Yongehurst Post Office New Site Proves Unpopular

THE MATTER of the change of location of the Yongehurst Post Office is still in the boiling pot stage although residents think the authorities concerned are laying low and taking no action in the obvious hope that by doing nothing and keeping quiet the subject will be dropped. Far from this being the case however, the irate householders and ratepayers of the area are planning to launch a wide campaign for an enquiry.

Letter From M. P.
Mrs. Costoff the Postmistress wrote again to the M. P. Mr. C. A. Cathers who is responsible for the change in the location of the office and received a reply as follows:-
House of Commons, Canada.

Dear Mrs. C.
I acknowledged your letter and the list of people who have signed the petition.
I was advised by the Post Office that your son had resigned and that your application was refused because you were slightly overage. Mr. Craigie applied and was accepted by the Post Office officials. I have never seen Mr. Craigie in my life. I hope this will correct the impression given in "The Liberal".

Yours truly,
(Signed) C. A. Cathers, M. P.
"I Was Sworn In"
Mrs. Costoff again told "The Liberal" "I cannot see how Mr. Cathers can say that my application was refused when in fact two officials came to the Post Office and swore me in as Postmistress.

Furthermore it has been shown that the Post Office authorities have recently circulated such post offices as this to the effect that the age limit would be seventy." Mrs. Costoff and the many other residents of the area who are so unhappy about the change of location of the Yongehurst Post Office are united in saying that, "It is still as much a mystery as ever and appears to be completely unreasonable. Mr. Cathers

Mrs. Ethel Costoff
Former Postmistress at Yongehurst, whose dismissal and change of postal location has raised a storm of protest in the district.

rejects the suggestion of political motive and yet the other excuses are so weak they do not bear investigation. There is a Postmaster in this area of an age already above seventy. In the circumstances what else can we think?"

Petition Group Mail Box Service
Mr. R. H. Sneath of 18 May Avenue, wrote to the District Director of Postal Service Mr. R. H. Reive, requesting consideration of a group mail box service for the former patrons of the Yongehurst Post office who did not wish to use the post office on Wedrick Road because of its inconvenient location. In reply Mr. Sneath was told that if enough people asked consideration would be given. Within half-an-hour of receiving this response Mr. Sneath had collected a total of 43 names.

Legion Notice Board
In the course of "The Liberal's" original investigation, Mr. Craigie the owner of the store to which the Post Office has now been transferred stated in reply to a question as to how he came into the picture in the first place, that a friend who was a member of the Local Legion of which Mr. Craigie used also to be a member, had telephoned to say that there was a notice on the Legion Notice Board inviting applications. This friend, declared Mr. Craigie, had said "Why don't you apply." "The Liberal" accepted this story but seeking confirmation of it this week, "The Liberal" was informed by the Legion Secretary, Mr. Ellis, that although all notices for the board usually passed through his hands he knew nothing of any notice of this nature. Said Mr. Ellis, "These things come to me first. They are then presented in Committee and authorized for display on the board. I have never seen or heard of any such notice as this relating to the change of location of Yongehurst Post Office or of any post office."
President George Wood of the Legion Club also advised that he knew nothing of a notice on the Legion board relating to a local post office.

"We Will Not Be Satisfied"
Supporters of the original Yongehurst Post Office now plan to circulate their complaint to leading newspapers, to all members of parliament and to post office authorities as well as to the Prime Minister-both Federal and Provincial. "We will not be satisfied" they say, "until this matter has been properly investigated and satisfactorily explained or the Post Office restored to its original location where it was much more convenient by the majority of local residents."

SCARBOROUGH - A local physician has sought an interim injunction to restrain a young doctor he took into his office last year from practising on his own in the same area. The young doctor had signed an agreement that if he left the office for any reason he would not practise medicine within a five mile radius for three years. The older doctor said the younger doctor had opened an office "a couple of blocks away."
