

Last Chance To Win $200 First Beauty Queen

IF YOU HAVE NOT ALREADY ENTERED IN THE CONTEST FOR "MISS ALLENCOURT, 1959" you still have time. Yes, you have until 7 p.m. tomorrow (Friday) evening to enter.

The contest is open to all members of the fair sex who have celebrated their fifteenth birthday or any subsequent birthday. Married women as well as single girls are eligible. Fifteen or over is the only qualification, and there is no entry fee.

Friday Night At 7 P. M.
All those who have already entered and those latecomers who now decide they should enter, must present themselves at the Medical Centre, on Allencourt Shopping Centre, corner of Markham, with Bayview, Richmond Hill, tomorrow night. Those entering for the first time should attend at 7 p.m. without fail. Those who have already been seen by the judges should attend at 8 p.m.

The winner will be crowned by the Mayor or his representative as Queen of the Shopping Centre with the title "Miss Allencourt, 1959" and receive a cheque for $200. The two closest runners-up will receive consolation prizes in the form of merchandise, and will be appointed "Ladies-in-waiting."

Come One - Come All
It is hoped the three winners will be invited to officiate or participate in local events during their year of office.

The public are invited to attend at the Shopping Centre tomorrow evening at 8:00 p.m. for the crowning ceremony, and to see the prizes awarded.

All those entering should attend at the stated times in one-piece bathing suits. The judging will take place in the medical centre before Mr. John Rundle (Chairman) who is a Barrister & Solicitor practicing in Toronto and Willowdale and who is the solicitor to the Allencourt Estates; Mr. Jack Smith, Publisher and former Member of Parliament and Councillor Jim Haggart.

$200 Cash Prize
The crowning and presentation of prizes will take place in the open on the Shopping Centre. The cash prize to the winner is being presented by the Allencourt Estates comprising Mrs. Cora Allen, her son John, Mr. Frank E. Whitaker and Mr. Douglas Miller Jr. Prizes of merchandise to runners-up are being presented by the merchants in business in the Shopping Centre.

Come On Girls
Now then girls, you lovely married women too - this may be the first step towards the crown as Miss Canada. Who knows. Things are happening in Richmond Hill these days and there are other plans brewing. This wonderful prize may not be the last. And what cannot you do just about now with $200 cash?

First Beauty Contest
Remember this is Richmond Hill's first beauty contest. The winner will be Richmond Hill's first Beauty Queen. Its tomorrow night (Friday) at 7 p.m. if you are entering now for the first time; at 8 p.m. if you were seen by the judges last week.

And everybody in the town and district is invited to go along too at 8 p.m. to see the loveliest girl in Richmond Hill to come forward together with her ladies-in-waiting.

Let's make it an event to remember and another milestone in the history of Richmond Hill in its climb from country village to city.

Square Dance Allencourt I.G.A.

It's country hoedown night at the Allencourt Shopping Centre, Friday night, September 25.

Sponsored by Allencourt I.G.A., a free square dance will be held in the shopping centre parking lot to the music of Wes Chapman and his orchestra.

The squares shape up at 9 p.m. and dancing will continue until midnight.

Everybody is invited by I.G.A. You can come to dance or come to watch. There's fun for all.

UNIONVILLE: The Glenburn Shorthorn herd of K. E. Deacon won several prizes including Reserve Female Championship and Reserve Junior Championship against strong competition at the C.N.E.

Shelton - Mansell Win 5 Trophies

Shelton-Mansell Motors racing team brought home five trophies from the British Empire motor Club's Fall Trophy Races, held last Saturday at Harewood Acres, Jarvis Ont.

In race No. 1; for push rod MGA's and Austin-Healey Sprites, Ken Mansell drove the Sebring Replica Sprite to a well won second overall and first Sprite, while Dick Shelton won third Sprite.

In race No. 4, for up to 1500 cc production cars Dick Shelton won third place in Class G; and in the final race of the day which was the one hour event Dick was even more successful in capturing First in Class "G."

The collection of trophies which Dick and Ken have won in this very successful and highly contested season of motor racing may be seen on display at their new showroom at 75 Yonge St. S., which is being officially opened this weekend. There will be gifts for the kiddies as well as souvenirs for the grownups so why not pop in and say hello to the boys and their staff.
