Vivien Mott Weds Mr. Donald White

Holy Trinity Church, Thornhill, was decorated with white shasta mums and pink carnations for the afternoon wedding of Vivien Mott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mott, to Donald White, son of Mrs. and the late Mr. H. White, all of Thornhill, on June 20, 1959. Rev. W. E. Askew officiated at the ceremony which was attended by 120 guests.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride looked very lovely in a crinoline gown of white organza with Chantilly lace bodice, its scoop neckline edged with tiny leaves embedded with pearls; the skirt had touches of the same tiny leaves and lace applied motifs, while her tiny headpiece was a circlet of white leaves and lily of the valley. She carried a bouquet of Shastamums. Miss Judith Mott, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor and a sister Susan, Janet Fry and Marg Jennings attended as bridesmaids with her 3 year old cousin, Lindsey Jay, as flower girl; they all wore identical gowns in very pale pink organza on princess lines, with small daisies edging the bodice and neck-line; the bridesmaids' dresses fea-tured a train of organza, drac-on length, topped with a bouffant bow. During the service Miss Jean Orr sang 'The Lord's Prayer' and The 23rd Psalm, Mr. Devy was at the organ.

Following a large reception held in the church hall, the happy pair is left on a honeymoon to Cape Cod, on their return they will reside in Willowdale.

York County Council Highlights

The Financial Report presented by the finance committee at the June Session of York County Council, showed a surplus at De-cember 31, 1958 of $61,949.94 was accepted without comment last Thursday night. A recommendation included that the treasurer notify the chairman of the finance committee if any commit-tee exceeds its budget by $500.

County Assessor E. K. Jones presented a detailed report and explained the equalized assessment which will be used for this 1960 levy. All but one municipali-ty in the County of York is now using this new form of assessment he said.

Mr. Jones' recommendation that a County Court of Revision be established to deal with ap-peals as to valuations of real property made by the local as-sessors in the municipalities of the county, was turned down again this year; but under the new system of appeals being set up in other areas, York County will eventually have to have a travelling court of revision, Mr. Jones believes.

For the second time this year, County Council received a notice of resignation from its Civil De-fense Co-ordinator, Mr. Marshall McMurchy, who had been appointed on the resignation earlier of Reeve John Perry, has also re-signed, council was informed.

The annual Warden's picnic will be held at Sibbald's Point, sometime in July. Reeve Sellers is chairman of the picnic commit-tee.

With the exception of the two members from Vaughan Town-ship who did not vote, and Deputy-reeve S. Tinker who was op-posed, County Council approved the recommendation of Reeve Armstrong, seconded by Deputy-reeve N. Garrick, that the Tor-onto and York Roads Commission be instructed to "screen the area around the marshalling yard in Vaughan Township with ever-green trees."

Neighbourhood Notes

July already and I'm just get-ting used to writing 1959! The songbirds have given way to blackbirds; the former whistles a happy tune over his first hay crop; cicadas cheep in the hedge-rows and a heat haze shimmers over ripening wheat. School is out! The season of picnics is at hand!

Picnic at the Maples
It was cool picnic weather on Monday morning of last week when Buttonville school children, their parents and teachers set out in carloads for the annual picnic at The Maples, Uxbridge, but after a morning of games and races and horseback riding every-one enjoyed their lunch, and in the afternoon it was warm enough to swim in the pool.

At lunch time approximately 150 sat down at the picnic tables. An unusually large number of parents attended because this was probably their last opportunity to see Mr. and Mrs. Murray Roberts, who will leave Button-ville School to take up duties at Elliott Lake. Following lunch-oon Kathi Murgaski presented Mr. and Mrs. Roberts with a 400-Day clock on behalf of the stu-dents.

Ladies in charge of arrange-ments were Mrs. Jack Harrott, Mrs. Bert Gardhouse, Mrs. Gord-on Morrison and Mrs. S. R. Pat-terson.

Mr. Jack Harrott, member of the school board, took along his camera and there is a complete record on film of a pleasant day. School Presentations
Friday Morning
At nine o'clock Friday morning of last week home and school executive members were on hand for a presentation ceremony, when children of all grades were chosen for special awards.

Mrs. John Storey, Home and School president, did the honours and in the junior room presided over by Mrs. Roberts awards were made to: Perfect attendance in Grades 1 and 2—Susan Stewart; Best Student, Grade 1—Frank Selders; Best Student Grade 2—Inger Hiorth; Best effort and im-provement, 1 and 1—Vivian Sel-ders.

Intermediate room — teacher Miss Ruth Hansford; Best at-tendance in Grades 3, 4 and 5 — Ronnie Selders; Best effort and improvement Grades 3, 4 and 5 — Gary Lent; Best student Grade 3—Roberta Storey; Best student Grade 4—Gordon Musselman; Best student Grade 5—Fred Bauthaus.

Senior room—principal Murray Roberts: Perfect attendance — Jimmy Hood; Best effort and im-provement for 3 years' work — Jim Boyington; Best student, Grade 6—Kathy Murgaski; Best student, grade 7—Pauletta Mor-ley; Best student, grade 8—Larry Lent.

Strawberry Festival Success
The Buttonville W.I. Straw-berry Festival has come and gone and now is the time to wonder—"What makes a good Strawberry Festival?"

The answers to that one are many!

It is solid effort, on behalf of the community, by every member of the organization undertaking the affair!

It is endless planning — time, place, food, program, advertising, etc.—all of which may have to be changed at the last minute!

It is housewives cooking and baking in hot-too-cool kitchens in much-too-warm weather. It is women piling dishes, flowers, cakes, potato salad, coffee pots and what-have-you into cars, transporting them to Buttonville Hall and going through the same process in reverse.

It is deciding whether the weather is going to co-operate at 6 o'clock. It is carrying tables outdoors and placing them on the lawn, only to be greeted with a spatter of raindrops — nothing serious, mind you, but enough to send the ladies scurrying in again clutching silver and china to their bosoms and wrangling with the heavier equipment.

It is decking the tables out attractively (for the first and last) and waiting expectantly for the first customers to appear.

It is hauling crates after crates of strawberries and being thank-ful if the wastage is slight. It is baking 75 pounds of ham and wondering if it will be sufficient or a great deal too much. It is seeing row on row of delicious looking layer cakes dressed up in their best frosting waiting to be selected for eating.

It is greeting the first diffident "clock customers with de-light and showering on them every attention; it is being some-what dismayed at the popularity of your festival when 7:00 o'clock brings crowds that cannot be accommodated for dear-knows-how-long; it is wondering at this point whether the food will hang out! It is making tea to the amount of 25 gallons!

For Buttonville ladies, this year's Festival was all of these things and more. And they were very happy to have had the fun and to entertain so many old and new friends—for many customers who had come because of advertising were anxious to know if there would be another such event next year, or if the ladies served a Turkey Supper in the autumn.

In the evening a brief program was given, starting off with solo work by Mrs. George Hooper, accompanied by Mrs. S. J. English. This was followed by a quintet from Victoria Square, comprising Messrs. Harry Barber and Carl Walker; Mrs. Margaret Rumney; Mrs. Mary Orr and Miss Marjorie Barber. They were a tune-fu and attractive group and good fun to boot! Then came the Tune Busters, a group from Brooklyn Rebecca Lodge. They came equipped with zany costumes and a kitchen band which was musical and demonstrated what a bit of imagination can do with vacuum cleaners, tubes, plungers, stove-pipes, coffee pots and the like.

They had a good sense of high comedy and their jaunty tunes kept their audience rocking gen-ly in their seats.

At the conclusion of the even-ing prize winners were drawn for the bedspread raffle and other items. Winners were: Bedspread Mrs. Bob Miller, R. R. 2 Gorm-ley, (draw made by Kathy Brown), Jim Hood drew Mrs. Marjorie Dynes, Richmond Hill, as second prize winner and her gift was a $5.00 Eaton's of Canada voucher. Bob Wilkins drew the name of D. Keeling, Newmarket, winner of the third prize, a pair of pillow slips; and Ann Sherman drew Mrs. Mary Orr as winner of a pair of towels. The fifth prize was drawn by Patricia Orr and went to Mr. George Oakes — gift of a tea-cosy.

Proceeds from the evening will be for mortgage payments on Buttonville Hall.

Neighbourhood Notes
Last week Art Storey was able to return home from Newmarket Hospital where he spent some time after injuring his foot with a power lawn mower. We were happy to learn that Art's foot is progressing nicely.

Mrs. Robert Rodick spent a pleasant week-end receiving family members and old friends on the occasion of her 96th birthday. She was delighted with the many beautiful cards and floral gifts she received from members of this community and her church.

Susan Harrott entertained friends at a barbecue party on Friday evening of last week. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Murray Roberts, Lloyd and John; Mary Champion, Marcelle Storey, Patricia Patterson, Pat Stewart, Kathi Murgaski, Pauletta Morley, Maureen Martin and Christine Selders. Badminton was the game of the evening.

We were sorry to learn of the accident involving Frankie Sel-ders and an oil truck in which Frankie came out second best on Friday afternoon of last week. Frankie was riding a large bicycle near his Arnhem Hts. home when he lost control and crashed into the truck. At The Hospital for Sick Children he had 25 stitches taken in his face and head, but he was pretty lucky even at that. The family expect him home sometime this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Jones took a holiday last week-end and visited their son Bruce and his family at Wallaceburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lauder Hamilton of Colgan were in Buttonville last week overseeing some improve-ments to Mrs. Hamilton's prop-erty, the home Mrs. Secrett oc-cupies. And speaking of Mrs. Secrett, wasn't it nice to see her at the Strawberry Festival—she said it was her debut after her recent stroke!

Rev. and Mrs. Morrison Seller of Owen Sound were guests at the Rodick home last week-end. Other callers were the Harper family from Bolton and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boynton of Thorn-hill.
