

Beauty Finalists Selection Tonight Chance For $200 Cash If You're A Girl

ATTEND TONIGHT at Allencourt Shopping Centre, corner of Markham and Bayview, Richmond Hill, for selection in the contest for the title of "Miss Allencourt, 1959".

The Allencourt Shopping Centre which includes the new IGA Groceria has only just been opened in the past few days and has proven very popular with local residents.

The shopping centre has been constructed on the site of the original Allen Farm and is named after the Allen family which still controls the property. The farm has been in the Allen family over the past three generations. Head of the family is Mrs. Cora Allen who lives on Centre Street, while her son John F. Allen and her daughter retain shares in the land now given over to the shopping centre. Joining the Allen family in this development are Frank E. Whittaker and Douglas Miller Junior. Douglas is now head of the firm of contractors which bears his name and he and his father have tried hard to give Richmond Hill one of the finest shopping centres in North America.

These people are now organizing a contest to select one of the district's loveliest girls to be Queen of the shopping centre with the title, "Miss Allencourt, 1959." In spite of the title "Miss," married women may also compete if they feel they have the beauty and measurements to compete with the younger "Misses."

Every member of the fair sex therefore who wishes to participate is invited to appear TONIGHT at 8 p.m. in person. A one-piece swim suit should be worn under normal dress and

Anniversary Service

Sunday, September 20, Temperanceville United Church will hold its anniversary service at 9:45 a.m. The guest speaker for this special service will be Rev. Victor Wood, former pastor of the church. Friends and relatives are cordially invited to join the congregation in worship at this time. The children of the Sunday School are especially urged to attend the service with their parents as Sunday School will not be held on September 20. There will, however, be junior congregation for all those under 12 years of age. It is hoped the church will be filled for this occasion. Do come and bring your friends.

Church News

The first Lions supper of this season catered to by Temperanceville W.A. will be held on September 15. Mrs. L. Cunningham and Mrs. J. Macklin are convenors.

The congregation was most appreciative of the lovely flowers in the church Sunday — those left for our enjoyment from the wedding of Ruth Beynon and James Brillinger and those placed by relatives in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Follitt.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Emerson Jennings and Ruston Follitt and relatives of Roy Follitt who passed away so suddenly on September 8. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson of Toronto were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clark this past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Robinson spent a few days in Shanty Bay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Levison.

Miss Donna Jennings had the pleasure of being chosen to attend the Y.M.C.A. Geneva Camp at Lake Couchiching for a week's vacation. She and another member were given this honour by the York County Junior Farmers — the Geneva camp being under the direction of this organization.

Rally Sunday will be held at Temperanceville Church on September 27. The children are asked to bring all their friends and neighbours' children to enjoy the service. The Sunday School staff was delighted with the good attendance on the first Sunday after vacation. The children enjoyed the M and M story related by Mrs. F. Hare and $2.55 was realized for the missionary fund. Sunday School is held at 11 a.m.

Wedding

BRILLINGER-BEYNON
Temperanceville United Church was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Saturday, September 12, at 3 p.m. when Ruth Marie, youngest daughter of Mrs. Clayton Beynon, R. R. 2 Maple and the late Clayton Beynon was united in marriage with James Austin Brillinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brillinger of Woodbridge.

Rev. Ivan Kennedy, Aurora, Temperanceville pastor, performed the double ring ceremony amidst a setting of beautiful gladioli of varied colours and an arrangement of zinnias. Miss Dorothy Armstrong was organist for the wedding. Before the bridal party entered the church, the choir sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "Oh Perfect Love" while the register was being signed.

The bride was given in marriage by her only brother, Robert Beynon. She looked radiant in a lovely street length gown of flocked nylon over taffeta with short sleeves, prettily pointed neckline in the bodice which lowered at the back. The fingertip veil flowed from a lovely white cap trimmed with sequins. She carried a bouquet of beautiful red sweetheart roses.

The groom's sister, Miss Carolyn Brillinger, maid of honor, was dressed in a lovely turquoise taffeta street length dress with butterfly bow at the back. Her hat was of white feathers with a touch of turquoise. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The best man was Herbert McClean. Ushers were Ross Kirby of Maple and Douglas Anderson of Harriston.

For the reception which was held at the church the bride's mother received her guests in a gown of beige brocade with brown and beige accessories. She was assisted by the groom's mother wearing a gown of rosewood colored lace and a feather hat of the same shade. Both wore corsages of pink gladioli and roses.

For her travelling costume, the bride donned a lovely sheath dress of blue Italian brocade with matching top coat and accessories in black. She wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Besides the relations and friends who lived nearby were guests from Niagara Falls, Welland, Canfield, Harriston, Uterson and Timmins.

To Have Audit Bus Operation

Mayor Kenneth W. Tomlin reported to Richmond Hill Town

Council that Richmond Hill, Markham and Vaughan proposed to engage a firm of qualified auditors to report on the T. T. C. operation of the North Yonge Bus Line.

"In the past" said the Mayor "we never have had any expert study the T. T. C. accounting of the line operation. I think such a study will be a great assistance in negotiating a new agreement."

Richmond Hill council members concurred and authorized the appointment of Robert Dale Harris of the Firm of MacDonald and Currie. The expense of the audit will be shared by the three municipalities.

WILLOWDALE — North York property committee members approved sale of a parcel of greenbelt land to Metro Toronto for the Bayview Ave. widening project. The half-acre will be sold for $519.
