Local Man's Success From Small Beginnings

FRANK GRABARCHUK at 28 is the owner of FRANK'S MOVERS & CARTAGE, and lives and works on Industrial Road, Richmond Hill. Frank's parents emigrated from Poland way back in 1929. Frank was born in Kellilher, near Saskatoon, in Saskatchewan, 28 years ago. He was educated in the public and high schools there. After school he took a course in telegraphy to qualify as a station agent for Canadian National and passed his tests successfully when he was 18. From that age until he was 25 he was employed continuously as a station agent and was engaged in every telegraph office between Winnipeg and Toronto.

Blind Date
Frank often visited an uncle in Toronto who used to kid him along because he showed no indication of any desire to get married and settled down. But in 1953 he kept a blind date and was safely landed, to his uncle's huge delight. The blind date was in the fall of 1953 and the couple were married in June 1954. They have two children, Judy aged four years and Bobbie aged two years. The family has been settled in Richmond Hill for the past four and a half years. As a station agent, Frank worked only four days a week and enjoyed three days free each week. The express office unconsciously set Frank on the road to a larger future and considerable success by suggesting he obtain his own small truck and do delivery work. Once he had the small truck lots of people requested his aid in their removal problems. This little side-line prospered so much that Frank decided he could do better in a business of his own and soon he was looking round for other trucks and drivers and building up a worthwhile business.

PICKERING - The township planning board registered protests of an amendment Council passed on a Zoning by-law, which took almost two years to prepare. The amendment froze the north part of the township to Residential Agricultural - even such hamlets as Brougham Clarendon and Whitevale. No subdivision, stores or other commercial ventures may be undertaken under this new by-law.
