"The Liberal" is always glad to receive social and personal items for this page and a call to Turner 4-1105 will receive courteous attention. This newspaper will also welcome news reports about church organizations, women's and men's societies, lodges and other groups. While copy will be accepted up to Wednesday of each week, it is desirable to have it in earlier if possible to ensure its publication.

Mr. Warwick Butt of "Warwick House" spent four days in Montreal last week buying new stock for the fall season. Included in his purchases were varied car coats and some most attractive fall dresses. During his visit he stayed with his sister Mrs. D. E. Pinder, and enjoyed a most amusing show "Up Tempo", starring Sylvia Gillespie, which was playing at the Cafe Andre.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Harley and family, accompanied by Mrs. Harley's mother, Mrs. E. Cooper, have just returned from a two week vacation at Grand Bend, Ontario.

Mr. Kenneth T. Hepburn has returned this week from a trip to Britain where he visited friends and relatives before spending a month in Europe, touring and sightseeing. "The Liberal" extends all best wishes to Mr. Hepburn whose marriage to Miss Roberta Bradley is taking place this coming Saturday at Westminster Presbyterian Church, Ottawa.

At the monthly meeting of the Richmond Hill branch of the Civitan Club, guest speaker was Mr. Paul Delmer of "The Liberal". The meeting followed a dinner in the Richmond Theatre Grill. A most interesting evening was enjoyed by all present and Mr. Delmer in a long talk described the life of the people of many foreign lands in which he traveled. A full report will follow in "The Liberal" next week.

Next Monday the same speaker will be the guest of honour at the regular meeting of Richmond Hill Rotary. This also will be held in the Richmond Theatre Grill.

Lennox Milne, who has been described as the Scottish Ruth Draper, arrived in Canada last week to present her play "The Heart is Highland" at the Stratford Festival. Miss Milne proceeded by train, with a stopover in Toronto, to the festival city of Stratford, where she will give seven performances in the Avon theatre. They commenced Tuesday evening, August 18.

Here, the opening of her show was awaited with both anticipation and curiosity. The main interest lies in how Miss Milne carries off the difficult task of holding a stage by herself for an entire evening. Robert Kemp's comedy-drama calls for 13 characters.

— from an elderly invalid to a cheeky newspaper delivery boy. Lennox Milne plays them all — and, in the opinion of the drama critic of the Glasgow Herald, "plays them brilliantly."

Magistrate James Butler was guest preacher at Sunday's service of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church.

Today's true story — small children get hold of mother's weight reducing pills, she rushes them to the doctor only to be told that the children will be fine but rather more energetic than usual! For 24 hours non-stop they rush round the house with mother wearily trailing after them — eventually they fall asleep — mother then weighs herself only to discover that she has lost eight pounds!

Miss Mary Dawson has returned from a conducted tour of the New England States, featuring Cape Cod, Boston, Waumbek in the White Mountains and Saranac Lake. The escort of the tour was Mr. Louis Roy, familiar to many citizens of Richmond Hill who have been participants in the Canadian National Railways good will tours in former years.

Highlight of the trip was a visit to the Mayflower 11, where the guide assigned to the group was, by request, Ken Dawson of Plymouth, formerly of Richmond Hill. Miss Dawson was a guest for a few hours at the Bill Dawson home on Brewster Street, Plymouth, and their many friends will be pleased to know that the Dawsons are well and happy (this includes a somewhat decrepit Laddie)

From seaside resorts, quaint old fishing and whaling villages and mountain and lake resorts, to metropolitan centres, the entire trip was well arranged for the enjoyment of the twenty three Canadians aboard the brand new $43,000 air-conditioned bus.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Appleby, Nancy and Janet have just returned from a months holiday with Mrs. Appleby's parents at Rothesay, New Brunswick. Bruce, their eldest son, is remaining with his grandparents, and has become a most enthusiastic member of the local pony club.

Sheila Siegeman, member of the Richmond Hill Curtain Club is presently appearing at the Garden Centre Theatre, Vineland, in an old farce "Ladies Night in the Turkish Bath" sometimes known as "Good Night Ladies." Sheila will be remembered for her outstanding performance as the flounder in "Clerambard" for which she was given the coveted Central Ontario Drama League's Best Actress award for 1959.

Mr. Jack Flood, Mr. John Hughes, Laura, Mr. Arthur Willard and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weaving of Oak Ridges, local members of the Canadian Legion Branches 385 and 570, had a most enjoyable time when they attended the Provincial Convention held at Kitchener - Waterloo recently.

The town went all out to give members a most happy time, and a lot was to be gained from their attendance not only from an educational standpoint. Posters in every window spelled the evening to every member, and a pine hand piped them all over the town.

A delicious barbecue dinner and a Convention supper was served to all, and the members agreed that it was not only a most successful convention, but also a delightful holiday.

A September bride, Miss Mary George, was the honored guest at a personal shower held for her recently at the home of Mrs. J. A. Baker, Dufferin St. Mary who was assisted by her sister Carol who read the many gift cards, was the surprised recipient of many varied and lovely gifts. The evening was completed by the serving of a delicious lunch. Attending from Richmond Hill were Mrs. E. Anning, Mrs. E. Boyton, Mrs. M. Wilson and Mrs. Al Wilson.

Michael Butt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Butt is leaving tomorrow to make a long, adventurous canoe trip across Canada's lakes. Also in the party will be Bob Keith of Keith's Seeds, Danny Crampton, former bush pilot, and now a popular local Cubmaster, and Walter Smith, actuary in the T. Eaton Co.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lunn and their five children have returned from a holiday spent in a round La Verendrye Park, north of Ottawa where they were continuing their hobby of bird banding. So far this year they've banded over five hundred birds in and around the Redelmeier farm.

Mr. Lunn, an archeologist employed at the Royal Ontario Museum, is fast making his name as a panelist on the T.V. show "Who Knows?" On the screen the panel are presented with an object — anything from a Chinese musical instrument to a South American back scratcher — and then have to identify the object's place of origin and its use. Mr. Lunn is a natural T.V. performer and by the skillful application of gentle wit and neatly turned phrase, brings enjoyment and interest to what might otherwise have been a somewhat dull high brow show. We're sure to see our fellow resident of the Hill and wish him luck and a long run.

The boys had a rest period after the game while waiting for the cars to come and take them home. The camp site was inspected by the Camp Warden and was passed in A1 condition.

The weekend was a huge success and was enjoyed by everyone. Mr. Goddard, the cubmaster, wishes to express his thanks to everyone who helped to make the camping trip a success.
