Attended Conference Police Chief Had Pleasant Trip To The Canadian West

ROBERT P. ROBBINS, the Chief Constable of Richmond Hill has now returned from Western Canada where he has been enjoying a holiday and during which he attended the Federal Conference of Canadian Chief Constables.

Chief Robbins says that he has had a thoroughly good time. He travelled throughout by car and was accompanied by Mrs. Robbins and his four children, Ronald, aged 9, Linda aged 7, David aged 5 and Kim aged 3.

Chief Constables Conference
During the period of the family's travels a total of 5,700 miles was covered including the return journey.

The Chief Constables Conference was held on the 13th, 14th and 15th of September at the Hotel Saskatchewan in Regina. Guest host was Chief Constable Cookson of Regina.

Asked what the Conference talked about, Chief Robbins replied, "just about everything under the sun." Problems of interest to towns right across Canada were discussed and altogether it was an excellent and useful meeting said the Chief Constable.

Good Speakers, Dinners
The conference was specially favoured by the quality of the guest speakers who addressed the chief constables gathered there, there were some fine dinners enjoyed by all concerned and a highlight of the conference was a visit by all the chiefs to the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Training Depot in Regina.

Children "No Trouble"
Mrs. Robbins and the children enjoyed the trip also. The children were no trouble at all and Chief Robbins and his wife kept up the children's interest with a variety of novel games. For example they would enjoy ever so much the daily drawing of lots to decide who would occupy which seats, the regular breaks for roadside picnics, the fruit juices and cookies served en-route, the occasional halts for exercise when the children would enjoy a romp with the parents, the daily surprises when the parents bought at stores along the route little presents for the children.

1960 Miles - Three Days
They covered the 1,960 miles to Regina from Richmond Hill without haste and in three days and enjoyed every minute of it. They always made an early start in the morning—usually getting away by 6 a.m. "Since my last visit vacant after World War 11" said Chief Robbins, "there have been big changes across Manitoba. The changes of scenery along the route were terrific said Chief Robbins. It was never boring because of these changes which ranged through the whole gamut of picturesque scenes from areas of rocky and barren looking land to the flat countryside of the prairie and the wooded lands and the oilfields. It was a journey which presented a kaleidoscope of Canadian life.

Great Changes in Manitoba
The greatest changes were in Manitoba. "Since my last visit right after World War 11" said Chief Robbins, "there have been big changes across Manitoba. The changes of scenery along the route were terrific said Chief Robbins. It was never boring because of these changes which ranged through the whole gamut of picturesque scenes from areas of rocky and barren looking land to the flat countryside of the prairie and the wooded lands and the oilfields. It was a journey which presented a kaleidoscope of Canadian life.

He was identified with the United Farmers of Ontario movement and served as president of the organization, and was UFO candidate in North York in the 1925 general election when the late T. Herbert Lennox defeated Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, then Prime Minister of Canada.

Mr. Burnaby took no active part in politics after the election and for many years was Maritime Trade Commissioner in Toronto. He is survived by his widow, two daughters and one son.
