

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Mr. P. C. Hill, Mr. Ken Blanchard and Mr. Gordon Stephenson spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gardner at Sandy Island, Lake Nipissing.

Mr. J. B. Smith of Yongehurst Road has returned home after spending an interesting summer visiting Toronto, Western Ontario and Montreal in charge of a mobile garden clinic sponsored by a large industrial company.

Miss Dinny Butlin will be attending Macdonald College, McGill University, St. Anne de Bellevue for the degree course in Home Economics.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Craigie and daughter Sharon returned home last Thursday, after an eight week tour of England, Scotland and the continent.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. See and their daughter Patti, have returned home after spending the summer months at their cottage at Crescent Beach, Lake Simcoe.

The 3rd Richmond Hill Scout Group Ladies' Auxiliary held their first meeting of the year, Monday evening, September 14, at the home of Mrs. Needham, 337 Paliser Crescent South. Some interesting programs were planned for the coming year, the first one being a pot luck supper in October. After the meeting, delicious refreshments were served.

The Richmond Hill Horticultural Society held their Autumn Flower Show at The Lions Community Hall last Thursday evening. A talk on Bulbs was given by Mr. A. Cruickshank of the Garden Guild, and the meeting was convened by Mrs. J. Grainger and Mrs. W. Beatty.

Misses Shelagh Robinson and Jolene Goodier, St. Mary's Anglican G.A. delegates returned home Sunday from Lake Couchiching. Approximately 60 G.A. girls from the Toronto Diocese attended the conference which was a follow up of the Dominion Conference held at Camp Pontiac near Ottawa in August.

Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Hardy Hill, Church St. S., Richmond Hill, have returned from a five month tour of Great Britain, Northern Ireland, Southern Wales and Europe. Dr. Hill was sent by the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural organization to study educational methods in Great Britain and Europe.

The Richmond Hill Jaycettes are sponsoring a "toy table" at the Mammoth Bazaar, October 15, 1959, being held by the Richmond Hill Association for Retarded Children. The Jaycettes would be pleased to get any new or used toys in good condition for the sale. Many mothers find toys their children have outgrown when they do their fall house-cleaning. Please call Mrs. Buckler, TU. 4-4555 to have them picked up.

The many Richmond Hill friends of Miss Anne Spaul will wish to join in offering congratulations on her recent success in becoming this year's C.N.E. Dairy Queen. Miss Spaul is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. R. Daniel Crampton and is a regular visitor to the Hill. In particular she has been here at C. N. E. time for the past three years in an endeavor to win the coveted title. "Third time lucky" undoubtedly means something in Anne's life because the Crown was finally awarded to her on Thursday with all due pomp and ceremony. With the Crown goes many gifts including an all expense trip to Britain in a Pan American jet aircraft, a most attractive Bulova watch and several cheques.

A celebration party was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crampton on Monday with over fifty of the Dairy Queen's friends in attendance.

When Your Engine Needs A Friend We're It!
Is your engine short on power — long on gas consumption? Better see us soon! We're experts on all types of engine work from tune-up to complete overhaul.

COOK'S BP Auto Service
Complete Service To All Makes of Cars
ELGIN MILLS
TU. 4-3151

Mrs. Sylvia Garson
WILL RESUME CLASSES FOR CHILDREN AND ADULTS
Ballet, Tap, Toe, Acrobatic, Baton Twirling and Physical Culture
Registration Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, September 22 and 23, from 6.30 p.m. to 8.30 p.m. at
428 S. FERNLEIGH CIRCLE, RICHMOND HILL

On Monday, September 14, at St. Matthews' United Church, 28 Explorers and 21 C.G.I.T. girls met to begin the new season. The evening's program consisted of regular games and a sing song. Next week will be election night and it is hoped to see a number of last year's members who were not present on Monday night, to turn out in full force. If anyone in the Beverley Acres Crosby Heights area have any repairable toys they would be re-conditioned and given to needy children, a call to TU. 4-4959 or TU. 4-5323 would send a C.G.I.T. member to your home to pick up the toys.

Lucky winners of the spotlight prizes won during Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the opening of Patti-Lu's Dress Shop on Yonge St., were Miss Wanda Smith, 31 Oak Avenue, Richvale, a Faberge Travel Kit, donated by Faberge Perfume; Joyce Fowler, 38 Arnold St., Richmond Hill, a skirt donated by Nu-line Sports-wear; and Mrs. Dahl, 45 Richmond St., a pure silk scarf by La-Dean and a pair of gloves by Austin.

The Canadian Nutria Breeders Association are exhibiting the 1st Canadian Mutation Nutria grail in the Western Fair in London this week.

Two of the garments on display are the products of local ranches. Mrs. Charlotte Brunt of Bonnyview Fur Farm, King has a jacket and muff of Greenland Exotic Nutria and Mr. James Tinkler of Parkview Nutria, Yongehurst has a cape stole of Champagne Nutria. Mr. and Mrs. Epworth of Colonial Nutria, Hillsview Dr. and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. May of Mayfair Nutria, Yongehurst Rd. were in London arranging for the exhibit.

A miscellaneous shower was given on Friday, September 11, for Mrs. Danny Evans, nee Cathy O'Hara, at the home of Mrs. Alfred Cillis. Twenty-five residents of Hillside Drive were present. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Cillis and Mrs. Geo. Carter.

With summer recess over, the Woman's Federation of St. Matthew's United Church held its first meeting of the season on September 8, with President Mrs. R. P. Robbins in the chair. Mrs. S. Barron led the devotional, her theme being the "Duty of parents to educate their children in the ways of spiritual safety, as well as physical safety." At the close of the business session, and in keeping with the opening of school when our youngsters are once more on the road, Police Chief Robbins gave a most interesting and informative talk on safety education of our children. The evening ended with refreshments served under the convenship of Mrs. S. Dennis.

Group meeting on September 22 will be held at the following homes: Group 1, Mrs. J. Walker, 236 Demaine Crescent; Group 2, Mrs. C. Plume, 270 McConvey Dr.; Group 3, Mrs. B. Knight, 348 Crosby Avenue; Group 4, Mrs. J. Walter, 49 Rockport Cres.; Group 5, Mrs. M. Johnston, 302 Palmer Ave.

Miss Marian Bales and Miss Mary Gibson — students at Richmond Hill High School — enjoyed their summer vacation period to full advantage on their trip to the Pacific Coast. Travelling by bus through the United States, they headed over the southern route after leaving Kansas City, through Albuquerque, New Mexico, with a stop-over to visit the Grand Canyon of Arizona, with its ever changing colors, and the Colorado River winding its way one mile below the level of the canyon rim. On arrival at San Diego, California — they stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Pearce and family, formerly of Richmond Hill. During their two week's stay there, the use of Mr. Pearce's car enabled them to visit the surrounding areas — including trips to Los Angeles, Disneyland, Hollywood and to Mexico. They were also able to enjoy swimming, sailing, also surfing at many of California's sandy beaches.

The return trip was via Las Vegas, Salt Lake City, Cheyenne in Wyoming, Des Moines, Omaha arriving in Chicago. In this city, they stayed with Marian's aunt, Miss Anne MacLennan, at the University of Northwestern, at Evanston, Illinois. Here they met interesting people from various parts of the world. Following a very interesting stay in Chicago, during which time Miss MacLellan conducted them to many points of interest — the holidaying couple returned by air to Malton-home again in Richmond Hill.

THISTLETOWN — An Italian Gardens Park is planned for the future near Thistletown. Estimated cost of the development will be in excess of one million dollars.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Kimball and their two sons, Max Jr., and Ronald, have just moved in to live in the friendly Richmond Acres area. Former residents of Peterborough for many years, the family will make their home at 24 Cartier Crescent.

St. Mary's C.W.L., Richmond Hill, is sponsoring a Fall Fashion Show on Wednesday, September 23, at 8 p.m. in the Richmond Hill High School auditorium. The show is being convened by Mrs. N. Leavus, Mrs. T. Carey, Mrs. V. McCullough and their committee. It will be a showing of fall fashions in ladies' and children's wear. The show will also include the latest in furs and jewelry and should be most interesting. Tickets available from Mrs. Johnston, TU. 4-1690; D'Allaires, Nortown Plaza; and at the door.

The Beverley Acres Home and School Association are holding their first meeting of the new season on September 24, at 8.30 p.m. at the Public School. There will be a varied program, including the introduction of the teaching staff by Principal Grant Nighswander, also a tour of the new classrooms and gymnasium. Showing of kindergarten educational slides will be shown, together with explanation by kindergarten teachers. Following the meeting, there will be the opportunity for a social get-together at which refreshments will be served.

At the first Autumn meeting of the Harriet Taylor Auxiliary of W.M.S. of Richmond Hill United Church, Mrs. Lewis Clements group was in charge of the program. The worship service was taken by Mrs. J. Spanner. The new study book "Africa Disturbed," by Emory and Myrta Ross was ably introduced by Mrs. G. E. Fumerton using maps and illustrations. She recommended "African Manhunt" by Mumroe Scott, as an aid in the study. Duets by Mrs. R. A. Giles and Mrs. M. Clayton added to the interest of the meeting.

President Mrs. A. S. Elson took charge of the business session, when plans were made for the York Presbyterian Rally at Sandford on September 15. Mrs. R.J.D. Simpson of Toronto will be the guest speaker at the Thanksgiving meeting on October 1.

The first meeting of the season for St. Mary's Anglican Evensong Guild was held in the form of a Progressive Dinner on Tuesday evening September 8th, when three of the members were hostesses.

After gathering at the home of Mrs. Douglas Hillaby at 7 p.m. for the first course, they then proceeded to the home of Mrs. Brock Blaney for the main course. This was followed with a lovely dessert and coffee at the home of Mrs. Bert Twiddy.

Plans were made for the Fall Fashion show that is being held on October 6 and 7 at Wrixon Hall sponsored by "Warwick House" and "Shields Footwear". There were reports that the tickets were being sold quite rapidly and everyone seemed to think that by the time of the next meeting on September 22, it should be almost a complete "sell out."

Cooler weather favoured the Women's Institute ladies on Thursday as a result the attendance was very good. We were pleased to welcome some visitors. Mrs. Sanders, the president, was in the chair and Mrs. F. Rumble the Historical Convenor was in charge of the program.

The Senior Citizen's Choir under the leadership of Mrs. Powell entertained us with some music and later led in a sing-song which was enjoyed very much.

An essay was read describing Richmond Hill as it was before 1900. Nineteen members brought pictures of themselves when they were younger. Mrs. Rumble placed them on the table and had each one try to name them as a contest. Mrs. Bayley was successful in naming the most of them.

Mrs. Hagerty the provincial president will be telling of the A. C. W. W. Conference in Edinburgh on September 29.

Mrs. Dewsbury and Mrs. Lamb have received letters from the ladies who received the aprons they sent to the A.C.W.W. Conference.

The W. I. are going to have a Euchre and Bridge party on October 14. Plan to be on hand.

Several parties have been held recently for Miss Ina MacDougal whose wedding to Mr. Douglas Lovell took place at St. Mary's Anglican Church last Saturday, September 12th.

Mrs. Smithson entertained twenty guests at a miscellaneous shower held at her home in Downsview. Following the opening of the many assorted gifts, luncheon was served with Mrs. R. Legate, the bride's mother, assisting the hostess with pouring the tea.

Eighteen relatives and friends were guests at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Carol Lovell at her home in Scarborough. The bride elect was delighted with the many lovely gifts she received. Pouring tea at the luncheon that followed were the hostess, and Mrs. M. Lovell, mother of the bridegroom.

Former classmates, friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mrs. F. Webb, Bathurst St. last Wednesday for a miscellaneous shower, when Ina was the recipient of many varied and beautiful articles for her new home. Pouring tea at the delicious luncheon that followed the presentations was Mrs. Legate.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Lovell are at present enjoying a motor trip through the Laurentians, and on their return will be residing on Markham Road.

Mrs. Jas. Pollard Made Life Member
Mrs. James Pollard was presented with a life membership in the W. A. at a joint meeting of the Evening and Afternoon Groups of the Women's Association of the Richmond Hill United Church following their Pot Luck supper last Monday evening.

Mrs. Pollard has recently been appointed a member of the Dominion Council of the United Church of Canada.

Jaycee Williams Presented Pin
On Thursday, September 3rd, at the Summit View Restaurant, Richmond Hill Junior Chamber of Commerce held their first dinner meeting of the new season.

President Murray MacLeod outlined the year's proposed activities and asked for support to make the Richmond Hill unit the best in Canada. Cec Williams, Past President, after being congratulated for steering the unit through its most successful year to date, was presented with a pin by President MacLeod, and again a standing ovation by members.

Award Contracts Markham Village Water & Sewage
The Ontario Water Resources Commission has authorized the award of construction contracts for water or sewage works and at the same time confirmed contract awards for a sewerage system, including a treatment plant, for the village of Markham.

The two Village of Markham contracts totalling $554,815 were awarded to Pearce Construction of Hagersville, Ont., $288,239 for the sewage treatment plant, and $266,576 to Marino Construction Company of Toronto for the sewer system.

Champion Girls
THE MAJORETTES who will be on parade on Richmond Heights Plaza tomorrow and Saturday during the Three Dollar Savings Days organized by the Plaza Merchants will be worth seeing.

Trained by the Richmond Hill Police, at their very first public appearance in a competition they captured sixth place out of eighteen entrants. The section known as the "Dancing Majorettes" took 1st place in the Windsor competitions last June.

Miss Dinny Butlin and Miss Nancy Dean who have recently returned from an extended tour of England, Scotland and the continent, are shown above having fun by a fountain during their stay in Florence.

Births

LINSTEAD — Jim and Pat are happy to announce the birth of a son, Lee, on Thursday, September 10, at Newmarket Hospital. *1w12

WHITEHEAD — Mr. and Mrs. Bill Whitehead of 215 Axminster Drive, Richmond Hill, wish to announce the birth of their daughter, Sandra Lea, on September 10, at Branson Hospital. Mother and baby both well. c1w12

Deaths

BAKER, Dorothy May — At the home of her parents, 112 Pemberton Rd., Richvale, on Sunday, September 13, 1959, Dorothy May Hudson, beloved wife of Ralph Wilfred Baker, of 230 Lawrence Ave., Richmond Hill, dear mother of Peggy Lynn and Garry Reginald, and loving daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Edward Hudson, in her 27th year. Rested at the Wright and Taylor funeral home. Interment Maple cemetery. *****

BELL, Martha (Millie) — At the Branson hospital, Willowdale, Wednesday, September 9, 1959, Martha (Millie) Kennedy, beloved wife of Gordon Bell of 63 Yongehurst Rd., Richvale, and dear sister of Mrs. E. Bell (Fanny) resided at the Wright and Taylor funeral home. Interment York cemetery, Willowdale. c1w12

FLOOK, Margaret Rebecca — At the Toronto Western Hospital, Sunday, September 13, 1959, Margaret Rebecca Hoove, beloved wife of Murray Ralph Flook of 83 Leveendale Rd., Richmond Hill, dear mother of Glenn and Judith. In her 36th year. Rested at the Wright and Taylor funeral home. Interment Newmarket cemetery. c1w12

VARLEY, Dale Gordon — Suddenly, Tuesday, September 15, 1959, Dale Gordon, darling infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Varley of 9 Roosevelt Dr., Langstaff, aged 2 months. Rested at the Wright and Taylor funeral home. Interment Maple cemetery. c1w12

In Memoriams

BROWN — In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Agnes Scott Brown, who passed away September 17, 1956. "We who loved you sadly miss you. As it dawns another year; In our lovely hours of thinking; Thoughts of you are ever near." Ever remembered by Adam, Alice, Allan and Kathy. c1w12

COOPER — In loving memory of a dear father, William Cooper, who passed away, September 20, 1958. Your presence is ever near us. Your love remains with us yet. You were the kind of father. Your loved ones would never forget. — Always remembered by son Charles and Mildred and family. c1w12

COOPER — In loving memory of my dear father, William Cooper, who passed away September 20, 1958. One year has passed, dear father, Since you were called away, How well do I remember That sad and weary day. — Lovingly remembered by daughter, Marjorie. c1w12

COOPER — In loving memory of my dear father, William Cooper, who passed away September 20, 1958. The depths of sorrow we cannot tell. Of the loss of one we loved so well. And while he sleeps a peaceful sleep, His memory we shall always keep. — Lovingly remembered by son Grant and Jessie. c1w12

HALL — In loving memory of my dear husband, C. Bruce Hall, who passed away September 19, 1957. — Sadly missed and ever remembered by his wife, Mabel. c1w12

LUNAU — In loving memory of our dear mother, Florence May Lunau, who passed away, September 21, 1958. The depths of sorrow we cannot tell. Of the loss of one we loved so well. And while she sleeps a peaceful sleep, Her memory we shall always keep. — Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by Madeleine and Art. c1w12

WOODS — In loving memory of my husband, William George Woods who passed away September 15, 1957. The month of September again is here, To me the saddest of the year, The blow was hard, the shock severe. To part with one I loved so dear. Dearest still missed and dearly remembered by your memory lives within my heart. No morning dawns, no night returns, But that I think of you. Many a silent tear I shed. When I am all alone, The stars seem dim as I whisper low, My husband I miss you so, — Lovingly remembered by wife, Ethel. c1w12

CARD OF THANKS
I would like to thank my many friends and neighbours for flowers, cards, letters, phone calls received during my illness of three weeks in Toronto General Hospital.
Mrs. Arthur White

Patti-Lu Fashion Show

The lovely baskets of flowers in the background of this picture enhanced the beautiful gowns in the fashion shows held at Patti-Lu's Shop last Friday and Saturday, which were attended by scores of customers. Miss Janis Butlin models a Melody frock in "stop red" velvet as Patti-Lu (Pat Anderson) right rear looks on. Next right is Mrs. Kay Johnson, Pat's sister-in-law, and to her right is Mrs. Mary Hood, assistant saleslady. Richmond Hill and district women were delighted with Patti-Lu's new fall styles.

PROVINCIAL IRISH SETTER CLUB
SPECIALTY SHOW
YORK FARMERS' MARKET, THORNHILL
Sunday, September 20, 2.00 p.m.
VISITORS INVITED

ANNOUNCEMENT

BRUCE M. RALPH

BARRISTER and SOLICITOR

FOMERLY IN PARTNERSHIP

wishes to announce he is now practising under his own name --- in the

ANSTEY BLOCK, THORNHILL

OVER HARLEY'S DRUG STORE

Please note new telephone numbers

AV. 5-5453 AV. 5-5454

BANK INTEREST

Is Available On New Fords

AT LITTLE'S

SO DON'T LET HIGH INTEREST RATES STOP YOU FROM BUYING YOUR NEW CAR.

WITH THE 1960'S JUST AROUND THE CORNER WE ARE SELLING OUR 59'S AT CLEARANCE PRICES.

SEE US TODAY.

LITTLE'S

FORD - EDSEL - MONARCH

AV. 5-1105 RICHMOND HILL PA. 7-5001

CANADIAN
CANCER SOCIETY
Richmond Hill Unit
FACT FOR THE WEEK:
Cancer of the skin is the commonest form of cancer in men. If treated early it can nearly always be cured.

Now's the time
TO CHECK YOUR MEDICINE CABINET

Right now... is the time to check your Medicine Cabinet. Be sure you have adequate supplies of fresh everyday drugs on hand and first-aid supplies to meet any emergency. And be sure to call your doctor at the first sign of illness.

Clarke's Pharmacy
'For Complete Drug Service'
Phone TU. 4-1201
Richmond Hill