Maple Notes

What a full week this has been - sports - wise. Guess its getting to be a womens world even in the world series, they start the game and finish it with a commercial for the ladies!

Of Interest to Ratepayers:
Mr. Herb Constable was the speaker for the 1st fall meeting of the Maple Community and School Club to be held Wednesday, October 7 at 8 p.m. at George Bailey School.

The topic for the evening was "The New Township School Area."

4-H Club:
"Vellie Happy Homemakers" held their first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. A. Bishop on September 30, and elected Ann Constable as president and Vicki Reeds as secretary. Twenty girls are to study together - "Dressing up Home-grown vegetables."

Joan Constable gave the high lights of her recent 3 days at the C. N. E. which she received as an award in recognition of progress in 4-H Club work.

The leaders of this group are Mrs. A. Rutherford and Mrs. Lipp. St. Stephens Harvest Festival:
The Thanksgiving Harvest Festival at St. Stephens Anglican Church was held Sunday, October 4th against a beautifully decorated church background. Dr. R. Armitage, St. Stephens' new rector, gave the message.

Please keep in mind - the "At Home" for Dr. and Mrs. Armitage at the Rectory today, October 8, afternoon 3-5 p.m. and evening 7:30 - 9 p.m.

Scout Camporee '59:
The York Summit Division of the Boy Scouts held a Camporee at Oxtreal Camp, near Orangeville.

September 27-28
This was an overnight affair in tents and sleeping bags and the two patrols from Maple each won a "B" pennant.

Scouts meet Tuesday nights at Scout Hut at 7 p.m.

The Circus:
Even with hours on end of T.V., going to the circus still holds a special excitement for youngsters of all ages, so once a year when the circus comes to town its a night out for the whole family that can't quite compare with any other event.

Last week Maple took over a section at the Gardens and by all accounts it was still the "Biggest Show on Earth." (Sorry we didn't have information re same for those who called making inquiry.)

Edgeley News

Pleased to report that Miss Ella Whitmore is home from the hospital, where she underwent surgery, and is making good progress toward recovery.

Norman Bagg judged the Jersey Show at Beeton Fair last week. This Fall, as in other years, Norman's services as a top judge in the Jersey world have been much in demand throughout various sections of Canada and the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Poole, Mr. George Poole and Mr. Charlie Poole motored to Concord, Mich., recently to visit their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Shaw.

Sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. L. A. Whitmore and Miss Ella Whitmore in the loss last week of Mrs. Whitmore's brother, Mr. Tom Reid of Willowdale.

Mrs. Harold Davies of Maple will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Edgeley W. A. which will be held at the home of Mrs. Homer Whitmore. Mrs. R. J. Darlington will convene the meeting and Mrs. Alf Bagg and Mrs. Whitmore will be the social committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Locke celebrated their wedding anniversary on October 6.

Mrs. Chas. Agnew and Miss Ella Whitmore celebrated their birthdays on the same day, October 7. Happy days to you all.

Concord Socials
Cubs and Scouts
The Mother's Auxiliary held its first meeting for the year at Mrs. Henry Nordin's, Rockview Gardens, on Monday evening September 28. Only seven mothers were present, and that isn't too encouraging. Let's make October's meeting more successful. As if it weren't enough to have a small attendance, in the middle of the meeting the lights went out (Monday, remember?) and the president, Mrs. Orr, had to conduct her meeting by candle light.

Ratepayers
The Concord Community Ratepayers Association held its meeting on Thursday, October 1 as scheduled. The Ways and Means Committee reported and presented a draft constitution and by-laws which after a few minor amendments was approved by the group.

The Committee distributed a two-page mimeograph report containing the constitution and by-laws to everyone present. The Secretary, Mr. Gareau, had gotten in touch with the Vaughan Township Water Committee, Councilors Anstey and Ralph, requesting their attendance at this meeting. Unfortunately the only evening these gentlemen were free was Friday, October 2. On Friday morning Mrs. Donna Warwick called everyone in the area and notified them of the meeting that same night, and chiefly through her efforts the meeting was well attended with sixty-five members present.

The Water Committee gave little satisfaction however, claiming that the Vaughan Council is unaware of Concord's dry situation. Also they said that any wells drilled by the township so far had not enough capacity to serve the whole area. The next step to be taken is that of circulating a petition (the form to be obtained at the township offices) throughout all of Concord, that is both subdivisions and all surrounding area. The committee says that it must be Concord as a whole community that will back the request for water. (That's what we've maintained all along, not only re water but any other problems as well.)

Socials
Congratulations to Stan and Norma Harrison on the arrival of their baby girl, a sister for Corinne. Mrs. Harrison is at her mother's, Mrs. George Poole.

Mr. John Whitney visited Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Poole, Toronto, last Saturday evening.

The community extends its sympathy to Mrs. Art Whitmore, Edgeley, in the loss of her brother, Mr. Thomas Reid, who formerly lived at the McIntosh farm just south of Steele's Avenue.

Birthday
Happy birthday to Heather Keffer who was four years old on October first. Heather celebrated with a party on Saturday.

Catharine Ada Johnson Weds Robert J. Cannon
Woodbridge United Church was the scene of a lovely wedding on September 26, 1959 when Catharine Ada Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Johnson of Maple, was united in marriage with Robert James Cannon, son of Mr. and the late Mrs. James Cannon of Woodbridge; the Rev. Hodgson officiated at the double ring ceremony in a setting of mixed fall flowers. Mrs. Kearney was at the organ and Mrs. Eva Wallace sang the wedding prayer.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white satin with rounded neckline and fitted waist-line, the bodice of the gown overlaid with embroidery and the hoop skirt featuring a semi-train. Her headpiece was a coronet of seed pearls, from which floated her finger-tip length veil; she carried a cascade bouquet of sunset roses, white carnation petals, small pom pom 'mums with baby's breath.

Mrs. Dale Watts was Matron of honour, Miss Grethe Dahl, bridesmaid and the bride's sister, Miss Helen Johnson was flower girl. With the exception of the flower girl, all the attendants invited to attend the next meeting of Maple Womens Institute at the home of Mrs. L. Clarke of Hope on Wednesday evening, October 14, 8 p.m.

The program will be on the subject "agriculture and Canadian Industries."

Mrs. Beatty from Lefroy will give a demonstration on sponge rubber articles. Having won many prizes at fairs with her hand-crafts, Mrs. Beatty will be an interesting guest and you are urged to make a special effort to attend this meeting.

"A" Pack Cubs:
At the regular meeting, "A" pack turned out in force making a full pack and the cubs are now settled with their own colour pack. Tests are being tested and another fall season is off and running.

David Reid passed his 2nd star and that is a "big one."

We'll Miss You Around:
Phyllis Beamer, popular 4th grade teacher at George Bailey School is no longer a resident among us. She is sharing house-keeping in Richmond Hill with Mrs. Lawson who teaches grade 2.

Washing dishes after a Lions' Dinner wont be quite the same without Phyllis' jokes (!!!) to make a tedious task less tedious.

Beaumonts Retreat:
Bill and Muriel Weir are spending their annual week in Beaumonts and celebrating a wedding anniversary. After -? years is it still called a honeymoon?

Lorne and Marj Wells drove up to spend the weekend with them. Guess the fish were biting enough to make for a delicious breakfast.

Fashion Show to Swell Funds For Boy Scout Association
Doesn't it make a job so much easier to do when everyone you contact seems so interested in what you are trying to do.

The response to the Fall Fashion Show, sponsored by the 1st Maple Boy Scout Ladies' Auxiliary, has been most heartening. October 20 is the date and the time is 8:15, place Maple Community Hall.

We all know we're subscribing to a worthwhile cause, our own Maple Cubs and Scouts, but aside from that we're assured of a most delightful evening.

fish this summer that had been tagged by the Department of Lands and Forests. Let us know about what followed, Bill.

Music Band:
St. Andrew's Mission Band held their meeting at the Manse Saturday, September 26.

Elizabeth Walker was elected President. Lynda Ingram is secretary and Sheena McDonald, treasurer.

Please note the next meeting will be held Saturday, October 17 (not October 10 as first announced) at Mrs. Keffer's at 2 p.m.

Weather Ignored by Hi-C's:
To all intents and purposes the first meeting of the Hi C's fall schedule was one huge success. Just before the tree planting ceremony the skies opened up and what a deluge! However this group was undaunted and the shrubs were duly planted (check for yourselves at the entrance to the new Christian Education Building).

Returning indoors the young people found Allan Summer of Thornhill a square dance caller par excellence. Mr. Summer instructed as well and when the next one rolls around (can a square roll?) they will be all set to get into the swing of things again.

Fortunately it stopped raining to allow for the weiner, marshmallow roast to go on outside - its amazing - the appetites worked up by all that exertion.

A partial executive was formed with John Darker as president and Mary Lou Lund, Donna Reid and Peter Shore, programme convenors. Abby assisting Bob and Lynn James as co-councillors are Pat Lund and Brian Robeson.

Watch for announcement of next meeting. If you are between the ages of 15 - 19, you won't want to miss getting in with this newly formed Club - the Hi-C's of Maple United Church.

Cancer Society Meeting
The executive meeting called for October 15th has been postponed until Thursday, November 19, at the home of Mrs. George Miller.

A Brother For Barry Constable
Warm congratulations to Herb and Betty Constable on the arrival of Wayne Gordon, September 27, 1959. Guess Barry is a pretty proud big brother too.

Sickness in Our Town:
We have heard of so many who have been ill the last couple of weeks, and hope there is improvement in the general health.

Mr. Rose, father of Charles Rose, is ill in York County Hospital, Newmarket, and we trust, with them, he will soon be feeling spry again.

Junior Bowling Starting:
Jim Hodgson is asking all boys and girls wanting to bowl this year to be at the Community Hall Bowling Alleys this Saturday, October 10th between 10 - 12 a.m. in order to register.

Maple Branch, Canadian Cancer Society:
The Woodbridge Branch held their annual meeting of the Canadian Cancer Society in Woodbridge Arena, recently and members of Maple Branch executive, attended the meeting. Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. G. Walter, Mrs. Bigford, and Mrs. H. Kentner.

An Interesting Visitor:
When Mr. Carl Bell, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Art Wells, lived in Toronto, he was doing art work but wishfully thinking how he would enjoy having the chance to work with someone like Walt Disney. On a return trip from Europe, he met Esther Williams who became interested in his work and when he finally got to California she introduced him to the Land of Disney. His dream came true and he is drawing animated cartoons for Walt Disney in Disneyland.

Last week he was home for a visit and with his mother, Mrs. W. Bell and grandfather Mr. S. Jarvis of Toronto, came out to recount many interesting experiences for Mr. and Mrs. Wells, and answer a barrage of questions concerning Disneyland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Tawse of St. Petersburg, Florida, and their daughter, Mrs. Vella of Toronto were also guests of the Wells.

As if it weren't enough to have a small attendance, in the middle of the meeting the lights went out (Monday, remember?) and the president, Mrs. Orr, had to conduct her meeting by candle light.

Ratepayers
The Concord Community Ratepayers Association held its meeting on Thursday, October 1 as scheduled. The Ways and Means Committee reported and presented a draft constitution and by-laws which after a few minor amendments was approved by the group.

The Committee distributed a two-page mimeograph report containing the constitution and by-laws to everyone present. The Secretary, Mr. Gareau, had gotten in touch with the Vaughan Township Water Committee, Councilors Anstey and Ralph, requesting their attendance at this meeting. Unfortunately the only evening these gentlemen were free was Friday, October 2. On Friday morning Mrs. Donna Warwick called everyone in the area and notified them of the meeting that same night, and chiefly through her efforts the meeting was well attended with sixty-five members present.

The Water Committee gave little satisfaction however, claiming that the Vaughan Council is unaware of Concord's dry situation. Also they said that any wells drilled by the township so far had not enough capacity to serve the whole area. The next step to be taken is that of circulating a petition (the form to be obtained at the township offices) throughout all of Concord, that is both subdivisions and all surrounding area. The committee says that it must be Concord as a whole community that will back the request for water. (That's what we've maintained all along, not only re water but any other problems as well.)

Catharine Ada Johnson Weds Robert J. Cannon
Woodbridge United Church was the scene of a lovely wedding on September 26, 1959 when Catharine Ada Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Johnson of Maple, was united in marriage with Robert James Cannon, son of Mr. and the late Mrs. James Cannon of Woodbridge; the Rev. Hodgson officiated at the double ring ceremony in a setting of mixed fall flowers. Mrs. Kearney was at the organ and Mrs. Eva Wallace sang the wedding prayer.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of white satin with rounded neckline and fitted waist-line, the bodice of the gown overlaid with embroidery and the hoop skirt featuring a semi-train. Her headpiece was a coronet of seed pearls, from which floated her finger-tip length veil; she carried a cascade bouquet of sunset roses, white carnation petals, small pom pom 'mums with baby's breath.

Mrs. Dale Watts was Matron of honour, Miss Grethe Dahl, bridesmaid and the bride's sister, Miss Helen Johnson was flower girl. With the exception of the flower girl, all the attendants
