The hooking group, consisting of 28 members, demonstrated at the pioneer museum in September and at the C.N.E. The smocking group of 21 averaged a dozen at sewing classes when children's clothes were made. The weaving group took a course of lessons in setting up looms. Lady Flavell and her daughter, Mrs. Love, attended the weaving exhibit in London. The pottery group studied use of the wheel in its work, but most members preferred to make articles by hand.

The dozen members in the leather group held 21 work meetings for the making of key cases and handbags. A sale and exhibit was the biggest undertaking of the art group's 18 members from King, Aurora, Richmond Hill, Newmarket and Gormley. The garden group was reported as quite active, beautifying the grounds of Kingcrafts House and making dried arrangements.

Dr. Lillian Langstaff seconded the reports.

All members are eligible for the new group studying design. Two more classes are being held in November under Mrs. Anne Hook's instruction for the 61 enrolled.

"Going, going.... gone" But Lions Net $825.00

by Helen Houston
Standing in the chill dampness beside King City park barn, the crowd laughed when Auctioneer Harold Russell drummed up bids on an empty shell of a grandfather clock by announcing, "You'd have a fine clock — with a few minor repairs!"

Mr. Russell had no trouble selling the clock container, nor hundreds of other items at King City Lions Club eighth annual auction. In spite of the unpleasant weather, the sale proved by far the most successful yet. A profit of over $825 almost doubled proceeds from previous sales. Most of the money will be used in providing bus transportation and promoting year-round sports for boys and girls living in and around the village.

A decorated birthday cake from McLeod's bakery, a $6 load of wood, doors, oil drums, scales, car accessories, anti-freeze and quart of paint, and a voucher for a load of manure sold quickly. The inevitable kitchen sink was among the myriad donations.

The sale of farm produce, as usual, concluded the auction. Potatoes went for $2.25 a bag, McIntosh apples were $2.50 a bushel and other apples, at $2. and $1.75. In time for Halloween, three pumpkins brought $1.

Lions operating the indoor refreshments booth were constantly busy all afternoon. The Garden Centre, in charge of Lions Gordon Orr and George Harvey accounted for over $32 of the final profit. Daffodil, hyacinth, crocus tulip and narcissus bulbs were available. A nursery had donated an evergreen and among the popular perennials were canna lily and peony roots, shasta daisies, painted daisies, chrysanthemums and carnations.

Chairman of the auction, Jack Walkington, told "The Liberal" the Club would like to have the sale a little earlier in the Fall, but one of the difficulties was buying farm produce any sooner.

One lad was happy to buy the airman's brown leather helmet with built-in earphones. A washing jug and basin sold for $1 and books of knowledge, $3.

Rugs sold for $5.50 to $6.50; a pair of outdoor folding chairs, $3.25; a set of four window screens, 25 cents; and an adult almost-new blue quilted jacket for $2.75.

Items for the children sold easily — several pairs of skates, a bicycle, toboggans, sleds and clothing. A corduroy pair of boy's jeans valued over $3 went for 60 cents.

There were numerous pieces of furniture, chesterfields, kitchen and living-room chairs, couches and beds, mattresses, floor and table lamps, high chairs, cupboards, a china cabinet, and a pigeon-hole desk top. Lawn mowers sold up to $2.

Patterson of St. Matthew's United Church, Richmond Hill with the choir of Victoria Square United Church, supplying the music.

The flowers on the altar Sunday morning were placed there by Mr. and Mrs. J. Lamb and family in memory of a dear friend, Mrs. H. Wilson of Ulverston, England, who passed away last week as the result of an accident.

Congratulations to the young plowmen of our district who won awards for their achievements at the King-Vaughan plowing match last week. Among the winners were Ken O'Brien, Gordon O'Brien, Carl Diceman, Wayne Diceman and John Naylor.

Past, Present, Future, In Sod Turning Ceremony Teston United Church

A ceremony for the breaking of sod for the building of an addition to Teston United Church was held Sunday morning, October 25.

Led from the church by the Reverend Mr. Jenkinson and the choir, the congregation gathered at the rear of the church building where the proposed addition will be built. Mr. Frank Piercey, representing the board of stewards, opened the service asking for God's blessing on this undertaking.

The first sod was turned by Mrs. Peterman, oldest member of the congregation, and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bowen, lifelong members. These honoured senior citizens represented the proud past.

Mr. Charles Robson, Sunday School superintendent, spoke of the ministry of the Sunday School and its importance in leading the children to grow in Christian knowledge. Shirley Bowen and Donald Murray, representing the present, then turned the second sod after which ceremony Mr. Gordon Murray, a member of the session, spoke of the history of the Teston United Church which began in a log cabin in the year 1872. It was then known as Hadwen's Chapel and named for its first minister, Thomas Hadwen. A descendant of this pioneer gentleman, five year old Laurie Hadwen, with Marorie Diceman and Kim Mabely, descendants of two more pioneer families, turned the third sod to represent the future of this little church which has meant so much in the lives of many. Mr. J. Downey who will be in charge of the building operations plans to commence work immediately and with the help and encouragement of members of the church a dream will soon become a reality.

Oak Ridges, Lake Wilcox Socials

The regular monthly meeting of St. Paul's United W.A. was held at the church on October 20, when it was decided to adopt an African girl through the Christian Children's Fund. Africa is the country for study this year. The Christmas bazaar is uppermost in the ladies' minds at the moment.

Richard Duffield, student of Aurora High School and president of that school's United Nations' Group was guest speaker at the meeting. Richards' subject was Africa and he imparted to the ladies a great deal of information on that country, gained from a seminar he attended this past summer. The devotional period was taken by Mrs. F. Smith and Mrs. Wm. McDermott who was social convener for the evening.

A going-away party was held at the home of Mrs. Norm Burns, Elm Grove Avenue Thursday evening in honour of Mrs. Ruth Macfadden, who is leaving to take up residence in Regency Acres, Aurora. About 14 neighbours and friends were present, and the guest of honor was presented with a set of dishes for eight and an electric coffeemaker.

Lose Home In Fire
Last Thursday morning, shortly before noon, a disastrous fire rendered Miss Kate Foerter, of Elm Grove Ave., homeless. The house was almost totally destroyed and a pet dog perished in the blaze. Miss Foerter has been a resident of Oak Ridges for almost 26 years and is well known in the community. She is at present staying with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Foerter, Maplegrove Ave. Her many friends will be pleased to hear that her nephew Charles Gibson hopes to be able to build her a new home in the very near future. A neighbour, Mrs. Earl Lapelle noticed the blaze and summoned the Aurora Fire Brigade.

Laymen's Sunday
As one of the projects of the Men's Club of St. Mark's Anglican Church, Oak Ridges, a Special Laymen's Service was held on Sunday evening. Members of the Club under the jurisdiction of the Rector took part in the service. Invitations had been sent to St. John's Church and St. Paul's United. Members of both congregations were present headed up by the Rev. Gordon Winch and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Snieveley. Those who were privileged to assist in the service were Mr. Henry Knuckey, President of the Men's Club, St. Pauls and Messrs. Rickward, Lawrence and Achilles; the latter being the president of the St. Mark's Club.
