CARRVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. BERT MIDDLETON
Telephone Maple 130R3

The United Church W.A. held their annual strawberry supper on Wednesday, June 24. While the weather wasn't the best and there were other suppers in nearby communities there still was a wonderful crowd. The ladies served around 300. The ladies of the W.A. are pleased with the results, and are grateful to all who helped in any way to make the supper successful. It is most gratifying that so many are willing to help again. A thank-you to all who profit of over $200 was realized. The profits will be turned over to the church to help in their expenses.

Community Shower
The friends and neighbours in the Carrville and Concord communities met on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Winger to honour their son Murray and his bride-to-be, Miss Beverley Davidson, of Meath Park, Sask., and presented them with a miscellaneous shower. They were the recipients of many lovely and useful gifts, which the happy couple were pleased to receive and thanked all very graciously for them. There were about 60 percent present to enjoy this pleasant event. Mrs. J. Barton & Mrs. R. Middleton were the hostesses for the evening and were assisted by Mrs. A. Read, Misses Mary George, Dorothy Baker, Martha Baker and Mrs. F. Winger. Murray and Beverley are to be married July 18, at the North Star Mission, Meath Park, Saskatchewan. Beverley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Davidson, Meath Park, Saskatchewan. We all join in wishing them a very happy married life. They have had several other showers.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Winger and Paul are planning to go out to Meath Park, Sask., to attend the wedding in July and plan on seeing a bit of the west while out there. Meath Park is about 40 miles from Prince Albert, Sask.

All sat down to a delicious lunch. The children were given candy and peanuts and had a play outside while the ladies tidied the school. Mr. Green called them in and Mrs. Manning presented each child with an appropriate gift. Mr. Green was also presented with a gift. Mrs. Gail Darling guessed the closest to the number of peas in the jar.

Decoration Service
The 10th annual decoration service was held on Sunday, June 28 at Carrville United Church and the cemetery looked a beautiful flower garden when all the lovely baskets and containers and plants were placed by the families at the graves. A few friends joined in the memorial service in the church following the decorating of the graves. Dr. Eddy gave a fine message on this theme of memorial and the choir sang "God has a beautiful garden."

Sunday School
This Sunday, June 28, was the last Sunday for classes at Carrville Sunday school until September. Only 20 were present. Gretta and Nancy Middleton and Mark Kirk completed a full year of perfect attendance, from last July day till June 28. The award system will be continued in September.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Del Brocco on the birth of a son at the new Grace Hospital, Toronto, on Tuesday, June 23. A brother for Kirk and Duane.

Although Mr. and Mrs. T. Shields and family have moved to Maple, we'd like to wish Janice Shields a very happy birthday on July 2, when she'll be six years old.

Poole-Couper Wedding Mt. Albert United Church

Mount Albert United Church was decorated with white standards of pink carnations, gladioli and white mums and white lighted tapers for the marriage of Beverley Anne Couper, only daughter of Mrs. Couper and the late William Couper of Mount Albert, to Gordon Edward Poole, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Poole of Concord. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Curtis, Mr. Leon Nash was organist. Mrs. James Oldham, soloist, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love".

Given in marriage by her brother, James Couper, the bride wore a full-length gown of mist white silk organza over net and taffeta, designed with a small v-neckline, long, puffed sleeves and fitted bodice. The skirt fell to a chapel train. Lace appliques sprinkled with seed pearls and sequins adorned the neckline and bouffant skirt. Her veil of silk illusion was held by a crown of seed pearl. She carried a cascade of cream coloured roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Maid of honour was the bride's cousin, Isabelle Couper, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Kenneth Poole, sister-in-law of the groom, and Ruth Smith. They were frocks of powder blue bouffant and net over taffeta with a flowing panel in the back. They wore matching floral bandeaus in their hair and carried cascades of pink carnations.

Groomsman for his brother was Kenneth Poole, and ushers were Jack Klassen, cousin of the bride, and Stanley Harrison, brother-in-law of the groom.

At the reception in the church hall the bride's mother received in a sheath dress of aqua chantilly lace and organza with white accessories and corsage of pink rosebuds and stephanotis. The groom's mother assisted in a plum shade dress of printed silk with beige accessories and corsage of Johanna Hill roses.

For the wedding trip to the New England States and Cape Cod, the bride chose a printed silk sheath dress of Caribbean blue and white with matching sheer coat, white accessories and corsage of Johanna Hill roses.

The couple will reside in Toronto.

"If I could see any advantage for us," the mayor added, "I would be all for it. But Metro has not a thing to offer us that we haven't already got."
