"The Liberal" is always pleased to publish items of interest regarding people and events in the Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox and King City districts. Our news correspondent in King City is Mrs. William J. Houston, telephone King 205M; and in Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox, Mrs. Elisabeth Orton, Aubrey Ave., phone PR. 3-5610.

Oak Ridges, Lake Wilcox Socials

Lake Wilcox Ratepayers Association held their general meeting last week and due to lack of interest will be disbanded after the November meeting, unless more homeowners show a definite interest. Only 12 of a possible 40 members were present at the School, which made it impossible to elect new officers for the fall and winter season. This organization of homeowners at Lake Wilcox meet at the school on the first Monday of every month and Mrs. Freda Munroe is Secretary.

Whitchurch Council met last week to discuss some sort of by-law to regulate bathing at the Township's seven lakes. Due to the increase in drownings at some of these lakes it is felt certain rules and regulations should be laid down. Although no decision has been reached yet it is expected one will be in effect by next summer.

Bond Avenue is in the process of receiving a "face lifting" preparatory to eventual asphalt paving about a half mile in length the approximate cost will be $4,000.00. All old curbs will be replaced and as there are approximately 66 driveways on the Avenue this will be a large undertaking, the whole operation is being done by township workers.

Fifty-six was the number of Turkeys won at the Lions Club "shoot," held last Saturday at Paxton's Farms. It was a very successful affair, so much so, that another is planned for October 24th, on the C. F. R. B. Sideroad, about 2 miles west of the highway.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hind, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Kruger and children have moved to their new homes at Maple, both families were long-time residents of Aubrey Ave.

King City Notes

Enthusiasm of youngsters in the Junior Choir of King City United Church almost meant there weren't enough of the new choir gowns to go around for the special service next Sunday, when the gowns will be introduced and dedicated.

At first their leader, Mrs. Harold Gilbert, was able to obtain 28 of the white surplises with maroon neck ruffles from a Brantford Choir. This number would have been more than enough to outfit the youthful singers. Then more boys and girls promptly joined, bringing the choir's strength up to three dozen. So this week some of the mothers are doing some last-minute sewing before the Sunday service.

The youngsters, aged from nine up, are practising Processional and Recessional formation and will join in an anthem, "O Saviour sweet," to the accompaniment of Mrs. Adam Davidson.

This regular Junior Choir are led by Lynn Scott, Anna Dew, Jane Abrahams, Rosemary and Heather Davidson, Shirley Knight, Christine Loney, Linda Cane, Sheila Gellatly, Lynn McCoppen, Diane Wallace, Kendra Lawson, Anne Heaslip, Denise Wallace, Elaine Doy, Donna Dixon, Linda Pawliw, Celeste Brown, Stephen Millard, Paul and Ross Rumble, Barry Wilkins, John Lacey, Ron McDonald, Brian Gellatly, Mark Brown, Murray Gordon, Carl McTaggart, Douglas Parsons, Jimmy Dixon, David and Jim Heaslip.

The choristers will take part in the Sunday School anniversary service on October 25, when Rev. Gordon Winch of Oak Ridges will be guest speaker.

Convalescing Mrs. William Carson is back in her South Keele St. home after major surgery at York County Hospital.

Improvements are under way at King Memorial Library, where the back room is being turned into a reference room for adults. Non-fiction books and the newly-acquired set of 24 volumes of Encyclopaedia Britannica will be placed there, leaving the main room for fiction shelves and children's books.

Exhibit and Sale Kingcrafts members will be showing samples of their handwork at the October 31 exhibition and sale of baking at Kingcrafts House.

Mrs. Gage Love is in charge of the crafts display. The Garden Group, convened by Mrs. Eric White, will have dried flower arrangements and will be taking orders for Christmas decorations. Mrs. Glen Sawyer is supervising the sale of home-baking, candy and delicatessen items, with Miss Helen Hunter as co-convenor.

Mrs. Gregory Paul is looking after the serving of coffee, assisted by Mrs. Ian Baxter.

Kinghorn Parents
A dozen parents of Kinghorn School pupils from among 33 families heard Mrs. Arthur Toogood and Mrs. Ronald Shaylor, York-Simcoe Home and School Council organizers, last week.

The meeting was the outcome of a mothers' meeting last spring when it was suggested the formation of Kinghorn Home and School Association be considered.

Film night
King Young People's Christian Association has invited all young people in the district to a film night next Monday, when "Teen Witness" will be shown at Bethel Baptist Church, King St.

The Y. P. C. A., headed by Mr. Joseph Vineham, is having a weiner roast October 24 at Kettleby, New Organ.

Bethel Church has acquired an electric organ, which Mrs. Britton Riddell plays for the Sunday afternoon services at 2:30.

King Kindergarten
Opening for a second year, King Kindergarten has an enrollment of 16, taught by Mrs. M. Kerslake and Mrs. Eileen Parrish, both from Richmond Hill.

With headquarters in All Saints' Rectory on South Keele St., until the new Parish Hall is built the kindergarten has accommodation for 25 children.

According to Mrs. Herbert Schmidt, President of the Mothers' Association, a meeting of parents will be called shortly to form a new executive.

Collect Rummage
Donations of good used winter clothing and household articles for the King City Scouts' and Cubs' Ladies' Auxiliary rummage sale early in November at Wilksdale, are being received before November 1 at the following homes:

Mrs. George Armstrong, South Keele St., Mrs. Harry Lacey, Valentine Acres; Mrs. David Glass, Kingsview Subdivision; Mrs. Garnet Dawson, Clearview Subdivision; Mrs. James Crooks, King east; Mrs. Cris Van Nieuwenhuizen, Dennison Rd.

Community Centre
A heated discussion on the question, "are there adequate activities for teenagers in our community?" at the opening Fall meeting of King City Home and School Association, resulted in the setting up of a committee to develop more community activities for young people.

President Mr. Robert Seymour led the discussion, in which Mr. Keith Cambden of King City Business Men's Association, Mr. Jack Parsons of King City Lions' Club, Mrs. Gordon Tetley, Mr. William Cook and Mr. James Wilkins were main participants.

After the forty parents present agreed there were not adequate outlets for teen-age recreation, they appointed a committee, Mr. Robert Seymour, Mrs. Ralph Loney, Mrs. Lamonte, Mrs. James Wilkins, Mrs. James B. Houston and Mr. William Cook.

The committee was asked to investigate four points, providing communication between the Home and School Association and existing groups with regard to teen-age activities; to co-ordinate existing facilities; devise ways to expand and extend these facilities; and to plan for the future by meeting with representatives of groups in an effort to provide a community recreational centre.

Miss Helen Nigh's classroom won the banner for having the most parents attending. The lengthy discussion came to a close with the serving of refreshments.

Teacher Hurt
A patient in Mount Forest Hospital, Miss Shirley Gibson is hearing from her new friends she met while teaching at Strange School, since the three-car collision near Mount Forest claimed her mother's life and sent her and her girlfriend to hospital.

Miss Gibson was driving her small car and the accident occurred when young people in two cars tried to pass her at the same time.

Mrs. Whyn Gibson was fatally injured. Her daughter suffered a broken hip bone and severe body cuts and her girlfriend received facial cuts. The young teacher is expected to remain in Mount Forest Hospital several weeks. In the meantime, Mrs. Mary Scott is temporarily taking her junior grades at Strange School.

Miss Gibson had been staying at the Heritage Park home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis, when she left to spend the weekend with her family at Monesella, near Grand Valley.

DEPT. OF HEALTH

Diet and Older Persons

It is fairly common to find protein deficiency in older people. To maintain an adequate diet they should be encouraged to eat plenty of such protein rich foods as meat, milk, eggs, fish and cheese. Dried non-fat milk also adds protein. This will supplement the incomplete proteins in the cereal foods which all too often become the staple part of an older person's diet.

I'M AS PLEASED AS PUNCH!

TO WISH IS TO HAVE WITH A WELL STOCKED FREEZER

Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes, with whom Mrs. Hughes' mother, Mrs. Grant, also lives, have not had their home freezer for long, but already Mrs. Hughes says that she is "as pleased as Punch". Both Bill and his wife Allison think it is wonderful. So does Mrs. Grant. That is Mrs. Grant in the picture making a selection from the freezer while her daughter looks on.

The Hughes live at 379 Marybrey Crescent, Richmond Hill, and Bill is a proof reader for a publishing company. Their three children are Caroli ne aged 12 and Ken aged 7 who attend Beverley Acres School and Jimmy four, still too young for school. The family moved originally from Willowdale to take up permanent residence in Richmond Hill.

"You can beat the cost of living when you have a home freezer," says this family. They agree that this is the way to save money while eating better. Yes, actually better. A family of four can save as much as $300.00 a year when they make a home freezer work for them. These savings actually pay for the freezer so it really does not cost anything anyway. So why not have one too? "We shop in the comfort of our own home and take advantage of Town & Country's low prices which they are able to offer as a result of their mass buying," say the Hughes family and Mrs. Grant. Town & Country supply only top brand name products and all are Government tested.

Like the Hughes and Mrs. Grant you will lose your heart to your freezer and you will be so proud of it when you see it in your own home. All popular makes available in chest style, upright and combination from 8 cubic feet with capacity of 275 lbs. to 25 cubic feet which holds up to 800 lbs.

YOU can obtain YOUR home freezer TODAY simply by telephoning TOWN & COUNTRY MARKETERS, 210 Markham Road, Richmond Hill, AV. 5-5401, AV. 5-5402 and AV. 5-5403 or COME & SEE our wide display. Open daily until 10 p.m.
