Baptist Church News
We regret an error in the date of Promotion Sunday as reported in last week's issue. It was held last Sunday, September 27, and all scholars are now in their new classes. Next Sunday, October 4, the attendance contest will start in the Sunday School. All scholars are asked to attend and bring a friend to get points for your class.

Lamp-lighters are now underway and all school age children up to 12 are urged to attend.

Personals
Brian Stiver, Sussex Avenue, celebrated his fifth birthday on Sunday, September 27th. On Saturday afternoon, he entertained his playmates at a supper party.

Mrs. N. Hicks, Mrs. R. Hamblin and Mrs. W. Thompson of Mark Vaun Women's Institute attended the Tweedsmuir History workshop which was held in the Municipal Hall, Richmond Hill, on Friday, September 25.

Mrs. L. Ament, Fairview Ave., was guest of honor at a housewarming party on Monday, September 21, at the home of Mrs. Iris, Fairview Avenue. The Ament family are moving from Langstaff to Richmond Hill very shortly.

Little David Iris of Fairview Avenue was four years of age on Wednesday, September 16. His playmates helped him to celebrate at a party on Saturday of last week.

Friends and relatives gave a surprise party last Saturday evening for Jim Honor of Morgan Drive on the occasion of his retirement from Massey-Harris-Ferguson Limited. We wish him many happy years of retired life.

Langstaff Art Club
Mrs. Aston reports that the club is off to a very enthusiastic start this year and she had to rearrange the schedule. There are now four classes, Monday afternoon and evening, Tuesday evening and Thursday evening of each week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Cooke, formerly of Church Street, are getting settled in their new home in Richmond Hill. They left Langstaff on September 14 and after living here for 20 years found the task of moving a very arduous one indeed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bell, Mrs. E. Gamble and Mrs. Darrell Goulding spent a few days touring Northern Ontario and Quebec arriving home late last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Roger Dinner is convalescing in Toronto Western Hospital from a painful eye injury suffered last week.

Birthday greetings to Ricky Snell, October 1; Marlene Hannah, October 2 and Albert Blundell, October 3.

Michael and Peter Terry spent the weekend with their grandmother, Mrs. H. W. Terry at her farm at Kettleby.

Mr. and Mrs. Spain and Mr. and Mrs. Carter of Simcoe were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gamble, Naughton Dr.

Marj. Clifford and Colleen Clarke spent the week end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sim at Willowdale.

Mahe Louise and John Robertson enjoyed a visit to the Ontario Museum on Saturday last in company with their aunt Miss Evelyn Eppes and three of their cousins, Suzanne, Elizabeth and Rickey Eppes.

Back to University
Those returning to Toronto University this week from this area were Miss Kitty Pick, Bill Gibson and Dave Kerwin. John Passmore has gone back to McMaster, where he is taking his second year in General Science.

Welcome New Canadians!
Mr. and Mrs. Sommers, Jefferson, were among the New Canadians who received their citizenship papers last week.

New Members of Community
Home from hospital with their new babies are Mrs. Gordon Galtor, Mrs. J. Kayes and Mrs. Neal, all of Naughton Dr.

Cubs & Brownies
Akela Mary Enzor took the first Jefferson Pack on a hike last Saturday morning. The group was accompanied by Mr. Laughlin and Mr. G. Humberstone, Forest Ranger from the Vivian Forest.

Mr. Humberstone instructed the boys in compass setting, how to care for their axe in the bush, how to fell trees, and light fires for using smoke signals in case of emergency in bush.

Specimens of trees were gathered by the Ten Cubs, and before returning home the food they had brought along was soon eaten, by a hungry cub pack.

A hearty vote of thanks was given to Mr. Humberstone, also to Mr. Laughlin and Ted Gamble who supplied transportation. The pack also appreciates the kindness of Mr. Passmore for his permission to camp in the bush.

Among the new chums who attended the First Jefferson Cub meeting last Monday evening were Terry Gunton, Harry Woodward, Chuck Morris and Barney Corless.

Shower of Happiness
On Wednesday evening of last week, Mrs. Ross Kerwin of Elgin Mills entertained more than 40 guests at a linen shower in honor of Miss Margaret Wilshire of Maple, who is being married to William (Bill) Gibson, October 24th.

The guests gathered in the recreation room where a "well", filled to overflowing with lovely linens, was placed under a decorated shower umbrella. Five of Margaret's wedding attendants assisted her in the opening of her gifts and in making "hats out of the gaily colored ribbon bows". The gifts were beautiful and to the admiring envy of more than one of the brides of yesteryear—Margaret received, among a bevy of useful and decorative gifts, eight exquisitely beautiful luncheon sets.

Following the shower and a game arranged by Miss Judy Kerwin, a delicious luncheon was enjoyed.

M.A. For 1st Jefferson
Seventeen ladies were out to the first Mothers' Auxiliary meeting of the season held last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Thomasson. A schedule for the coming year was discussed and a number of activities are being planned. The Mothers' Auxiliary would appreciate hearing of any uniforms which are available from Brownies who have passed to Guides.

Church News

Peace Or Destruction? Exciting Talks Series

NO-ONE SHOULD MISS AT-TENDING AT LEAST ONE OF THE SPECIAL MEETINGS currently being held in the Lions Community Hall on Centre Street East. There is no charge for admission. The series opened last Wednesday and will continue every Sunday and Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m.

Local Evangelist Speaker for the series is a 33 year old Willowdale evangelist, Lawton Lowe, who is married and has two children, Susan aged 13 and Garry aged 12. Susan also participates in the meeting by presenting a vocal concert with Mr. Frank Munroe.

Chaplain At Washington, D.C., Mr. Lowe is a Master of Arts in Theology and was formerly the Chaplain at Washington, D. C. Seminary, USA. He was born in the Niagara Peninsula.

Those who attended the meeting last Wednesday had a wonderful time and thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

Will Civilization Survive?
The subject for Sunday evening's meeting is one that will interest all of us. It is entitled, "Will a Third World War Destroy Our Civilization?" The speaker will answer this question and will demonstrate that our century was described thousands of years ago in the Bible and will show that the Bible details whether we are faced with Peace or Destruction.
Home & Marriage
There will also be an interesting discussion on "The Home and Marriage" Mr. Lowe will be very glad to welcome all who can go along and promises them a very pleasant, interesting and enlightening evening out. Everybody is welcome.
