TEMPERANCEVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. MILTON WELLS, R. R. 3 KING
Phone PR. 3-5239

W.A. & W.M.S.
The monthly meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Wilbert Jennings with the W.M.S. president, Mrs. Jack Macklin opening the meeting with the reading of a hymn. Mrs. Kennedy read an article on "Meditations on Thanksgiving."
The guest speaker, Mrs. Gardhouse, Literature Secretary for York Presbytery, was introduced by Mrs. Wm. Turner.
Sunday School Notes
The Temperanceville Sunday School staff held a short meeting on Sunday to discuss plans for Christmas.
The Temperanceville Bazaar will be held in the Sunday School rooms on November 7.
The 4-H Club girls will spend the day on Saturday in the form of a combined meeting at the church.
On Sunday evening, October 18 Temperanceville United Church had as guests the Lakeshore Interchurch Male Choir, who provided a beautiful service in song. October 18 was Laymen's Sunday in the United Church and those present had the pleasure of hearing Mr. Wilbert Jennings.

Wedding
SULEK-ANNAND
Amidst a Thanksgiving setting of beautiful autumn leaves, bronze mums, asters and dahlia, a very pretty wedding was solemnized in Temperanceville United Church, October 19, when Marilyn Joyce Annand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Annand of Aurora, became the bride of Alexander Fyie Sulek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sulek, also of Aurora. Rev. Ivan Kennedy officiated.
The pretty bride looked radiant as she entered the church on her father's arm, wearing a beautiful gown of nylon net with nylon lace inserts over taffeta, floor length, fashioned with fitted bodice, scalloped neckline trimmed with seed pearls and sequins, also covered buttons extending down the back to the waistline. The long nylon lace sleeves came to a point over the hand while the full skirt flowed from the tight bodice. Her veil trimmed with matching lace was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. Her cascade bouquet was of white baby mums and red rosebuds. The bride's only jewellery was a gift from the groom, a necklace and earrings of a cluster of pearls.
Attending her sister as junior bridesmaid was Miss Diane Annand wearing a street length dress of yellow flecked nylon over taffeta, with scooped neckline and large butterfly bow trimming the back. Her headband was of yellow flower petals and tiny veil. She carried a bouquet of mauve and yellow mums. Miss Jean Lacy, bridesmaid, wore a street length dress of mauve flecked nylon over taffeta, identical in fashion and a headband of mauve flower petals and veil. Her bouquet was of yellow and mauve mums. Both attendants wore matching mittens and shoes, also a lovely cluster of cultured pearls on a gold chain — the gift of the bride.
The best man was Alex Sim of Toronto. The ushers were Earl Newhall of Sudbury and Frank Sulek Jr., of Toronto.
The wedding music was played by Joan Hare who chose a selection from Mendelssohn's "Midsummer's Night Dream" for the wedding march and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register. Rev. Ivan Kennedy performed the ceremony.
The reception was held in the Temperanceville United Church Sunday School rooms with about 75 guests present at the buffet luncheon.
The bride's mother received the guests wearing a sheath-dress of deep rose beige jersey trimmed with cocoa brown flowers. Her matching accessories were of brown with a tone on tone feather hat. Mrs. Annand wore a corsage of bronze mums and yellow rose buds. Mrs. Sulek, mother of the groom assisted wearing a rosewood crepe and lace dress and matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds and white mums.
For the short honeymoon to Bracebridge, Orillia and Brampton, the bride donned a royal blue wool suit with white feather hat and gloves. Her purse and shoes were black. A corsage of white baby mums and red rosebuds completed her attire.
