Maple Notes

On June 26th, to celebrate the day the largest 8th grade class in George Bailey Public School graduated, even the rain helped by holding off. There were eight beautifully dressed girls and fifteen smartly groomed boys, backed up by the other seven grades, who sat on the lawn outside the new front door and heard a very pertinent address by Principal John Outram.

School Club on behalf of the class and principal.
Memorial Day Service
On Sunday, June 21st, the weather was ideal for the Memorial Day Service, in remembrance of those passed on, and who peacefully rest in Maple United Cemetery.

The Ministers taking part in the service were Rev. W. B. Jennings B.A.B.D., of St. Stephens Anglican Church, Rev. B. F. Andrews of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church and Rev. H. W. Davies B.A., of Maple United Church who delivered the Address.

There were a good number of friends from near and far. And the many tokens of flowers and plants here and there throughout the cemetery created a garden like appearance thus showing that the friends had not forgotten their loved ones.

The general appearance of the cemetery was commendable due to time and hard work put in to it, in so short a time.

Ice Cream Social
Being a city girl, all I knew about such things was what I saw at the moving pictures. Now that I've attended one - along with a couple hundred others - let me agree, they are fun. Yes, even the hard working W.A. of Maple United Church and the Hi C's, ably guided by Bob and Lynn James seemed to be having themselves a time, on Tuesday evening, June 23rd. As for some of the small fry - oh youth!

Where could they be stashing it all? We observed the James boys Brian and Doug with their cousin Shelly, keeping their waitress on the hop.

The Hi C's were feeling ambitious a few weeks back and thought they would like to put on just such an affair. However, being newly organized and few in number the June group of the W.A. under Mrs. Kay Lightheart, came to their aid and helped make it the success it was.

The church lawn looked most festive with small tables covered with white cloths, set out amongst strings of gay coloured lights. On each table there was a vase of deep red roses, donated by Mr. Roy Clegg.

The W.A. group looked after the food detail, baking pies and cakes, etc., and more or less supervising the whole deal.

Menus had been prepared, thanks to Bruce Murchison, in a colourful manner.

For this one occasion Bob and Lynn contacted the 15-17 age group of the United Churches of Concord, Edgeley, Hope and Maple, and were extremely pleased with the response. No doubt in the fall when the club starts up again, it will be a going concern.

Their interest was certainly whetted that night and sitting back (waiting for another ice cream) we couldn't help but feel intensely proud of our local young people.

Help!
Mr. and Mrs. R. Thompson recently enjoyed the company of several out of town friends and relatives, among them being Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Porter of Ottawa with their sons Jeffrey and Christopher and Mr. and Mrs. H. Jacobs, St. Paul, Minnesota. In between visits they also had guests from Toronto.

Whitchurch: Township Council agreed by resolution to engage two special constables to patrol the lakes in the municipality and to have control of all parking on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Their employment is to run until September 15.

Picnic at Greenwood Park
Mark-Vaun Women's Institute held their annual picnic on Sunday, June 28th, at Greenwood Park. About 40 adults and children spent an enjoyable day of swimming, hiking, racing, etc., and made the homeward journey tired but happy.

School Closing
Schools in the area closed at noon on Friday as the children hurried home with their report cards and the long awaited for news. We hope that there were not too many disappointed. The graduation banquet was held last week and we hope to have a full report of this for next week's issue.

Personals
Mrs. G. Wake, No. 7 Highway, entertained at a miscellaneous shower last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Gail Lockhart who is being married on Saturday, July 4th. Gail received many lovely gifts from neighbours and relatives who were present.

The church was decorated with baskets of red roses, white carnations and yellow mums.

Rev. B. T. McSpadden officiated at the ceremony, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Barbara Lawson. Before the ceremony, Miss Jo Anne McLean sang O Perfect Love, and during the signing of the register she sang Rest in the Lord.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gown in a full length white nylon net, and rayon and nylon lace over satin dress. The bodice was trimmed

Strawberry Festival

Another successful Strawberry Festival was held in Teston United Church Wednesday, June 24. An estimated 630 people were served. The story of the festival began the day before when the ladies of the church are to be found baking countless pies and cakes, etc. That evening long tables are set up in the Sunday School room. Early on the day of the festival the berries are brought to the church where they are stemmed and washed. Potatoes must be peeled and cooked, cabbage shredded for salads and the many loaves of bread buttered. Teen-agers and young people full of life and laughter work along with more experienced hands at the task, to accomplish an amazing amount of work. At a quarter to five tables have been set, decorated with flowers and laden with good food and the first customers start to appear. By five-fifteen, 90 people are enjoying the delicious home cooked food for which the ladies of Teston are famous. A line of people begins to form at the door and as quickly as places are vacated they are filled again. Salad plates are filled and emptied, saucers of luscious red berries are served and pies, cakes and tarts are consumed by the score. And so it goes for four hours! Many old friendships are renewed and new friendships made and over all this bustle of activity is the joy of a well organized co-operative group enjoying the satisfaction of a "mission accomplished." Tired workers feel that the weariness is all worthwhile and this is Strawberry Festival 1959.

There will be no church services in Teston and Sundays of July 5 and 12. Rev. and Mrs. Jenkinson are enjoying a much deserved holiday. There will be services in King City United Church both Sundays at 10 a.m. with Rev. E. M. Nicols of Toronto in charge.

Supervised Playground
The Charles Howitt Area Recreational Association supervised playground will be open on Thursday, July 2nd and continue until Wednesday, July 29th. This year the playground will be held in the Richvale Public School grounds, Spruce Avenue, instead of Charles Howitt School. The hours will be from 9 to 12 in the mornings and from 1.30 to 3.30 in the afternoons, and all children five years of age and over living in the area will be welcome.

School Closing
Schools in the area closed at noon on Friday as the children hurried home with their report cards and the long awaited for news. We hope that there were not too many disappointed. The graduation banquet was held last week and we hope to have a full report of this for next week's issue.

Mrs. G. Wake, No. 7 Highway, entertained at a miscellaneous shower last Thursday evening in honor of Miss Gail Lockhart who is being married on Saturday, July 4th. Gail received many lovely gifts from neighbours and relatives who were present.

The church was decorated with baskets of red roses, white carnations and yellow mums.

Rev. B. T. McSpadden officiated at the ceremony, and the wedding music was played by Mrs. Barbara Lawson. Before the ceremony, Miss Jo Anne McLean sang O Perfect Love, and during the signing of the register she sang Rest in the Lord.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gown in a full length white nylon net, and rayon and nylon lace over satin dress. The bodice was trimmed with seed pearls and sequins. She wore a small white hat with seed pearls and fingertip veil embroidered with seed pearls and sequins, and carried a bouquet of white and red roses.

Attending the bride was Miss Marlene Wakelin as maid of honor, gowned in waltz length mauve nylon over taffeta and carrying a nosegay of yellow roses and white carnations.

Bridesmaids Miss Carol Weavers, sister of the bride and Miss Dianne Musselman were gowned in aqua nylon over taffeta and carried nosegays of pink and white carnations.

Flower girls were Shirley and Diana Whitehead, cousins of the bride, dressed in yellow nylon and carrying nosegays of yellow daisy mums.

The best man was William Whitehead, cousin of the bride, and ushers were Bill Shapu and Bill Shaw.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowyer, 32 Helen Avenue, Thornhill. The bride's mother received the guests wearing pink nylon lace over taffeta with white accessories and corsage of yellow roses and white carnations. She was assisted by the groom's mother in blue nylon and wearing a corsage of pink roses.

For her honeymoon trip to Algonquin Park, the bride donned a going away outfit of a duster coat dress of turquoise with white accessories and corsage of white and red roses.

Following the honeymoon, the couple will return to Kleinburg where they will be living.

Edgeley News

Miss Margaret Hendry was one of five York County girls who attended the girls' conference at the Ontario Agricultural College in Guelph last week.

Miss Janice Boake has made application to enter the one year degree course in Home Economics at Macdonald Institute in Guelph next fall.

Next week Janice is flying to Western Canada to visit her relatives there and to attend the Calgary Stampede.

The members of the Edgeley W.A. catered at a garden party at the home of Mrs. Binkley, Riverside Drive, Toronto, on Wednesday of last week, when the principal and teachers of Vaughan Road Collegiate were her guests.

This week we wish many happy returns of the day to Arthur Howden, June 29, Mrs. Alf Bagg, July 3; and Miss Margaret Hendry, July 5. Also congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. John Young who are celebrating their wedding anniversary, June 30, which is also Mrs. Young's birthday.

The Edgeley Ecoparts have been invited to take part in the Junior Activities at the Canadian National Exhibition on the last Wednesday of the exhibition. They will present their latest project "The Milky Way", judge skits, etc., in much the same manner as they did last year when they took their project, "Clothes Closets Up To Date."

Jim Darlington Jr. was home from Camp Borden to visit his parents last week. Through the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, which Jim attended last season, he was given the opportunity to take the Officers' Training Course for 12 weeks each summer for two years. He is at present training with the Ordnance Corps.

Like many other students at the college, Jim was stricken with flu at exam time this Spring, so he is returning to Guelph on September 9 to try the examinations.

Mrs. John Norton of Paisley spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Whitmore last week.

Lutheran Women
On Wednesday evening, June 17, the United Lutheran Church Women held their regular meeting at the church with the president, Mrs. Roy Keffer presiding. Mrs. Ross Percival spoke on "Food", and the greater need of our bodies at times for spiritual food than for material food, and in connection with the theme, conducted a little playlet telling the story of Mary and Martha serving the Master and how the one was concerned how the meal was being served and the other one with just being with Him. Mrs. Gladys Keffer, Mrs. Ruth Ambrose and Mrs. Gladys Boechner took part in the play.

Plans were made for a barbecue picnic and supper on the church grounds on July 15. The next regular meeting will be held on Wednesday, September 16.
