

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

His many friends will be sorry to learn that John Johnston, 95 Yonge Street, is again a patient in Branson Hospital. He suffered a stroke Wednesday of last week and was returned to hospital.

Mrs. D. S. Bost, Centre St., has recently returned from a visit to her daughter and son-in-law, Rev. J. W. E. Newbery and their family at Sudbury.

Mrs. Jack Seaton, who is at present in the Isolation Hospital, Toronto, suffering from an attack of polio, has now passed the critical period, and "The Liberal" joins with her many friends in wishing her a speedy recovery.

There was a large attendance at Richmond Masonic Lodge Wednesday evening for the official visit of R. W. Bro. H. T. Blumson, district deputy grand master for Toronto district. C. W. Bro. Norman A. Todd, Ruling Master, presided in the lodge room and for the banquet which followed.

A luncheon was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Don Beaumont, Richmond St. for seventeen members of the Inner Wheel of the Rotary of Richmond Hill, to meet their new President, Mrs. Betty Dixon. Following the luncheon, bridge was enjoyed.

"Youth Sunday" was observed in Anglican churches throughout Canada on Sunday, October 18th, and was marked by a special family service at 9.30 a.m. for the junior and senior Sunday schools of St. Mary's Anglican church. Appropriate hymns were chosen for the occasion, and the scripture lesson was read by student Jolene Goodier. The Rector, the Rev. J. F. O'Neil gave an interest-compelling address, designed for Youth Sunday, which proved of great interest to both children and adults. Rewarded for three years of intensive Bible study, Sunday School student Jolene Goodier was presented with a handsome plaque — the "Dominion Award" of the Anglican Church of Canada. In making this presentation, the Rector laid special emphasis on the value of the parents' co-operation in the religious studies of their daughter, winner of the coveted award.

The president and the committee of the Women's Institute, Richmond Hill, would like to thank everyone who helped make their first bridge and euchre such an outstanding success.

There were 23 tables in play, eight of bridge and fifteen of euchre. First prize in bridge went to Mrs. Walter Smith, 2nd to Mrs. Stan Pipher and third to Mrs. S. Stein. First prize in euchre was won by Mrs. Neil Malloy, second by Mrs. R. Andrews and consolation by Mrs. Watson. Winners of the special draw prizes were Mrs. R. Fox, Mrs. Brady, Mrs. Diceman, Mrs. A. Cameron, Mrs. R. Fleury and Mrs. J. Bayley. Delightful refreshments were served. The convenors would like to thank the local merchants who kindly donated favours and prizes.

Also a very special thanks to the library board in allowing the use of their spacious new auditorium in the new building which added to the comfort and enjoyment of a happy afternoon.

Fashion Show

Mrs. Anna Little and Miss Susanne Butt are shown above wearing two of the attractive fashions displayed at the fashion show given by the St. Mary's Anglican Church Evening Guild, in Wrixon Hall recently. Mrs. Little is wearing a Miss Sun Valley, charcoal with red dot one-piece dress, and Miss Butt a Kayser's amber gold Peignoir and Gown. All the clothes were provided by Warwick House, the shoes by Shield's Footwear, and the jewellery from the Richmond Gift Shop, all from the Richmond Heights Plaza.

On Tuesday evening, October 27th, the members of St. Mary's Anglican Church are holding a congregational dinner in the Parish Hall. The adult members of all Anglican families on the parish roll are being invited, and a large crowd is expected at the dinner which is a co-operative project and part of the every member visitation programme.

When the new North York "Gladys Allison" Library was formally opened and dedicated last Monday night it was the "Culmination of a 20 year dream." And those were the words Mrs. Allison expressed in accepting the great honour bestowed upon her by the township.

Many were the verbal tributes from former reeves and the present Reeve Norman Goodhead for the inspiration Gladys Allison had been to them through her tireless work in the community and as a newspaper woman.

Mona Robertson of "The Liberal" attended the ceremonies to congratulate her former companion of the "press desk." Both women were for sometime reporters for the North York area before Mrs. Robertson joined "The Liberal" editorial staff.

Mr. Philip Swan attended the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants conference in Vancouver, B. C. in September. Following the business session, Mr. Swan witnessed the classic 14 to 8 game between the B. C. Lions and Calgary Stampeders, also visiting some of the British Columbia scenic spots before taking off for Seattle, Washington from where he flew to Hawaii for a two week's vacation. One week was spent at the Hawaiian Village Hotel on Waikiki Beach in Honolulu, which was followed by one week of touring the exotic Hawaiian Islands. After flying over portion of the Pacific to the U. S. mainland, Mr. Swan stopped off long enough in San Francisco to enjoy some of the many attractions of this famous city, deservedly named by many travellers, of both hemispheres, as "The City," possessing in addition to its scenic harbor setting, the Golden Gate Bridge, famous bridges spanning the Bay of San Francisco, Parks, largest Chinatown outside of China itself, also the revered cable car system that is symbolic of the spirit of the residents of San Francisco.

Returning via Pan-American and United Airlines, Mr. Swan made a business stop-off in Chicago before returning home to Richmond Hill.

The 4th Richmond Hill Cubs are getting into the swing of things once more, having started back in September with a weekend camp at Ox Trail Camp, Orangeville. Sixteen boys were able to go along, and with the able help of three fathers, John Lunn, Jim McRae and Frank Aldred, it was voted a great success. All the boys were put through their tests for athletic badges, with 13 of them succeeding; special thanks to Mr. Lunn for his efforts. On Wednesday of last week, the group enjoyed a hayride at Bayview Ranch with a full attendance of 38 boys. After the ride, all the boys had pony rides and finished up with a treat and pop. The boys were accompanied by Akela, Bagheera, and Kim. At Monday's meeting, two new cubs were invested, Hal Cameron and John Birrell, and the group was pleased to welcome the parents to this event.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Little are in Montreal this week attending the Convention of the Canadian Federation of Automobile Dealers, which is being held at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel.

Square dancing got off to a good start in Richmond Hill last Thursday, October 15, when the Community Swing Club had their opening party at MacKillop Public School. The new leader, Mrs. Margaret Hough, put the group through some lively squares. The club was especially pleased to have their former leader, Mrs. Ede Butlin, with them. The regular square dance nights will be held on the 2nd and 4th Monday of each month. We would like to establish a good size beginners' group and look forward to seeing more of the young adults. All those interested in square dances are heartily welcome at the next meeting Monday, October 26th, at the MacKillop Public School at 8.15 p.m.

Parents' Night for the Teeny Town Nursery School which was held on Friday night in Wrixon Hall had a very good attendance. The guest speaker was Mrs. Marguerite Brown of the Parent Education staff of the Institute of Child Study who spoke on "Discipline."

Elisabeth Jackson, a member of the Curtain Club, who has appeared in many local plays, including playing the lead in "Kind Lady," the spring production, is currently appearing with a West End Players in Sean O'Casey's "Shadow of a Gunman".

The play, directed by Sean Mulcahy, received enthusiastic comments from both the critics and the audience at the opening night in Toronto last Monday, and it looks as though it may be playing for several weeks.

The 1st Richmond Hill Scout Mothers Auxiliary held their first regular meeting of the fall season last Wednesday, October 14th. A report from the dance committee was heard, and all plans have been completed for the dance, which will be taking place on Friday, October 23, at the High School. After the business meeting a hilarious half hour followed, at which time an auction sale was held.

The Curtain Club presented the play, "Return to Thine Own House," at the first annual Conference and Rally of the White Cross Volunteers at the Unitarian Church, Toronto, last Saturday.

The play deals with the problems of re-adjustment to home and family of a man recently discharged as cured from a hospital for the mentally ill. Those taking part were: Susanne Grew, Cicely Thomson, Carl Weinsheimer, Daniel Crampton and David Coon, direction by Gerry Crack.

Judging by the many comments we receive, this column is read with great interest by hundreds of our Richmond Hill readers, not to mention many in other parts of Canada and the world. If you have any items of social news concerning residents or ex-residents of the Hill, please telephone TU. 4-1105 or TU. 4-2528 and we will be pleased to include it in "Life in the Hill."
