Langstaff Home & School Assoc.
A large number of parents and teachers attended the October meeting of the Langstaff Home and School Association and received a warm welcome from Mrs. Neal, the new president. The members of the 59-60 executive were introduced along with the Grade Mothers who represent each room. These women act as a liaison between the teachers and parents.
Mrs. Evans room had the largest parent attendance for the junior grades and Mr. Linfield for the senior.

Mr. Urquhart introduced the members of the teaching staff and welcomed all newcomers to the area. He also announced that Langstaff and Clark-Elgin Schools were co-winners of the area field day and the trophy they are to share was on display at the meeting.
There was an area teachers meeting on Wednesday, October 21st, and these meetings will be held on the third Wednesday of each succeeding month.
Dr. Jackson, Director of the Ontario College of Education, introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Miss Florence Stone, who spoke on the history and importance of reading.

Baptist Church News

Personal
Mrs. Desjardine, Garden Ave., gave an afternoon tea and surprise party on Wednesday of last week in honor of Mrs. Hyett of Garden Ave. Those present were Mrs. White, Mrs. Madeline, Mrs. Bass, Mrs. Waiman, Mrs. Brodie, Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Edmonds. Mrs. Hyett has sold her home and has moved to Finch Avenue. We all wish Mr. and Mrs. Hyett and Jewel the best of luck in their new home.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. M. Holt, Garden Avenue, over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Connell and family of Newton-Rabinson; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Connell, Weston; and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Landerkin of Bond Head.

Residents of Langstaff extend a belated but warm welcome to Mrs. O. Brodie, Yonge Street, Mr. and Mrs. Brodie, who were in mid-September, and we wish them many happy years of life together.

School News
The Area Volleyball Leagues are underway for the season, and Langstaff Senior Girls have a team entered. They have lost one game to Thornhill and won one game from the Powell Rd. team.
The picture of last year's graduates should soon be hung in the hall of the school and a welcome is extended to any of the graduates who would like to visit.

Mr. Urquhart would like to extend a special "Thank You" to Dr. Jackson for obtaining the services of Miss Stone, as speaker at the home and school meeting.

Neighbourhood Notes
After the snowflurries of Sunday's brief snowfalls we look forward to a beautiful Indian Summer. With most of the foliage still on the trees there is still hope for some colour. Last week Muskoka was beautiful beyond description, but too late for the cascade of colour.
Art Storey and Andy Woodcock of the Victoria Square circuit Y. P. A. attended a regional conference of United Church Young People at North Bay Thanksgiving weekend. Art is also busy with Tyro boys' work at Victoria Square church and will be assisted by Roger Kedwell.

It is good to see Mr. Harold Wright around the community again following his recent bout with a virus infection. Another neighbour, Mr. B. K. Wilson is getting back in harness after the heart attack he suffered early in September; and Mr. Wilfred Turner who is currently at the Weston Sanatorium was allowed to visit his family here on Friday of last week.

Church services on the Victoria Square church this coming Sunday will be held at Victoria Square church where the congregation is celebrating anniversary services at 11:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Daylight saving ends next weekend so church will be held on Standard time.

New Business In Area
It's seven months since March 23rd when a meeting of residents in the south-eastern sector of Markham Township was called to hear a decision on rezoning. At that time action was delayed specifically for three months, until railway and highway plans were finalized — but still the township waits.

In the meantime small businesses continue to creep in along Don Mills Road. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Pralet and the Pattersons did a flourishing trade in vegetables this season; Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Jacksie and Mr. Ross Stonehouse each have Chinchillas for sale; Grover Cast Stone are completing a new building which will enable them to greatly increase their output; and just south of No. 7 highway, Mr. B. K. Wilson has taken on the sales and distribution for Canadian made camping trailers-boat trailers line.

The people seem to have made up their minds whether Metro can or not.

Buttonville Parent and School Club
On Wednesday evening of next week parents of children in the Buttonville school area will meet at the school for the first meeting of the new club recently formed. The programme will consist chiefly of a demonstration lesson by Mrs. Helfenstein of the Junior room who will present an actual teaching procedure using a few children from grades 1 and 2.

The graduates' dinner which was originally planned for early in November had to be postponed because graduation pins are not available until later in the term.

Church Service For Junior Farmers
An inspirational talk by Mr. W. M. Cockburn of the Department of Agriculture, and a solo by Mrs. George Hooper were features of the Unionville Junior Farmers church service held in Brown's Corners United Church on Sunday evening.

Mr. Cockburn spoke of the importance of young people of the community developing Christian Character — including under this heading Understanding, Courtesy, Good Will, Loyalty and Honesty. In commenting on the latter, Mr. Cockburn remarked: "Would that 'Honesty is the best policy' had been 'Honesty is the only policy!'"

Mrs. Steffler was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Dorothy Hood when she sang "Thanks Be To God," and the presidents of the boys' and girls' clubs, Mr. Don Hoshel and Miss Caroline Little conducted the service. Young people of each organization occupied the choir loft.

Flowers at the altar for both Sunday services were in memory of Mr. Harold Cunningham of Brown's Corners congregation, and Mrs. Steffler, mother of Mr. Harold Steffler, whose death occurred recently.

At the close of the service a fireside was held in the church parlours for those present.

The first meeting of the autumn season was held in the church parlours on the first Wednesday evening of October with Mrs. Walter Craig presenting an interesting review of the first chapters of the 1959-60 mission study book, "Africa Disturbed".

Mrs. Wm. Rodick, president, was in the chair and music was by Mrs. S. J. English with Mrs. A. W. Miller as soloist.

Mrs. John Wilkins, Mrs. James Rodick and Mrs. Ross Hord presented the devotional service, and Mrs. Wm. Rodick and Mrs. A. W. Miller handled business for W.M.S. Harmony group.

Business was as follows: Mrs. Douglas Hood and Mrs. W. Craig were appointed to welcome all those who attend church Sunday mornings. Associate members are to be invited specially to the Thankoffering meeting to be held on November 4th at which Mrs. Loveys will be speaker (October committee in charge); Annual meeting to be held Nov. 18, (November committee in charge); Harmony Club Bazaar in Button-
