A recent interesting visitor at "The Liberal" office was Mrs. F. M. Bethune of Toronto. Mrs. Bethune is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sivers who years ago lived in the house which for many years was the Mansbridge store, and which was recently torn down to make way for the new Woolworth building. Robert Sivers was born in 1819 and died in 1885; his wife Hannah died December 30, 1916, and both are buried in Richmond Hill cemetery. Mrs. Bethune, whose name before her marriage was Suddaby, recalled coming to Richmond Hill by the old Thompson horse-drawn coach to visit with her grandparents.

Mrs. Bethune visited the graves of her grandparents and in discussing business with Mr. Wesley Middleton who now has charge of the cemetery, showed a receipt given her grandmother, dated May 6, 1885, signed by Alex Moodie as treasurer. One of the well known old families of Richmond Hill Alex Moodie ran a grocery and liquor store on the premises recently vacated by Powell Furniture.

At the organizational meeting of the Richmond Hill Hebrew Congregation, Mrs. Ronald Snider was elected president. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gardner, Weldrick Road, well known residents of Richmond Hill, returned for a two day visit last week from Sturgeon Falls. They have recently taken over Brown's Camp at Sandy Island and were most enthusiastic over this delightful holiday spot they have found, where both excellent boating and fishing facilities are available.

Mr. George Gray asked Mr. E. Gooding to introduce the guest speaker of the evening, Mr. Peter Whittall (Mr. Fixit of TV). Mr. Whittall talked about his new book and his life in radio and television. It was thoroughly amusing and interesting and enjoyed by everyone present. After Mr. Whittall's speech, the election of new officers was performed. Mrs. L. Wright of the election committee introduced the new slate of officers for the coming school term. The following will hold office: President, Mr. George Gray; Vice President, Mrs. Iris Wright; Recording Secretary, Mrs. V. Buckingham; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Murray; Treasurer, Mr. J. R. Newburg; Directors, Mr. V. Buckingham, Mrs. J. Ritchie, Mrs. R. J. Whittaker, Mrs. Everett Baker and Mrs. L. R. Peterkin. Mrs. Crown, Vice-President of the Metropolitan Home & School Association was then introduced and expressed her pleasure in the tremendous progress for such a new home and school. Mrs. Crown then handed the gavel to the president, Mr. George Gray for another year and wished everyone a lot of luck. Mr. Gray in turn thanked Mrs. Crown and Mr. Gooding for all their help in the past year. The meeting adjourned with cookies and coffee being served.

Guide Notes

The First Richmond Hill W. Guide Company held their first "flying up" ceremony at MacKillop School on Monday evening, June 1st. Brownies from Mrs. Cook's Seventh Pack who received their wings were Beverly Baker, Eve Harwood, Lisa Jackson, Karen Kraushar, Dale Kincaid, Elizabeth Langstaff, Donna Sims and Linda Yerex. Susan A. worth and Margaret Pim of Mrs. Ripley's Third Pack also received their wings. Later, Guide Pamela Stoddart was awarded her cook, needlewoman and laundress badges; Guide Lorna Sutherland her horsewoman's and reader's badges. The First Guide Company close for the summer with a Weiner roast and campfire on June 8th. Many Guides will be attending our Richmond Hill East and West Districts' first Guide Camp at Sibbald's Park in July.

All Brownies and Guides wish to thank their friends and relatives for wonderful support on our recent cookie day. Adults connected with the local Guide movement are indeed proud that Brownie packs and Guide companies, once launched with ceremonial equipment, are financially self-sustaining. They buy their own badges, test and play materials, quite often contribute money to a "good turn" and by thrifty management provide their own occasional treats. Entire profits from cookie sales go to the individual packs and companies and help to "balance the budget." Thank you again dear general public for giving us your cookie orders.

Our local public and separate school boards, churches and town council help immeasurably by providing fine meeting places. Brownies and Guides will say their own special "thank you" next September when they plant golden jubilee tulips in flower beds at the various schools and halls where they meet.

On the night of June 4, the pupils of Our Lady of Fatima School presented an evening of entertainment at the Christian Education Building, Yonge and Centre Streets in Richmond Hill. Before an enthusiastic and capacity audience the curtain went up. Accompanied by Mrs. Harourt at the piano, a choral group comprised of the pupils from grades two to eight, sang a variety of six different tunes. Immediately following a group of boys from grades two to four did a number entitled "When Daddy Was A Little Boy," a "star drill" performed by a group of lovely little girls was reversed and a sloppy looking bunch of hoboes repeated the performance, making quite a number of intentional mistakes. The grade one class were Indians for the evening. Their number was a cute little performance, which had taken much hard work. Next on the programme were two comedy skits by Mr. Landry's class of grades 6 and 7, which put everyone in a good humour.

In between the short skits, Robert Rawlinson played "The Light Cavalry" and "The Irish Washerwoman" on the violin. The main feature of the evening was an operetta entitled, "In the Land of Dreams Come True". All participants were dressed in an array of colourful costumes. The leading roles were played by Helen Roman and Christine Jackson. The finale marked the end of a wonderful evening.
