmond Hill Scout Group sponsored an interesting travelogue in the United Church auditorium. Mr. Robert Bateman, who is well known to Richmond Hill and Thornhill residents, showed coloured slides of his recent world-wide tour. The large audience was enthusiastic in its reception of pictures of Asia, Africa and Australia. Many slides were of religious customs and native life which are quite often missing from talks of this type. Both old and young in the audience enjoyed themselves immensely. The proceeds will be used to purchase much-needed equipment for the Cubs and Scouts. The growth of the Fifth Richmond Hill group has been very rapid. It now consists of two packs of Cubs and an almost complete Scout troop in a little over a year from its formation.

In Memoriams

BASKERVILLE — In loving memory of a dear wife and mother Elsie Elizabeth, who passed away May 7, 1950. A wonderful mother, woman and aid.
One who was better, God never made,
A wonderful worker, loyal and fair,
Tenderly helpful, O mother you were.
Just in your judgment, always right,
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by all, our pride they share,
Pride in the wonderful one you were.
— Lovingly remembered by husband and family. clw45

BOWEN — In loving memory of our dear mother, who passed away April 17, 1939. We lost a mom, with heart of gold,
Who was more to us than wealth untold.
Without farewell she fell asleep.
The pearls gates were open,
A gentle voice said, Come,
And with farewells unspoken,
She gently entered home.
— Sadly missed by daughters and sons. *w45

HILL — In loving memory of my dear wife, Zeta Hill, who passed away May 1st, 1957. Time speeds on, two years are gone,
Since death its gloomy shadow cast,
Upon our home where all was bright,
And took from us a shining light.
We miss that light and ever will,
Her vacant place none can fill,
Here we mourn, but not in vain,
For in Heaven we will meet again.
— Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by husband George. clw45

HILL — In loving memory of Zeta Hill, who passed away May 1, 1957. God knows how much I miss her. Never shall her memory fade,
Loving thoughts shall ever wander,
To the spot where she is laid.
— Lovingly remembered by sister, Eva. clw45

HILL — In loving memory of our dear mother, Zeta Hill, who passed away May 1st, 1957. In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true,
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.
— Sadly missed by Allan, Sally and grandchildren. clw45

SNIDER — In loving memory of our dear father, John Snider, who passed away May 4, 1954. He bade no one his last farewell,
He said goodbye to none,
The Heavenly gates were open,
A loving voice said come.
We often sit and think of you,
The things you used to say,
We wonder why you had to die,
Without a chance to say goodbye.
— Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by daughters Mary-Lyn and Betty. clw45

BASSER — Mr. and Mrs. L. Basser are happy to announce the birth of a son, 7 lbs. 11½ ozs. at the Private Patients Pavilion, Toronto General Hospital, on April 30, 1959. clw45

HOOPER — To Mr. and Mrs. George Hooper, nee Joan Bourne, Buttonville, the gift of a son at Branson Hospital on May 2, 1959. Mother and baby both doing well. clw45

ROSS — Stan and Teddy (Turner) announce the arrival of a son Kevin, a brother for Jeff, May 1, 1959, at Queensway Hospital. *1w45

Deaths

McNABNEY, David Wray — At Toronto General Hospital, on Sat., May 2, 1959, David Wray McNabney, beloved husband of the late Elizabeth Abb Surgeoner, dear father of Georgina (Mrs. A. Grant, Richmond Hill), Mrs. Olive Rogers, Toronto, Samuel J. of Toronto; brother of William of Toronto, John of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Joseph, Kennedy, Sam, Annie, Mary and Elizabeth all of Ireland. The funeral was held in Toronto Tuesday, and interment followed in Mount Pleasant cemetery. clw45

SMITH, Marietta — At Weston, Tuesday, April 30, 1959, Mrs. Letta Atkinson, widow of Menno Smith of Edgeley; dear mother of Allan, Mrs. Warren Reaman (Hazel) and Cecil; sister of Edgar, Howard, Elmer and Mrs. A. C. Kennedy (Gertie), in her 82nd year. Rested at the Wright and Taylor funeral home, Richmond Hill. Interment Saturday Maple cemetery. clw45

Engagements
Mr. and Mrs. John Andrew Munroe announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Agnes Louise, to Mr. William John Case, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Case, Aurora. The wedding is to take place on Saturday, June the sixth, at eleven o'clock in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill. clw45
