King City Notes

Lions' Auction
It will soon be time to look out all the treasures, with which families are finally able to part.
King City Lions Club has decided to have its annual auction on October 17, a Saturday. Members found last year's sale on a Saturday afternoon suited a large crowd.
Lion Harold Russell of Schosberg, also known as King Township Constable, is again undertaking the role of auctioneer.
A few days before the 17th, local Lions will be around, from door to door, to collect articles for sale.
Corn Roast
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Roots of the Third Concession Line are entertaining Lions and their families this Saturday evening.
What's In A Name?
It is only in recent years the short road beside King Memorial Park has been called Park Road.
Older residents remember when it was always referred to as "Doctor's Lane", in tribute to the late beloved Dr. George Lockhart, who lived in the large white house at the corner.
The original name will be in the minds of many when medical offices are built shortly on property purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Len Robb at the rear of their South Keele St. lot.
Dr. Quentin Hardy proposes having larger office accommodation for his combined practice with Dr. James McPhee than they have at present on King St., opposite the bank.
Dr. Roberts told "The Liberal" the two doctors were enlarging the staff to take in more doctors.
Holiday Abroad
Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Sawyer and Barry have returned from an extensive six weeks' tour of Great Britain and Ireland in July and August.
Village friends received cards from them as they travelled by car through England, Scotland, Northern Ireland and Eire. Dr. Sawyer was a delegate to the British Medical convention in Edinburgh.
Joins R.C.A.
Tom Knight of Hamby Ave., older son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Knight, is stationed at St. John, Quebec, for basic training in the Royal Canadian Artillery. He enlisted as an aeronautical draftsman.
W.I. Rally
Resolve to attend the Women's Institutes' rally next July, members were urged in a community broadcast made by York County W. I. President, Mrs. E. S. Reddick of Snowhill.
She asked for suggestions for next year's projects, ideas to be given members' own branches or sent to Secretary Mrs. C. Powell of Gormley.
York County Institutes had two special projects this year, related Mrs. Reddick. Over 400 tea aprons were sent to the conference of Associated Country Women of the World in Edinburgh, to be given by Ontario delegates to representatives from other lands. The aprons carried the addresses of Ontario members making them and it was expected much correspondence will result.
York County members raised $300 for the York Pioneer Historical Society for use at Sharon House grounds.
This summer's fifth annual rally held at Vandorf was kept to a minimum of business and a maximum of fellowship, said Mrs. Reddick. Members lingered over a two-hour picnic lunch in Whit church Park and tea was served by Vandorf W.I.
Funds were raised by county contributions for the Ontario W.I. scholarship named after Anna Lewis, to be awarded an outstanding 4-H girl. Four girls have already won it. Since no one had all the qualifications this year, it was hoped two scholarships would be presented next year.
On School Staff
Mrs. Jeanette Peddle, of Toronto, teacher of Grades two and three at the Eva L. Dennis School, is staying with Mrs. Joan Hooper in her King St. apartment.
Burial
In his 62nd year, Mr. Gordon McLean of the 5th Concession, King, died at York County Hospital September 8, and was buried at King City Cemetery, following the service at Thompson parlors in Aurora.
He is survived by his widow, the former Pauline Campbell, and four children, Mrs. P. Coughlin (Marjorie), Mrs. J. Foster (Shirley), Murray and Hugh.
Arrivals
Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Fleury of Springhill Road are proud parents of twin girls, who arrived September 7.
Mr. and Mrs. Stuart McCarthy of R. R. 2, have a new daughter, Susan Catherine, born at Toronto General Hospital on September 5.
King Kindergarten
Plans are under way to have a kindergarten again, this time in Concession line, north of Aurora All Saints' Anglican Church Rectory, South Keele St., starting October 1.
Before that date, registrations are being received by Mrs. H. Schmidt and Mrs. E. B. Phair.
An age limit has been set by the Kindergarten Mothers' Committee of five years by the end of this year. The kindergarten class is expected to transfer to the new Parish Hall, when it is completed.
Mark Birthdays
It was a double birthday party

Mr. James Crooks of King St. had for her daughter, Donna, now three, and son Ashley, five. Little friends present included Stephen Noakes, Donnie and Gordon McCallum and Debbie and Janice McKenzie.
In Hospital
Mrs. William Carson of South Keele St. has been a patient in York County Hospital, Newmarket.
New Home
Mr. and Mrs. George Harvey and little daughter, Jane, have moved from North Keele St., to their newly-built home on the 6th sideroad.
Scouts' Auxiliary
As the First King Scout Troop Ladies' Auxiliary resumes its monthly meetings the third Monday each month, Mrs. George Armstrong of South Keele St. will be hostess for next Monday's gathering.
All mothers of Scouts and Cubs are invited to attend. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. William Heaslip and Mrs. Donald Dixon.
New Teacher
Miss Shirley Gibson of Grand Valley, who is teaching the junior classroom at Strange School this year, is staying with Mrs. Kenneth LeGrow in Heritage Park temporarily until she takes a room with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis later this month.
Tea For Rector
Cars will be leaving the Armstrong store every 15 minutes from 3:15 until 4:30 this Saturday, taking congregation members to the tea Miss Blair A. Burrows of the 6th Concession line is giving in honor of the new minister of All Saints' Anglican Church, with whom she has been staying at Eaton Hall during her cross-country tour.
Rev. Mackenzie Naughton of Wycombe College preached the sermon and presided on duty were the Rector's Warden, Mr. Ian Baxter and Mr. Gerald Walker, manager of Eaton Hall Farm.
Princess Alice and Lady Eaton occupied the second pew and after the service they showed considerable interest in the architects' scale model of the new church and parish hall, which is under construction.
The royal visitor was dressed in a trim tailored suit with white hat.

Carol Anne Evans Weds D. B. Geary At St. Paul's

Baskets of ivory gladioli decorated St. Paul's United Church, Oak Ridges, when Carol Anne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman T. Evans, became the wife of Daniel Bruce Geary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Geary in an early evening wedding on August 29, 1959. The Rev. Gordon Winch officiated at the service and Mrs. Faulkner accompanied the soloist Mrs. Betty Farquharson at the piano, as she sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because".
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional style wedding gown, full length, of Chantilly lace over satin, with long-sleeved bodice, its scalloped neckline studded in pearls and sequins; the bouffant skirt of the gown had panels of embroidered lace caught up by small bows of net, and her headpiece was beaded with pearls and sequins, to which was caught her fingertip veil. In her arms she carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations.
Miss Barbara Corner attended the bride wearing a coral nylon lace gown over satin, with matching cummerbund which ended in a large back bow and fending in sash; her hat and accessories were white, and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white carnations.
Mr. Roy Geary was best man for his brother and the bride's brother, Tom, was usher.
At the reception held later in the Ridge Inn, Oak Ridges, the bride's mother received the guests wearing rose flowered nylon with corsage of ivory gladioli and navy accessories; the bridegroom's mother assisted in receiving, wearing royal on light blue flowered jersey, with white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.
For a honeymoon trip to Washington, D.C. and Virginia Beach, Va., the bride chose a navy sheath dress with short navy and white check jacket, white feather hat and white accessories. Since their return they are residing in Richmond Hill.
Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ireland of Kleinburg who were attendants at the wedding of the bride's parents — Mr. and Mrs. Ireland celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on August 29.

Princess Alice Attends All Saints'

A surprise visitor to the Sunday morning worship service in All Saints' Anglican Church, King, was H.R.H. Princess Alice, great-aunt of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth. Princess Alice was accompanied by Lady Eaton, with whom she has been staying at Eaton Hall during her cross-country tour.
Rev. Mackenzie Naughton of Wycombe College preached the sermon and presided on duty were the Rector's Warden, Mr. Ian Baxter and Mr. Gerald Walker, manager of Eaton Hall Farm.
Princess Alice and Lady Eaton occupied the second pew and after the service they showed considerable interest in the architects' scale model of the new church and parish hall, which is under construction.

Back From Holidays
Back from holidays and trying to catch up on some of the happenings in the old home town while we were away.
Happy to report that Mr. Garnet Diceman hopes to return home from hospital this week. He has been in St. Michael's for the past six weeks suffering from a broken leg which he received while working amongst the cattle on his farm at Teston. We hope it won't be too long before he is up and around again.
Mr. Norman McKinnon is in the Maple Manor rest home where he is still in a cast for the broken back he sustained when he fell from a tree several weeks ago. We hope he will soon be feeling much better.

Socials
Mr. and Mrs. A. Gibeault and boys have returned to the community after an absence of about two years, they are residing at their former home on Elmgrove Ave.
If you are looking for some light entertainment this coming weekend, try the indoor "Fun Fair" at the Legion Hall, King Side Road, Saturday, September 19th, 1 p.m. to 11 p.m., and kids, don't forget to have your favourite dog there by 2 p.m. for the Mutt show, and your fancy dresses all pressed for the judging afterwards. Lots of fun and games for everyone.
Separate School
Due to the fact contractor's have not been able to finish the new addition at Our Lady of the Annunciation Separate School, Grades 4 and 5 and teacher, Mr. Woods is holding classes at the Legion Hall (club room). This will be the arrangements for approximately one month. In that time

When a mother needs a friend

At a time like this, the best friends a mother can have are a modern automatic electric washer and an electric clothes dryer. They make short work of washing and drying—and they do it automatically. Just set the dials—no heavy lifting, no wet wash to carry—never a care about getting clothes dry for another day of play. With a modern automatic electric washer and clothes dryer washing is easy—drying is certain—whatever the weather. You get more out of life when you get the most out of electricity.
