Sunday School Anniversary

Sunday School anniversary service was held in Hope United Church Sunday, May 31, at 11 a.m. Rev. Harold Davies introduced the guest speaker, Rev. E. M. Nicols of Toronto who chose as his text, "What Think You of Jesus" and reminded his listeners that everyone has an answer to this question. Mr. Frank Robson, Sunday School superintendent, extended a welcome to all present and told the story for the children. Music was supplied by the Kettleby Girls' Quartet.

CONCORD SOCIALS

Be Sure To Vote

Did you vote yet? There still may be time, if you are reading this before 8:00 p.m. The old saying is still the best, "Vote as you like, but vote!"

Socials

Three new homes are in various stages of erection on Southview Drive. At the corner of Keele St. and Southview is a lovely two-storey home whose owners, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, hope to move in shortly. Next door is the future home of Mr. and Mrs. Osborne and son Ricky. The house was begun in April and the Osbornes hope to move in at the end of July. Just east of the Osbornes, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Marsicek have begun their new home. A big welcome to all our new neighbours.

Miss Marion Keffer, Toronto, and Mr. Roy Keffer, Newmarket, had lunch Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Keffer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilf Symons and family, Port Hope, Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Farndale visited Mr. and Mrs. Alf Bagg Sunday afternoon.

Anniversaries

Mr. and Mrs. Oman Bowes celebrated their 29th wedding anniversary last Friday, June 5. They had dinner that evening with daughter and son-in-law, Doris and Herb McLean and grandson Steve.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Bagg celebrated their forty-ninth anniversary on June 8th by having many members of their family for dinner.

Congratulations to two fine couples whose years together have been happy and a wonderful example for us "young uns" to follow.

New District Governor

ANDREW SNIDER

The new District Governor A-7, elected at the Lions' convention held in Windsor, Ontario, on Wednesday, June 3, is Lion Andrew E. (Andy) Snider. 42 clubs in the area attended the convention including Lions in the Toronto area from Weston to the Rouge Hills and from as far north as Sunderland.

District Governor Snider, who defeated three other candidates in his race for office, is a charter member of the Maple Lions Club and a Key member. He is a ten-year perfect attendance member and Chairman of Constitution and By-Laws Committee; a member of the Maple Village Board of Trustees; a member of the Board of Managers for St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and office manager of the Central Ontario Cattle Breeding Association (a Co-op. enterprise with over 13,000 members).

Married, with one daughter, Mr. Snider was Zone Chairman for District A-7, Region 18N for 1953-54 and Deputy District Governor for Region 18 of District A-7 from 1954-55. He is a former member of the Maple Community Hall committee; Maple Library Board; school teacher for nine years and the Maple postmaster for eight years.

No News May Be Good News

Several people have been very nice in saying they enjoy reading our "Maple Notes" (which reminds me, hasn't anyone a better idea for a heading than that one?)

However — with summer coming on the church groups, ladies' auxiliaries, scouts and cubs and community and school club, etc., will all be taking time out. This means the main flow of our news will be curtailed. Therefore it is up to those same interested readers to give us any news leads they happen to pick up — or make themselves.

You may think that your neighbour isn't interested in where and how you spend your vacation. You would be pleasantly surprised, so come on, and tell us of your plans.

There must be boys and girls attending summer camps — and folks taking interesting trips or going exciting places. Phone 223W and share them, might even suggest similar ideas others could take advantage of.

Your child always likes to see his birthday in the paper, or when he (or she) learned to swim or even took out the boat for the first time on their own.

Sure, there's lots of news around, see if you can direct it my way. Much appreciated.

Edgeley Socials

This week we extend best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Alf Bagg and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Boake who are celebrating their wedding anniversaries.

Mrs. George Poole of Concord will be the hostess at a regular meeting of the Women's Association on June 18. Mrs. Fred Hedgcock will convene the meeting and Mrs. Frank Locke and Mrs. R. Stuart will be the social committee.

Credit Valley Stone Quarries and Maple Block will soon be moving their businesses to the new industrial centre on No. 7 Highway east of Edgeley corner. It is estimated that 17 new businesses will be locating in that area within the next two years.

Shower At Community Hall

On a recent evening friends and neighbours gathered at the community hall to give a shower of lovely gifts and best wishes to Joan White who will be married at Maple United Church, Saturday, June 13. Several of the ladies of the community sponsored the shower and some of the junior members, Linda Cooper, Linda LeRiviere, Brenda Robinson, Billy Watson and Paul McMahon presented the gifts to Joan.

1st Maple Cubs

The cubs of A and B packs are busily studying all about the flag, practicing the jungle dance, doing knee bends, sending signals and spotting all manner of birds and animals. All this in preparation for the York Summit Cub Rally to be held Saturday, June 13, at Thornhill Park. The cubs are asked to pack their lunch and be at the Scout Hut at 5 o'clock.

Drinks will be provided, also transportation.

Dress in full uniform.

If you haven't as yet attended one of these rallies — it's really very interesting as you may earn points for your own pack and meet other neighbouring packs as well. The sing song around an open camp fire, from 8:30 to 9, is lots of fun. So be sure you plan to attend. This is one event no cub will want to miss.

New Boat Brings Big Returns

Brian Allan saved up his pennies and bought a new row boat. Thus inspired, he pulled in a 26-inch, 6 pound pickerel, while fishing near Fenelon Falls. If his luck holds out, maybe his dad could have a special fresh fish department.

Maple United Church W.M.S.

The day was made to order, the flowers were simply grand and approximately 200 friends from neighbouring churches, Toronto and surrounding districts attended a very successful tea at the delightfully appointed home of Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Bigford.

This was the annual Tulip Tea under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society, held June 6th.

Mrs. Bigford, assisted by Mrs. Harold Davies, received the guests, and took the opportunity to stroll through the garden where the iris in many varied colours was a beautiful sight.

Indoors, cut flowers were everywhere (yes, there were tulips, I saw them). The tables were decorated with candles, sweet peas, snapdragons and roses.

Those pouring tea were Past President, Mrs. H. Jackson; 1st Vice-president, Mrs. T. F. Jackson; 2nd Vice-president, Mrs. E. Hemphill, and supply secretary, Mrs. H. Jennings, who has been a member of the W.M.S. for over 25 years — all wore pink carnation corsages.

The members served the guests (and washed dishes, too).

Mrs. J. Pollock is the oldest member of the society, having joined in 1905. Although unable to attend the tea, Mrs. Pollock was presented with a corsage of mauve sweet peas.

The W.M.S. would like to thank everyone for their contribution, in a gratifying financial way, which enables them to carry on their many departments of service.

Indeed, a very lovely afternoon.

Confirmation At Lutheran Church

Sunday, June 7, Keith Boeckner was confirmed in the Lutheran Church, Keele Street.

In Keith's honour his parents Earl and Gladys Boeckner, gave a dinner party.

Guests were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grahman of Plamerton, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fisher of Kitchener, and the pastor of their church, Dr. Lindeman and Mrs. Lindeman.

Available Again

Hey girls, I'm home and open for any invites to coffee clagues once more.

That week at Sellwood's Salon, ended up as four — but enjoyed each one and met some mighty fine folk; as for my bosses, Bert and Muriel Selwood, they don't come any nicer.

So here we are back to the old grind with Greg and Steve (Shore, that is) tossing in a bout of German measles to vary it some what.

Maple Public Library News

by Shirley Cleworth

With the advent of summer and the prospect of vacation time for our children this might be a good opportunity to talk about children and literature. There will be many long leisurely days when it will be too hot for much activity and the time would be well spent in reading.

It seems to me in this age of television, movies, and just the general pressures of twentieth century living, that we, as parents, should take stock occasionally and ask ourselves if we are giving our children the proper heritage to literature and reading.

Are we paying sufficient attention to what they read and how much? Or are we inclined to slough off our responsibilities and expect the school to provide all the incentive towards reading?

Love of good literature is fostered in the home. If a child is brought up in a home where books are regarded as a necessity of life, he in turn will impart them to his children. It is between the ages of six and fourteen that we can help mould his tastes in literature. We should make very sure that he is reading the very best that is available.

Today, when there are so many luxuries to intrigue a child, it is easy to neglect the idea of giving books to children as a gift. While they will certainly get most of their reading from the public library it is still essential for them to own copies of their favourite stories. "Alice In Wonderland" was absolutely enchanting to me as a child. My copy was well loved and well worn.

Resolve to give time and thought to your children's reading this summer.

We have such a short time to pass on our ideals to our children. Make sure that a love of literature is one of them.

This month at the Maple Public Library we have a wonderful new selection of children's books, some of which I list at the end.

The library will be closed from July 6 to July 20, and books may be taken out for a longer period of time during the summer vacation.

New Books for Children

"The Space Ship to the Moon", G. Gibbons; "The Dog From Nowhere", E. Coatsworth; "Pioneer Surgeon", Josephine Rich; "The Little Savages", Ernest Thompson Seton; "The Black Stallion", Gladys B. Lewis; "The Birthday Angel", Martha B. King; "Kim and Katie on Their Holidays", Mary Grannan, and Many others.

...and so you see, son...

...our land today hasn't got the minerals in it that it had when I was a young gaffer. It took me a while to figure that out because I s'pose I was a little old fashioned and hard to change, but I know now that the farm you've just taken over, more than likely is lacking in phosphorous. Well, you can't grow hay—even alfalfa—or grain or anything else that has enough phosphorous in it to give your milk cows what they need to keep up in their milk flow. I learned this the hard way—by seeing our cow's milk drop down more than it should... so I'm just passing on this advice to you now that you've married and taken over that hundred acres that you...
