

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Mr. and Mrs. William McCollum of Smiths Falls, visited last week with Mrs. Thomas Moore and her daughters at their home on Wright St.

The Patti-Lu Shop will be showing some of its delightful fall fashions at a fashion show being staged next Tuesday, October 20, at the Maple Community Hall, Keele St.

Mr. W. J. Attig, Powassan, and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Howie and family from St. Lambert, Quebec, were visitors last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gil Clubine, Markham Road.

Miss Janis Butlin was home from Macdonald College for Thanksgiving weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Butlin, Roseview Ave.

The many friends of Bob Ross, who is at present in Toronto Western Hospital, will be pleased to hear that even though he is still unconscious, there is a slight improvement in his general condition.

Mrs. Heber McCague, Mrs. K. Blanchard and Mrs. H. H. MacKay attended the Victoria Square Women's Institute on Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Reid Brumwell. Mrs. MacKay demonstrated table decorations for Thanksgiving and Halloween.

Mrs. F. Israel, children's librarian at the Richmond Hill Public Library, will be the guest speaker at the Beverley Aes Home and School meeting to be held at the school tonight, Thursday, at 8:30 p.m.

The Sugar and Spice Club started its tenth year on October 8, when they met at the home of Mrs. W. Turner, Rumble Avenue. Officers for the coming year are: President, Mrs. L. Wainwright; Secretary, Mrs. A. Blackburn; Treasurer, Mrs. T. Saul. Winners at cards were Mrs. A. Blackburn, Mrs. W. Schurman, Mrs. T. Saul. Hostesses were Mrs. G. Fenwick and Mrs. T. Saul.

The Afternoon Branch of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Mary's Anglican church held their regular meeting Tuesday. An "Apron Shower," together with sewing, made an interesting afternoon. The study session, which was exceedingly informative, was given by the education secretary, Mrs. R. D. Little, and was appreciated by the members. The next meeting of the auxiliary will be held on November 3. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. N. Savage and Mrs. M. C. Fry.

The Richmond Hill Figure Skating Club are holding a sale at the Arena on Friday, October 23rd, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. when they will be disposing of several hundred odd costumes which have been used in previous carnivals and displays. This will be a great opportunity to outfit the children for Halloween and for the approaching party season, so why not visit the area and have a look?

A very pleasant surprise party was held October 10 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bridges, Richmond Hill, in honour of their father, Mr. Frank Rumble on his 82nd birthday. The evening was spent playing progressive euchre. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Anderson, Harrison; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rumble, Weston; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Rumble, Oak Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. George Matheson and Mrs. Ethel Woods of Maple; Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Lloyd, Willowdale; Mrs. Elizabeth Line and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Rumble, Richmond Hill.

Mrs. Fred Mitchell who has been staying with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Moore, Wright St. left this week for her home in Miami, Florida.

Mr. Charles Bancroft, Yonge St. has just returned from a very enjoyable two week motor trip, visiting friends in Daytona Beach, Florida, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York.

The Men's Club of St. Mary's Anglican Church will begin the season with a Corporate Communion and Breakfast at 8:00 a.m. next Sunday, October 18th. A cordial invitation is extended to all men of the parish to be present.

The first reading of Mr. Joseph Rabinowitch's play "The Transplanted" is being held at the Curtis Club meeting, tonight in the basement clubroom of the Church at 8:15 p.m. Member's friends or prospective new members are cordially invited to attend.

Friends of Mrs. Morley Beynon, 33 Arnold Street, will be pleased to learn that she returned to her home on Thanksgiving Day and will commence a period of convalescence at home, after having spent the past few weeks in Private Patients' Pavilion, Toronto General Hospital.

The Women's League of Health and Beauty is holding a Rummage sale in Wrixon Hall on Saturday, October 17, at 2 p.m. The proceeds will go towards sponsoring and equipping two members, who will be selected from the Richmond Hill Branch, to go on a demonstration tour of the British Isles, along with twenty other successful members chosen from Toronto and other areas.

Residents of the Hill may have noticed a familiar face in the C. B. C. Television production of the entrancing Irish comedy "Race for Heaven" on General Motors Theatre last Sunday evening. It belonged to Mr. Bill Ferguson, Centre St. a well known member of the Curtis Club, who has appeared in many local productions, including the festival play "Clerambard," when he received much praise for his portrayal as the priest.

Youth Sunday and St. Luke's Day will be observed at St. Mary's Anglican Church, with a special service for Young People at Evensong at 7 p.m. next Sunday, October 18. Many of the young people will participate in the service and there will be special Fireside Forum in the Parish Hall afterwards. The guest preacher for the occasion is the Rev. John Kerr, B.A., Chaplain of the Ontario Mental Hospital on Queen Street. All young people of the parish are invited.

Mrs. H. G. Robertson and her sister, Miss Evelyn Eppes attended the first programme of the Fall Season of AGE Film Society last weekend at the Odeon-Hyland, Rusputin and the Empress was the featured (2 hr. and 10 min.) film in which the beloved Barrymores naturally "stole the show." The Age Film Society reviews the best of past film treasures. Also seen as echoes of the past in bit comedy parts were Jean Harlow, Carol Lombard and the great Will Rogers. Their 35 year old pictures had been re-filmed and were very clear and most realistic - and funnier than anything seen in years - just plain, old-fashioned slapstick.

The Allencourt Ratepayers held their first meeting of the 1959/60 Season, at the Walter Scott School Wednesday, October 7. It was election night, and the following Executive were voted into office: President; Mr. G. J. Nicholson, 1st Vice President; Mr. J. Harcourt, 2nd Vice President; Mr. J. Williamson, Treasurer; Mr. R. Olson, Secretary; Mrs. G. J. Nicholson, Directors; Dr. V. Zuck, Mr. B. Wilson, Mr. W. T. Cockwell. A Social Committee was formed with Mrs. Thomson as Convener. The Association holds its meetings on the first Wednesday of each month and will welcome new members.

The Sacrament of Baptism was observed in St. Matthew's United Church on Sunday last. At that time the following children were presented by their parents, and duly received by the Minister, the Rev. William W. Patterson: Douglas James Barton, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Barton, 272 Axminster Dr. Steven David Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Ferguson, 117 Talmage Dr. David Willis Hammond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hammond, 317 S. Paliser Cr. Randy David Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Martin, 249 North Taylor Mills Drive. Linda Louise McGrath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McGrath, 497 Lynett Cr. Gordon Arthur Edgar Parr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Parr, 100 Cartier Cr. Kathleen Marie Plume, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Plume, 270 McConvey Dr. George Paul Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ward, 439 S. Paliser Cr.

It is of special interest to note that four of the mothers presenting children are members of St. Matthew's choir, two of the fathers are church elders, one father is and another father has been a steward of St. Matthew's United Church.

Mrs. Janet Mason, Mrs. George De Witt, Mr. and Mrs. Pate Savage and Mrs. Ede Butlin attended the 5th Atlantic Square Dance Convention held last Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto.

The Convention which was held for the first time in Canada, was attended by three thousand people, representing seven provinces, thirty four states and Mexico. The five ballrooms were filled to capacity with the many square dance enthusiasts, which created a very colourful picture as they dipped and dived to the liting music.

Miss Margaret Ireland has just returned from a very enjoyable trip to the British Isles. While in Scotland she returned to the home of her ancestors, the Isle of Mull in Argyll. Her grandfather, James Malloy and his four brothers left Scotland more than one hundred years ago to settle in Canada, and their descendants still live in this neighbourhood - Mr. Neil Malloy, Mrs. K. Blanchard, Mrs. Jean Murray, Maple and Miss Ireland. There were no Malloys left in Mull for Miss Ireland to visit.

Miss Ireland also cruised Loch Lomond, explored the capital, Edinburgh, and toured England and Wales.

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Thursday with the President Mrs. C. H. Sanderson presiding. Several members brought friends, showing a growing interest in the organization.

At a recent meeting of the Secretaries of East York District it was suggested that each member should have the Women's Institute hand book and that each branch should provide a suitable case for the secretary's books.

Mrs. Burnie, convener of the meeting, introduced the guest speaker, Fire Chief Stong. In a clear and concise manner, Mr. Stong told of some of the fire hazards that may be found in our basements and kitchens. He went on to point out what we could do to eliminate these dangers. Industrial plants are inspected because of the risk to the number of people employed. Mrs. Burnie showed some school books, pointing out some of the changes that have taken place in our education.

A pleasant half hour was provided by the hostesses, Mrs. K. Blanchard, Mrs. D. Lamb, Mrs. G. Irwin, Mrs. A. Eden and Mrs. R. Giles.

The October business meeting of the Woman's Federation of St. Matthews United Church was held in the church parlor with Vice - President Mrs. C. Loverock in the chair. Mrs. L. Justice and Mrs. R. Wylie gave the devotional, their subject being "The Parable of the Child." Guest speaker of the evening was Mrs. C. Downs, principal of York Township School for Retarded Children. Mrs. Downs' talk was an inspiration to all as she told of her experiences in teaching and guiding retarded children. She urged that we all do everything in our power to educate the public in our acceptance of these children and give them every chance to lead a normal life. After the business session, refreshments were served by Mrs. S. Dennis. Group readings will be held October 20th in the following homes: Group 1, Mrs. B. Curtis, 200 North Taylor Mills Drive, Beverley Acres; Group 2, Mrs. C. King, 447 South Taylor Mills Drive; Group 3, Mrs. B. Knight, 348 Crosby Avenue; Group 4, Mrs. A. McClelland, 51 Rockport Crescent; Group 5, Mrs. C. Loverock, 308 Paliser Crescent.

St. Matthews Plans New Church Bldg.

The congregation of St. Matthew's United Church, Crosby Avenue, met on Wednesday evening of last week for consideration of plans for a new church building as they were presented by the architects, Pentland and Baker, and the building committee. The proposal as presented by the committee is that the congregation build as the first unit of their permanent building a church sanctuary with seating in choir and nave for 350 persons, and with a building budget of $70,000. Considerable discussion followed the presentation of the plans. The meeting was then adjourned, and will resume on Thursday evening of this week to continue consideration and take whatever action may seem desirable.
