HAVE YOU HEARD THIS ONE?

"You say you want this divorce," the judge asked, "because your husband is too careless about his appearance?"

"Yes, sir," the woman answered "he ain't showed up for nigh on to three years now."

Well, ladies, there's one way to keep ANY husband from wandering off too far and that's to keep his closet full of sparkling clean clothes and a good supply of fresh clean shirts on hand. That way he HAS to come back for a change. We're always ready to lend a hand with quality cleaning he can't match anywhere.

Inter Municipal Committee

cation in Richmond Hill. Chairman McCowan asked if Vaughan had a different site in mind, to which Councillor Anstey replied, "It was more that they wanted to get the feeling of the people concerned". Vaughan had mentioned a possibility of a high school being built in the Richvale area, because of continued population growth there.

Reeve Perkins: "There is always a sanitary and sewage problem in locating these schools — if you went to Richvale you might have to pay $50,000 for the installation of these services alone."

Councillor Anstey: "Does Richmond Hill have facilities for hooking in at the Bayview-Markham site?"

Reeve Perkins: "Yes. Right there, and we might save $50,000 to $75,000 by using that site at Bayview."

Councillor Haggart: "That area is one of the most densely populated in the four municipalities."

Mayor Tomlin: "I gather that where Markham was concerned, Mr. Clark, you were more concerned with the issuing of debentures?" Reeve Clark said "No, it wasn't so much the debentures — but I felt the people should have a say in the matter of spending so much money. Our planning board hasn't been too satisfied that that's a proper site and we felt in council it should be given some further discussion. I am not saying it isn't the proper site but it should have some further discussion."

Queried by a committee member, the reeve of Markham said the township council had had no discussion on a different site. Councillor Haggart then pointed out the difficulties the high school board had to face in acquiring a suitable site, and he predicted that a fifth high school might have to locate in the area of the jail farm property at Langstaff at a later date. The York Central District High School comprises Thornhill, Richmond Hill and Woodbridge High Schools at the present time.

Mayor Tomlin said that Richmond Hill will now develop westward and that the Pleasantville area was the one which would be next to expand. This would probably mean an influx of high school age children and not many of public school age, he said. As for the other municipalities, the mayor felt they would develop nearer to Metro's borders.

All were agreed that Markham would hardly develop near the area proposed for the high school site, but that eventually that section would be taken in by the Town of Richmond Hill if Markham did not need it for its own use. The east side of town has three of the town's public schools and two separate schools within its confines.

Reeve Perkins said there is no property on the east side of Richmond Hill to accommodate a high school for that section, Richmond Hill would have to have land in Markham for such a school.

Chairman McCowan: "Is it the feeling of this committee that the school site should be moved further south?"

Councillor Anstey: "The feeling of Vaughan is that the present proposed site would only serve Richmond Hill and a small portion of Markham. If Richmond Hill decides in a few years that it can maintain its own schools in its own boundaries then where are the pupils going to come from to fill that school?"

Reeve Perkins "We would have to go on that side of Bayview to get enough land for a high school, eventually."

Councillor Haggart: "We have five public schools in Richmond Hill now — we are expanding four of them."

Mr. Anstey: "In other words, as far as Richmond Hill is concerned, you are in agreement with that site?"

Mayor Tomlin: "Yes. But we don't want to put ourselves in a position of opposing the two townships. We would be prepared to give water and sewage facilities in that area."

H. F. Eaton President Can. Legion Ont. Com d.

Rev. Canon C. C. W. Mixer of St. John's Anglican Church, Kitchener, conducted devotions at the opening ceremony of the 21st Biennial Provincial Convention of the Canadian Legion held at the Seagram Stadium, Kitchener-Waterloo, when 600 Legionnaires and 1,000 personnel gathered. The colour party was comprised of 110 members throughout the province.

The convention was addressed by Lieutenant-Governor J. Keiller McKay at the Kitchener auditorium where 700 persons attended.

The Canadian Legion was exhorted by the Lieutenant-Governor to fill the gap of work undone by those who fell in battle during the First and Second World Wars. We shall never know our loss or the potential work undone by these men, but we know that there is nothing to replace it. We of the Canadian Legion are bound together by this and are made indissoluble by service and sacrifice. We are much stronger by sense of duty and by having legislation enacted for others who need our help. The guest speaker, on stage before a

The long-sleeved bodice of chantilly lace had a scalloped neckline studded with iridescent beads and pearls. Best man was Peter Jeans, brother of the groom, and ushers were Edward Griffiths and Douglas Ramer.

The wedding music was played by Franz Loesgen and the vocalist was Miss Joyce Perkins, who sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Receiving at the Summit View, the mother of the bride wore a soft pink gown with white accessories. She wore a corsage of blue delphinium and white rosebuds. The groom's mother assisted, wearing a gown of lavender silk print with blonde accessories. She wore a corsage of pink and white rosebuds.

Vaughan Approves Subdivision Plan Yongehurst Area

Councillor W. Anstey moved that Vaughan Township Council approve a plan for a 37-lot and park area development presented by David McLean at Monday night's council meeting. Councillor B. Ralph seconded the motion which was then approved by Reeve John Perry and Councillor Jesse Bryson. The plan will see the building of a new road in the wooded section north of that portion of Yongehurst which has as yet not been extended west.

When Mr. McLean asked for council's disposition on a gravel road, for the area being. Reeve Perry said, "The gate is closed on gravel roads. Our reason: five years from now the township is going to be paved and it would put our debentures up if we continue to approve gravel roads." The plan will now be presented to the township planning board for its approval.

Cemetery Needs Health Unit Approval

St. Paul's Cemetery which was approved for extension in 1954 and has since been enlarged, has to have a letter stating council's approval for extension forwarded to the York County Health Unit, Assistant Clerk Ted Jackman informed council. The assistant clerk was instructed to prepare the letter of approval required. Steeles Ave. Water

A meeting of the ratepayers interested in the Steeles Ave. water system was on the agenda for Tuesday night at 8 p.m. in the Powell Road Public School and the reeve instructed Mr. Jackman to send a demand invitation to Township Engineer Keith Hopper. Councillors Anstey and Ralph also planned to attend.

STOFFVILLE: Following a three-man committee investigation by the Police Chiefs' Association, Police Chief Edwards' dismissal has been deferred for a 30 day trial period. It was stated the chief did not get along with his present or previous assistants.
