

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Miss Mary Lou Mason is now in training at Women's College Hospital.

The Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church W. A. catered at a banquet on Friday for over one hundred carrier boys of a Toronto daily.

Mr. John Guppy, Benson Ave., is now at Newmarket Hospital and making good progress.

David Pattenden left this week to take up residence at Waterloo College.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Graham, Church St. residents of the Hill for the past nine years, have now left to live on a farm at Beaverton. The good wishes of the community go with them.

We are pleased to hear that Mr. F. Jankowiak, Baker Avenue, is home again after spending the last three weeks at St. Michael's Hospital.

Richmond Hill Kinette Club is sponsoring the White Elephant booth at the Mammoth Bazaar for the Retarded Children on October 15th. Anyone who has any contribution please call Mrs. Maddocks, TU. 4-1946 or Mrs. Patton, TU. 4-4667.

Mrs. Elmer Hill, worthy matron, Mr. A. V. Rogers, worthy patron, Mr. and Mrs. Ludlow, associate matron and patron attended the Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

To-night, Thursday, the Beverley Acres Home & School Association are holding their first meeting of the new season at 8:30 p.m. at the public school. Prior to the meeting — at 8:15 p.m. — 100 graduates of the school St. John Ambulance course will be presented with their certificates.

There were 25 members present at the election held on Monday evening at St. Matthew's C. G. T., the following were voted into office: President, Ingrid Haessler; Vice-president, Barbara Bone; Secretary, Annette Lacaille; and Treasurer, Nancy Moundrell. Girls were reminded to bring along all repairable toys at the next meeting on Monday, September 28.

At the meeting of St. Mary's Anglican Evening Guild held on Tuesday night, final arrangements were made for the "Fall Fashion Show" being held on October 6th and 7th in Wrixon Hall. Due to the popularity of this event — an early "sell-out" of tickets is expected — and to those who wish to attend this show are advised to call TU. 4-1724 as soon as possible.

When Your Engine Needs A Friend We're It!

Is your engine short on power — long on gas consumption? Better see us soon! We're experts on all types of engine work from tune-up to complete overhaul.

COOK'S BP Auto Service
Complete Service To All
Makes of Cars
ELGIN MILLS
TU. 4-3151

DONT GUESS SEE YOUR DOCTOR

Trying to doctor yourself is a guessing game at which you JUST CAN'T WIN! Why take chances... it will pay you to get the professional advice of your doctor. And when he prescribes, BE SURE again by bringing your prescription here for expert compounding.

Clarke's Pharmacy
For Complete Drug Service
Phone TU. 4-1201
Richmond Hill

Mrs. May Menzies has returned home after spending the summer in Muskoka.

Miss Anne Keith has commenced her studies at Teachers' College, Toronto.

Cecilia Anderson, Bruce Langstaff and Bill Bigelow are now in residence at Trinity College, University of Toronto, having participated in the Freshman weekend. We wish for them all success in their chosen fields.

H. R. H. Princess Alice accompanied by Lady Eaton were two distinguished visitors at the Dominion Store, Richmond Hill branch, when Princess Alice purchased a carefully selected basket of fruit from store manager Mr. Ron Josland. The royal visitor left Toronto on Friday for Ottawa, after a visit with Lady Eaton in King and her town home on old Forest Hill.

Mr. Harry Sayers, Chairman of the York Central District High School Board took time off last weekend from his busy "back to school" schedule, to attend a meeting of the Radar Ex. Association held at Mr. Maurice Clearhill's cottage near Bala.

This association is comprised of a group of air force men who joined the 1st Radar class held at the University of Toronto College, and who have, since the war, continued to meet twice a year at various members' homes.

An interesting event of the coming weekend will be the annual rummage sale sponsored by the Evening Branch of the W. A. of St. Mary's (Anglican) church at Wrixon Hill, Saturday afternoon. Low prices and high quality have been the basic policy of this increasingly successful sale for the past eight years. It is the main money-raising event of the Evening Branch.

Judging by the many comments we receive, this column is read with great interest by hundreds of our Richmond Hill readers. Not to mention many in other parts of Canada and the world. If you have any item of social news concerning residents or ex residents of the Hill, please telephone TU. 4-1105 or TU. 4-2528 and we will be pleased to include it in "Life in the Hill."

The first fall meeting of the local Jaycees was held at the Summit View Restaurant on September 9th. Following grace, a toast to the Queen and dinner, Isabel Buckler introduced the guest speaker, Miss Woodbryne of the V. O. N. She gave an interesting talk on V. O. N. Nursing in Richmond Hill.

Mrs. Ruth Coxford thanked the speaker, and Mrs. Mary Williams introduced three guests. Future activities were outlined by the president Mrs. Hazel Longbottom. The budget report was given by Mrs. Barbara Phennig.

The first fall meeting of the Curtain Club took place at St. Mary's Anglican Church basement last Thursday September 17. The season promises to be a most interesting and entertaining one, junior and senior drama courses are at present being given by Leon Major, every Tuesday afternoon and evening a cast has been chosen and production will be getting underway for the fall play "Blithe Spirit" and Mr. Dick Barrett has been appointed the director for the festival play, readings for which will take place in the early part of November.

There is much to be done in a drama group, aside from acting, set design, stage management, lighting, make-up, prompting, carpentry, painting, costumes, being just a few which all contribute to the success of a play. Anyone wishing further information can phone Mrs. F. Trot, TU. 4-2110 who will be only too pleased to further outline the activities of the club.

Preparing For Annual Rummage Sale

Mrs. D. Ross (extreme left), convener of the annual Mammoth Rummage Sale, sponsored by the Evening W.A. of St. Mary's (Anglican) Church is shown with three of her assistants,

There are now 250 senior citizen clubs in the province of Ontario. The first annual convention of the United Senior Citizens of Ontario was held in Toronto on September 21, and 22 when various matters pertaining to the welfare of the seniors were discussed by the 50 delegates present. The Richmond Hill Senior Citizens Club was represented by its president, Mr. A. E. Plewman.

Elaine Rice, Richmond Street, celebrated her fourth birthday on Saturday, September 19th. Among the small guests who enjoyed the party were Barby Maxwell, Kathy Maxwell, Shelley Scott, Lucy Dewsbury and Judy Dick. Many entertaining games were played and several movies shown much to the delight of everyone. After a delicious tea, balloons and musical horns were given to each guest, and the party finished on a gay musical note!

The first meeting of the women's section of the Richmond Hill Curling Club was held last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Joyce Davey, Leisure Lane. There was an excellent turnout and the evening was spent discussing plans for the winter program. There will be a meeting in October to elect an executive. Notices will be sent to all members as to time and place. Any ladies interested in joining the club should send their inquiries to Mr. D. Little, 27 Vaughan Rd.

A cordial invitation has been extended to members and friends of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society to visit the Annual Display of Chrysanthemums at the Sheridan Nurseries, Saturday, October 3. Located 1 1/2 miles west of Highway 27 and Queen Elizabeth cloverleaf, this will be a pleasant drive for the family and friends. The nurseries will be open all day and tea will be served from 3 to 5:30 p.m. Cars will leave from the Municipal Hall at 2 p.m. for those wishing transportation. Plan to come and enjoy this magnificent autumn show!

Mrs. R. J. D. Simpson will be guest speaker at the annual Thanksgiving meeting of the Harriet Taylor Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society in the chapel of Richmond Hill United Church on Thursday, October 1st, at half past two. Mrs. Simpson is a well known authority on W.M.S. work, having been President of Toronto Centre Presbyterian for several years, and also Secretary for Associate members of the Dominion Board.

Eighteen women from the Missionary Societies of Richmond Hill United Church motored to Sanford last week to the York Presbyterian Rally. They report that a very splendid program was given, and the Sanford church was crowded to capacity.

Richmond Hill T. V. and Camera Shop, Yonge St. South had a most successful opening last Friday and Saturday when many people from the hill and vicinity crowded into their store to see all the very latest in televisions, transistor portables, mantle radios, stereophonic portable record players, eureka vacuum cleaners etc. One particular item of interest was the television with remote control in the form of a small box, with no strings attached, that could change the channels with a push of a button, from whatever distance you were sitting. Mr. Stephen Appleby, co-owner of the store was obviously thoroughly enjoying this device, while confounding many visitors with its ingenuity.

The draw for the door prizes was made on Saturday night, and the lucky winners were Mr. R. Sutherland Maple who had the choice of a Turret Movie Camera or an Electrohome Stereophonic Portable Record Player, and Mr. V. L. Collier, Crosby Avenue, who was the recipient of six beer steins.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth T. Hepburn, of Ottawa, Ontario, were week-end visitors in Richmond Hill, at the Manse, residence of Rev. J. N. and Mrs. Hepburn. Kenneth has now returned to the position he holds with the Dominion Government's Research Department, after a summer spent in Europe.

Attending the Eaton's Fall Fashion Show held at the Eaton Auditorium last Saturday were: Mabel Louise Robertson, Diane Yerex, Linda Leonard, Susan Gillard, Barbara Bain, Marian Bales, Shirley MacGregor, Leslie Webb, Janet Thomson, Joylynn Wilson, Bryan Mills, Bruce Wilson, Janet Peterkin, Alan Brodrick, Tim Weir, Wanda Sinclair and Marguerite Jennings.

On Saturday, September 26th, the annual "Fall Fair" of the Walter Scott Home and School Association will be held in the school. The directors announce that this year the fair will be "better than ever" — and the 1958 show was judged as excellent. The fair grounds will open at 12:30 p.m., with contests for children and adults. In the adult section there are actually 51 classes open for entry. The children are well catered for with prizes for the best decorated bicycle, tricycle, wagon, doll carriage, also a dog show. As a grand finale there will be a dance in the evening for the whole family.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. MacKay, of Arnold Street, attended the annual convention of the American Fisheries Society at Clearwater, Florida, September 16 to 18. The American Fisheries Society is an organization of professional fishery biologists, fish culturists, and scientific fishery workers from the United States, Canada and several foreign countries.

The annual convention of the society is conducted for the purpose of advancing biological information and developments in the fishery field to members of the fishery profession. Approximately 400 members of the society heard reports in relation to fishery research while attending technical sessions at the convention in Clearwater.

Dr. MacKay, Biologist and Supervisor of Fisheries, Ontario Department of Lands and Forests, is a past president of the society.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McLeod have returned to their home after attending the 36th Annual Conference of the Canadian Educational Association held in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan September 2 to September 17. Mr. McLeod was a delegate of the Ontario School Inspectors' Association at this convention, and one of four directors from the Province of Ontario to the annual meeting of the Canadian Association of School Superintendents and Inspectors which paralleled the meetings of the C.E.A. and Camera School Trustees' Association. Educationists from all provinces of Canada were in attendance.

Among other distinguished speakers at the convention were The Hon. Mrs. Ellen Fairclough, Minister of Citizenship and Immigration in the Dominion Government and Dr. Hilda Neatby, Head of the Dept. of History, University of Saskatchewan.

One of the highlights of the convention was a dinner given to the members of the Association and their wives, some six hundred in number by the Government of Saskatchewan, at which the chairman was the Hon. A. S. Lloyd, Minister of Education for Saskatchewan and the principal speaker was the Hon. T. C. Douglas premier of the province.

Prior to the convention Mr. and Mrs. McLeod travelled by boat to Fort William, and by rail to Vancouver B. C. to visit with their daughter and son-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hall and family, who recently moved from Hamilton to Vancouver.

Births

BATHURST — Mr. and Mrs. Alan Bathurst, 415 Oxley St. N. West Vancouver formerly of Richmond Hill, wish to announce the birth of a daughter, sister for Linda, Heather and Alison.

CANNON — Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Cannon (nee Margaret Vallance) of Kleinburg wish to announce the arrival of a baby girl at Humber Memorial Hospital, on September 22, 1959.

LEGAULT — To Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Legault (nee Clara Burnes), 741 Carrville Road, Richvale, twin boys, at York County Hospital, Newmarket, on Monday, September 21, 1959. Baby brothers for David. Mother and babies doing well.

LEUSCHNER — Ken and Joan are happy to announce the birth of their son, Paul Richard, a brother for Mark, on September 17, 1959, at Branson Hospital.

In Memoriams

GOURLIE — In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Sapper D. J. Gourlie, who died on Active Service September 22, 1944, aged 23. Deep in the heart lies a picture, Of a loved one laid to rest, In memory's frame we shall keep it, Because he was one of the best, — Ever remembered by mother, sisters Bernice and Marjorie and brother Bill and sister-in-law Dorothy.

MCQUARRIE — In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Isaac McQuarrie, who passed away September 20, 1954. Some day, some time, our eyes shall see, The face we keep in memory, And God shall link the broken chain.

READ — In loving memory of Adam Read, who passed away September 25, 1957. What would I give to clasp his hand, His happy face to see, To hear his voice and see his smile, That meant so much to me. — Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by his wife Carrie and family.

CARD OF THANKS
Mrs. John Guppy wishes to thank the Richmond Hill Fire Department, Russell Lynett, George Pollard and Chief Alf. Stong for valuable assistance rendered when her husband was sent home from hospital.

Deaths

CAVE, Louise Elizabeth — At her home, Maple, Friday, September 18, 1959, Louise Elizabeth Doneral, beloved wife of Samuel Cave, dear mother of John James, Mrs. Albert Foster (Edna), Claremont, and Mrs. Robert Tucker (Florence) of Maple; loving sister of Mrs. Frank Gordon (Florence), Mrs. Bert Nightengale (Margaret) and Daniel, in her 75th year. Rested at Wright and Taylor funeral home. Interment King City Cemetery. clw13

HANSFORD, Ruth Alice — Suddenly at Brown's Corners, Thursday, September 17, 1959, Ruth Alice, loving daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Hansford, of Thornhill; dear sister of Rev. Donald Earle, Innerkip, Ont.; Mrs. Robert Biesenthal (Doris Helen), Phoenix, Arizona, and Ronald Richard, at home, in her 22nd year. Rested at the Wright and Taylor funeral home, Richmond Hill. Interment York cemetery, Willowdale. clw13

MOODIE, Jessie — At the Stouffville Nursing Home, Saturday, September 19, 1959, Miss Jessie Moodie of Richmond Hill, daughter of the late Alexander and Euphemia Moodie, in her 92nd year. The funeral was held from the Wright and Taylor Funeral Home, 126 Yonge St. N., Richmond Hill on Tuesday at 2 o'clock. Interment followed in Richmond Hill Cemetery. clw13

CHARLES TAYLOR

Received a hearty welcome back to Richmond Hill at the opening of his new Jewellery Store at 16A Yonge St. North last Friday. The large number of visitors were favorably impressed by the well-stocked modern store and extended congratulations to the popular proprietor.

SAVE $3.00 NOW
No Salesman's Commission
WINTERSEAL WINDOW SALE

COMBINATION STORMS & SCREENS
UP TO 100 UNITED INCHES (width plus height)
Regular $22.95

Pre-season Special, installed $19.95
* Completely self-storing. Leave them up all year round.

Basement and Picture Windows
Self-storing Aluminum Doors from $44.50 installed

Williams Paint & Wallpaper
12 LEVENDALE ROAD
Call AV. 5 - 4621
FOR HOME DEMONSTRATION

For the BIG moments

DEBUTEENS
by Savage

"BARBEE" BLACK SUEDE $9.95

Excitement... a big evening... everything must be right... must get some new shoes—Savage Debuttees... they're the latest, neatest, sweetest... Sanitized, too, for lasting, dainty-fresh protection. We take pride in correct fitting

COLUMBIA LONG PLAY RECORDS

CL 1001 The Romantic Music of Rachmaninoff $4.20
CL 1252 Broadway Rhythm $4.20
CL 1316 Folk Songs, Mitch Miller $4.20
CL 1165 Swing Softly, Johnny Mathis $4.20

THE Richmond GIFT SHOP
Richmond Heights Plaza
FREE RECORDS ASK ABOUT OUR RECORD CLUB

SHIELDS Footwear LTD.
FINE FOOTWEAR FOR THE FAMILY
RICHMOND HEIGHTS PLAZA
Opposite Loblaw's TU. 4-5341

Register NOW for

Tap Ballet Baton Ballroom

DENNIS MOORE
SCHOOL OF DANCING
Richvale Community Centre
STOP 22A, YONGE ST.

ANNOUNCEMENT
BRUCE M. RALPH
BARRISTER and SOLICITOR
FORMERLY IN PARTNERSHIP wishes to announce he is now practising under his own name --- in the

ANSTEY BLOCK, THORNHILL
OVER HARLEY'S DRUG STORE
Please note new telephone numbers
AV. 5-5453 (AV. 5-5454