Sunday School
 Sunday School classes have been withdrawn until September. All those who can possibly do so are invited to attend the junior congregation service held for all children under 12. Films will be used which interest the youngsters. Church is held each Sunday morning at 9:45 a.m. Come as a family and enjoy the service. Rev. Kennedy will be at Temperanceville July 3. The assistant, Mr. Wallace is a fine speaker with a very pleasant personality. You are cordially invited to attend during the summer months.
 F. Ted By Pupils

On Monday evening, June 22, Temperanceville School was bubbling over with excitement as the pupils gave Mr. Gillham of whom they are so fond, and his fiancée, Miss Oldham a surprise miscellaneous shower.

The party had been planned as an "open house" to see the new furnishings of the staff room. At the time of the official opening the room was bare with the exception of a built-in book shelves and a telephone. However, the home and school and the Temperanceville W. have given the room a more than inviting appearance. The W.I. purchased lovely drapes in nautical design in soft chocolate background, which is also the color of the covering of the couch. The swivel arm chair is a pretty shade of green. The lamp with its beige shade sits on a very modern table of step-end design. In his remarks as chairman of the evening, Mr. Wilbert Jennings voiced appreciation to the two societies for these furnishings.

The opening number of the program was "The Windmill" an action song by the junior grades, assisted by their teacher, Mrs. Blackburn and music teacher, Mrs. St. John. Melody and Cathie Kilcup sang the pretty duet of "Hands", David Hessler of Kings played a piano solo. The two square dancing sets of the junior grades displayed their talent in dancing with Johnny Watson as caller. Bob Macklin chose two selections to play on his guitar which pleased the audience. Grades 4 & 5, with Elaine Paxton as accompanist sang a cowboy song. Some of the children were dressed in appropriate costumes. This was sung in two part harmony with Mrs. St. John conducting. Always ready for good humour, the audience enjoyed an impromptu rhythm band. A number of adults were chosen from the audience, given instruments (of a sort), some charming hats, with Mrs. Andy Annand as conductress, played a selection. Mrs. A. Pearce's sense of humour was given vent in her antics in this number. E. Paxton played a piano selection. Accompanied by Miss Betty Beynon, Mrs. St. John delighted the audience with her solo. Grades 6 and 7 in two part harmony sang "Barnacle Bill The Sailor" but placed the names of John and Marion in the appropriate places. This was followed by a humorous reading by Audrey Herrema, "The Wedding Account" which described the groom's apparel rather than the bride's. Rev. Kennedy, who gives religious instruction in the Temperanceville School spoke briefly but in his remarks said the respect shown by the children for Mr. Gillham was very obvious. They loved, obeyed and did good work for him. Rev. Kennedy wishes Mr. Gillham and his bride-to-be the very best for their future.

The evening came to a climax as two students, Ann Paxton, the bride, very prettily dressed, and Gordon Henshaw, the groom, smartly attired, drew in a wagon decorated in pink and white, full of gifts, to John and Marion, who had been invited to take chairs at the front. The second load was drawn in by students representing middle life with their family and the third load with aged grandma and grandpa. The gifts were all beautiful and most useful. There were sheets, pillow cases, mats, towels, large picture, electric clock, casseroles, vases, cup and saucers, a lovely teapot, and creamer and sugar from grade 5, an electric kettle from a number of pupils and many other lovely gifts.

John and Marion expressed their deep appreciation to the children and their parents for this wonderful surprise (for indeed it was a surprise and a happy one) for them both.

Lunch was served by the ladies and senior girls.
 This was another happy occasion at Temperanceville School and one long to be remembered — it brought such pleasure to the many who were present.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ross Smith (Violet Robinson) on the birth of their son, a grandson for Mr. and Mrs. Tom Robinson.
 The appreciation of Temperanceville Sunday School is extended to Miss Mabel Jennings who painted so beautifully "The Last Supper" and "Suffer Little Children to Come Unto Me" and gave the pictures to the Sunday school.
 On Monday, June 22, Mrs. Nelson Thompson had as supper guests, Mr. Gillham, principal of Temperanceville School, his fiancée Miss Marion Oldham, and Mrs. Blackburn. Mrs. Charles Henshaw, Mrs. Herb Routledge, Mrs. Wilfred Fournier and Mrs. Don Chalk. Billy Thompson had Bob Macklin as his guest.
 Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Jennings whose baby daughter was born on Wednesday, a sister for Diana, Nancy, Johnny and Chris.

Miss Joan Hare spent 3 days this week at the 4-H conference in Guelph as one of the girls in York County selected to attend this annual affair.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rumble and Danny were among the 85 persons who attended the annual family picnic held at Stanley Park, Erin, on Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Thompson and Billy as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Chalk and family travelled to the conservation park at Craigleigh, eight miles beyond the Blue Mountains, where they picnicked at Georgian Bay. They joined Rev. and Mrs. Mesley at Minesing, who had planned the picnic.

We are very glad to report that Bob Turner was able to return home after his 2 1/2 weeks hospitalization, on Sunday.
 Miss Dorothy Armstrong of King held a recital at Richmond Hill Anglican Church. Patsy Macklin, Karen and Janet Mitchell and Judith Paxton took part in the program. Mrs. J. Macklin, Mrs. W. Mitchell and Mrs. M. Wells had the pleasure of attending.
 Little Sherry Iskiew, Toronto, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Anderson.

Mrs. A. H. Miller and Mrs. Acreman visited on Wednesday afternoon of last week with Mrs. Binnington; the purpose being to plan and execute some of the craft work for the coming vacation school. Mrs. Miller is in charge of crafts for girls over nine years of age, with Mrs. Binnington and Mrs. Acreman as assistants. Vacation school will open on July 13, one week from next Monday in Headford Church at 9 a.m.

On Sunday last, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Wellman, with Joan, Nora, Barbara, Helen and Stephen, visited with the George Barkers, enjoying very much a picnic in their flats.

Thursday evening last was the occasion of the annual picnic of S. S. No. 3, with the largest attendance. One was for the pupil who has made the greatest advancement in the year's standing (from 48 last year to 67 this year.) This went to Alfred Johnston. The other prize was for the pupil having only missed one half day in the school year, and never having been late. Austin Johnston received this prize.
 The usual treat of ice cream, supplied by the trustees, and sandwiches and cookies in great abundance topped off an excellent evening.
 Field Day at Guelph O.A.C. was on Saturday, and the Brodie young folk and Charles and Elisabeth Barker were among those attending from here. The Brodies brought back with them, to be their guest for a week, Miss Stevens, one of an exchange group of agricultural students from the United Kingdom. Miss Stevens has been in Canada since May, and it was nice to chat with her after church. She hails from Briggs Bridge, near Glasgow, and her accent is utterly charming.
 Mr. and Mrs. George Barker and Mrs. Acreman called on the Binningtons on Saturday evening, to present the felicitations of the folk of Headford and a gift in recognition of the silver anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. Binnington.
 Mrs. B. Morris of Toronto was a week-end guest of Lorraine and Murray Acreman.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fraser of Ravenna spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wellman and Brenda and Paul.

 Mr. Learn and Mrs. Windrim accompanied the Grade 7 and 8 class on their annual outing on Tuesday, May 23rd. From 8 o'clock in the morning when a full busload left the school until 9:30 in the evening when they arrived home, they had a very busy schedule.
 The first stop was at DeHavilland Aircraft, and then on to Hamilton Rock Gardens where they saw the many beautiful flowers in this well-known garden. On to Stoney Creek, Fort George, and then to Queenston, where they climbed to the top of the famous Brock's Monument. Watching the big ships in the Welland Canal was a highlight of the tour. On to the Sir Adam Beck Power Plant at Niagara, then across the border to Niagara Falls, N.Y. for an hour or so of sightseeing and souvenir hunting. On the homeward journey, they crossed the new Burlington Skyway and then home.
 Mr. Evans took his class on a trip to Hart Lake on Wednesday, June 24th.
 The Senior class held a farewell party on Thursday afternoon. They presented Mrs. Windrim with two dozen Talisman Roses, as she will not be returning to Thornlea in the fall, but will be teaching at the new area school with Mr. Learn.
