

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

The sympathy of the community is extended to Reeve John Perry and his wife, of Vaughan Township, on the sudden tragic death of Mr. Perry's nephew, William Douglas Maynard, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Maynard, of Woodbridge.

Interesting social events coming up this week, and are the York County Warden's banquet on Friday, and Richmond Masonic Lodge Ladies' Night on Saturday.

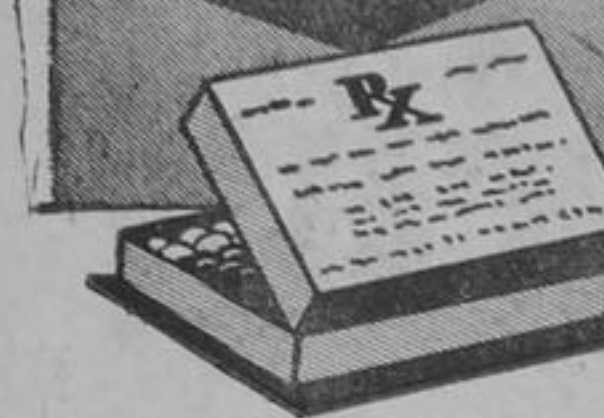

The regular meeting of the 3rd Richmond Hill Scout Group Ladies Auxiliary was held on Monday, November 2nd - with a good attendance. The meeting got under way with the arranging of a Christmas party for all the cubs and scouts. It was also planned to exchange Christmas gifts at the next meeting. After the meeting closed - a social half-hour followed together with a "Bake Auction" - at which all baked goods were sold to those present, who were also able to take home new recipes. In all, a pleasant evening was enjoyed by everyone.

Plans are well underway for "Blithe Spirit," the Curtain Club's fall play. At a production meeting Thursday night, director Steven Ker Appleby discussed lighting and stage crew problems with Dennison Featherstonhaugh and Doug Bells. The costume committee reported some difficulty in finding a "hot green or light blue chiffon dinner or evening dress which is essential for the leading lady. Producer Jan Myers reported that people working on production are looking forward to presenting the play in the High School Auditorium and are hoping this will encourage students to attend.

As a pleasant "break" in the evening club members listened to a recording of John Glieud's "Ages of Man," his recently successful one-man show on Broadway.

DON'T MISS BLITHE SPIRIT AT THE RICHMOND HILL HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM ON NOV. 25, 26, 27

Mrs. P. Dollery, Lennox Avenue, flew to Calgary by TCA on Wednesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. C. Kerr and new grandson.

Mrs. John Burr, former resident of Richmond Hill, now living in Mount Albert, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Trench, Church St.

Richmond Hill District High School held its annual Halloween masquerade dance on Friday of last week. It was well attended by several hundred "characters" in colourful, artistic, humorous and dramatic attire.

Lucky door prize winners at the double header hockey games played at the arena on Tuesday evening were 1st, Miss N. Brooker; 2nd, Roy Marinos; 3rd, Herb Clark; 4th, Jim Patterson, 5th, Charles Abram; 6th, Pete Donnelly; and 7th, Jerry Billerman.

The regular meeting of the local V.O.N. committee was held Wednesday evening. Encouraging reports were received on the recent canvass and Miss Woodbyrne V.O.N. nurse, reported an increasing demand for nursing assistance.

If you see a lot of sports cars around next Saturday morning, don't be surprised. The North Toronto Sports Club has obtained permission to use the Town Park as starting point for their annual fall rally.

On Wednesday, October 28, the cross by Heights Home and School Association held its monthly meeting with a large number of parents in attendance. Mr. Gooking, the principal, told how pleased he was with the response to the parents' interviews which have been held during the past week; and also gave some further information pertaining to the orchestra which is being formed in the school.

Mr. Buckingham introduced the speaker, Mr. Keith McLeod, who gave a very interesting discussion on UNESCO. A film "Jungle and the Plow" filmed in Ceylon showed the work that UNESCO is doing in some of the underprivileged countries of the world. A somewhat different game of "Name Bingo" was played and the evening closed with cookies and coffee.

The "Let's Get Acquainted" theme of next Wednesday's (November 11) Senior Citizens' Club meeting should make all the newcomers to Richmond Hill and strangers to the club feel thoroughly among friends before the afternoon program comes to an end. The Education Building of the United Church at Centre and Yonge streets is the familiar scene for this regular monthly meeting that begins at 2 o'clock, and closes with refreshments at four.

Results of a questionnaire on activities for the day centre will probably be discussed and times, allotted for cribbage, whist and the like, with perhaps a tournament arranged.

The enthusiastic choir, (under Mrs. Powell) and sewing group, (headed by Mrs. Bowes) already meet once a week in the day centre. Plans for the Christmas party concert-party will be made at this meeting too.

Thanks to the members of the Inner Wheel of the Rotary Club transportation may be arranged for those who need it by telephoning Mrs. Charles Harding at TU. 4-1270.

Plans for the "Workshop" for District Council No. 12 of the Canadian Cancer Society are now complete. Christ Church, Brampton, on Wednesday, November 18, will indeed, be a busy place. There, the very first Workshop held by District Council 12 will be held. Mrs. G. Purves, Unionville, Council President, will preside. Mr. M. Grimes, Executive Secretary and Mr. L. McFarlane, Field Secretary, will make the opening addresses. Group discussions will follow, led by the Ontario Division Chairmen of the standing committees. These will relate to Women's Services, Education, Extension, Campaign etc. in fact all phases of the Cancer Society.

The highlight of the meeting will be the noon luncheon, Dr. O. H. Warwick, Senior Physician and Deputy Director of the Princess Margaret Hospital has accepted an invitation to be guest speaker. Dr. Warwick is outstanding in his field of endeavour. District Council is, indeed, fortunate in having him on this occasion at Brampton.

District Council No. 12 is a large area, extending from Halton on the west to east of Aurora and Richmond Hill. We hope that every unit and every branch will be represented at this first workshop. There will be a charge of $1.00 for the luncheon which is being catered for by the Ladies' Service Group of Christ Church. Everybody interested in the work of the Cancer Society is welcome to attend. Reservations may be made by contacting your local campaign captain or Mrs. Gordon Purves, Unionville, phone 239, or Mrs. Ingimundson, AV. 5-1010.

The Afternoon Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Mary's Anglican Church held their regular meeting on Tuesday, November 3rd. Convenors were appointed for the annual bazaar which is to be held on December 5th. Many very attractive articles were brought in, some of which were really very unusual. Mrs. G. A. Preston was the hostess for the afternoon.

While staying with friends in the Hill, Mrs. Angus Mowat sustained a painful back injury, caused by a fall on the stairs. She is now resting satisfactorily in St. Michael's Hospital, and "The Liberal" joins with her many friends in wishing her a speedy recovery. Mrs. Mowat, a former resident of the Hill now lives at Port Hope.

At Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning, Robert John, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Frater of 39 Starlight Crescent received the sacrament of baptism, and in the afternoon Mark Donald, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilson, 218 Ashlar Road. Both children were also presented with New Testaments from the Sunday School.

Mr. Alex McConaghy, B.A., A.I.A.; F.A.S.; and Mrs. McConaghy visited with relations in Toronto and Richmond Hill for several days last week. Mr. McConaghy is Actuary for the Home Beneficial Life Insurance Company Inc. of Richmond, Virginia, U.S.A.

The members of the Women's Institute will be interested to know that the November meeting is to be an illustrated lecture from the Bell Telephone. Mrs. B. Cook is the convener of Agriculture and Canadian Industry. A cordial welcome awaits anyone who is interested on Thursday, November 12, at 2 p.m. in the Municipal Hall.

Last Thursday evening, the Sugar and Spice Club met at the home of Mrs. Mac Clement, Mill Street. The members were attired in Halloween costumes while they enjoyed, as usual, their three tables of cards. Winners were Mrs. W. Turner, Mrs. A. Blackburn and Mrs. E. Lambert. Hostesses of the evening were Mrs. L. Wainwright and Mrs. A. Blackburn.

Leanna Swanson, the seven year old freckle-faced, towheaded daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Swanson of 90 Crosby Avenue, Richmond Hill, Ontario has the poise of an actress. When notified that she'd not only won a free trip to famous Disneyland for herself and her parents, but a bonus award of one thousand dollars as well - she thanked them very politely.

It was her mother who screamed! Richmond Hill's happiest family will be leaving on Monday, November 9th for Disneyland via a plane. The two youngest children Linda, four, and Jimmy, three, will be left in good hands and may make the trip in later years, Mr. and Mrs. Swanson say.

Leanna is the second winner of five national "Sleeping Beauty" contests. Her entry was judged best in the completion of the last two lines of a jingle about Disneyland.

A Halloween party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bustin, Mill St., Tuesday evening, October 27, for their new friends at one of the approved homes in Newmarket. A very successful evening of fun and games was had under the very excellent leadership of Mrs. Barbara Townsend-Carter, assisted by Mrs. V. Zuck, Mrs. P. Bean, Mrs. Clare Moore and Mrs. Clare Urstein, Volunteers of the White Cross. This is a project of the York County Branch of the Canadian Mental Health Association.

October baptisms at St. Mary's Anglican Church: David John Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Devell; Judy Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Yule; Carla Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Ground; Elaine Roberta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Gallant; Jacqueline Ann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Scott; Jennifer Susan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brian H. King; and Glenn Arthur, Steven Edward and Valerie Jean, children of Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Taylor, all of Richmond Hill.

The W. A. of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church held their regular meeting Monday night and plans for a very busy November were made, starting with the Carnival Bazaar on Saturday, November 7th at 3 p.m. There will be a congregational buffet supper to be held in the lower hall on November 19th at 7 p.m. Tickets can be had from members of the W. A. or Mrs. B. Tyson, TU. 4-2432. At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served under the convener'ship of Mrs. J. Trew.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. V. J. O'Malley, Yonge St. is at present in Sunnybrook Hospital, Mr. O'Malley is the Federal Government Representative for the Veterans Land Act for Markham and Vaughan Townships. "The Liberal" joins with his many friends, who hope to see him out and around again very soon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Blackburn, of Yongehurst Road, left on Monday for a four day trip to New York, where they will be staying at the Park Sheridan Hotel, while attending the Annual Restaurant Commercial Equipment Show.

Beatniks, Nero and his harem, a sheik, 1920 swimmer, complete with inner tube, a cigarette girl, a chinese coolie and cavemen were among the ill assorted guests who gathered together on Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kirkpatrick, Kerrybrook Drive to join in the fun at a Halloween party. Following games and dancing, a tasty buffet supper was served.

An entertaining evening was spent on Sunday when several members of the Curtain Club attended the University Alumnae Dramatic Club's presentation of Ivan Turgenev's "A Month in the Country."

Robert Peace, who won the Best Actor award for the lead role in "Clerambard," the Curtain Club's winning entry in the Central Ontario Drama Festival, gives a delightful performance as Bolshevik, an elderly suitor.

The election of officers for the Richmond Hill High School Home and School Association will be taking place Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the auditorium. All parents of high school students are invited to attend.

The Richmond Hill Curling Club held a very successful meeting on Tuesday evening in the Richmond Hill High School auditorium. One hundred and fifteen members were present, and ten new members signed up.

Two interesting and instructional movies on curling were shown, and will be repeated at the opening of the new club building on December 1. The executive expects the building to be open on the above date as they are progressing very satisfactorily, part of the machinery, the electricity and some of the refrigeration tubing for the rink floor, having already been installed.

The November 3rd program of the 1st Beverley Acres Scout Troop included the beginning of a Fireman Badge course, a couple of wild and strenuous games. Patrol leaders held their monthly Court of Honour with Scouter Norm Foster present as advisor. Scout Ian McAlister was invested with his father present to lend the scouters a hand. Mr. McAlister presented Ian with his scout buttonhole badge to be worn when not in uniform. He explained that the two five pointed stars symbolized the ten scout laws, while the three points of the fleur-de-lis reminds you of the three points of the scout promise. The troop wished Ian the best of luck in scouting.

TRUSTEE L. D. CLEMENT
Mr. Lewis D. Clement has announced that he will be a candidate for re-election to the Public School Board of Richmond Hill for the term 1960 and 1961. Mr. Clement has given four years of service to school board affairs, for the past year as the board's chairman. During this time he has given leadership in helping to solve the problems of providing a sound educational system in a rapidly growing area.

Mr. Clement has been a resident of Richmond Hill for eight years during which two of his children have been graduated from the local public schools. There are two younger children, one in public school, the other a pre-schooler. Previous to giving service on the school board, Mr. Clement was one of the prime movers in getting a Home and School Association organized here and was its first president. He is an Electrical Engineer with the Ontario Hydro Electric Power Commission in the System Planning department.

The Blithe Spirit Appears

Ron Solloway, Wanda Trott, Margaret Bergin, and Cicely Thomson are seen participating in an unusual scene during the Curtain Club's production of "Blithe Spirit" in which they "conjure" up Mary Monks (the Blithe Spirit). The play will be presented at the Richmond Hill High School Auditorium on November 25, 26 and 27.

In Memoriams

GRAHAM - In loving memory of our dear daughter Betty, who passed away November 9, 1957.

From our happy home and circle God has taken one we love; Borne away from sin and sorrow To a better home above.

- Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by Mother, Dad, Jean, Grace, Bill and Aunt Agnes. *1w19

LEE - In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Lillian Lapp Lee, who passed away November 4, 1950.

Those whom we love go out of sight, But never out of mind; They are cherished in the hearts Of those they leave behind.

Loving and kind in all her ways, Upright and just to the end of her days; Sincere and true in heart and mind, Beautiful memories she left behind.

- Always remembered by her husband Frederick and her family, Doreen, Herbert and Cummer. clw19

ESPEY, Bessie - In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, who passed away November 10, 1955.

Beautiful memories, cherished ever, Of happy days we had together, Silent thoughts bring many a tear For one we miss and loved most dear.

O happy hours we once enjoyed How sweet their memory still, But death has left a loneliness The world can never fill.

- Ever remembered by husband Lester and family. clw19

Teen Town

RICHMOND HILL
It's time once again for Teen Town next Saturday night. Get yourself in something casual but no jeans boys, and come on out and have a real fling. There will be dancing to the latest records, and there are terrific prizes. Speaking of prizes we will be giving the trophies for the jiving contest to the winners, Marg Scott and Stan Lewis. Special entertainment will be provided by the Richmond Hill dancing majorettes and the Emeralds and their guitars will be back with some lively "Rock and Roll".
