ELGIN MILLS-JEFFERSON NEWS

Correspondent: The Evening Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. John's Anglican Church
TU. 4-2708 TU. 4-1534

Don't forget Parents' Night at the Jefferson Public School tonight Thursday, November 5th. The school children enjoyed an hour of skating last week at the Richmond Hill arena provided by the Jefferson Community Club.

On Friday afternoon all the classes and their Halloween parties. The classrooms were all decorated with ghosts, goblins, pumpkins etc. for the occasion and some of the pupils were in costume. Many thanks to Mr. Follott of the Summit Restaurant who treated all the school children to ice cream and to Miss A. Leary who gave them candies.

The Community Club supplied pop and cookies to all the classes with the exception of the senior room who will be entertained by the Club at a square dance on November 13th.

On Wednesday, November 11th there will be no school. Birthday Greetings Many happy returns of the day to Darrell Richards and Billie Powell on November 7th, to Victor Follott and David Hanson on the 8th, to Bruce Miller, Kathy Ratchford, Janice Burnett, Judy Knappett and Donnie Kurise on the 9th and to Paul Dodson on the 11th.

Jefferson School Community Club There was a good turnout at the October Women's meeting last Wednesday night at the school. This year the ladies' project is making a quilt and they were all busy working while they chatted with their neighbours. At the suggestion of the teachers, room mothers were chosen for each classroom. For Miss Kerfoot's room, Mrs. E. Ford was appointed, for Miss Mott's, Mrs. T. Thompson, for Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. D.

McDowell, for Mrs. Burns, Mrs. H. Hallgren and for Miss Leary's Mrs. C. Ratchford. The ladies were reminded about the annual bazaar to be held this week (See Coming Events for time and place). Tea tickets for the bazaar were distributed - each ticket gives one a chance on the handsome door prizes as well as enjoying a cup of tea and cookies. Anyone wishing further information call Mrs. R. Browne at TU. 4-4248, Mrs. R. Butler at TU. 4-3316 or Mrs. E. A. Terry at TU. 4-3008.

The first square dance of the season was held at the school on Friday night with Carson Whalen in his usual good form "calling off" Mrs. G. Patton and Mr. W. Cole provided live music for some of the dances. Prizes for costumes were won by Mr. Don Cole, Miss M. Proctor, Mrs. H. G. Robertson and Mrs. G. Patton. Sympathy The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of late Aubrey M. Nicol, a life long resident of Elgin Mills who passed away suddenly last Thursday, October 29th.

Condolences also to Mrs. Norman Cook of the B. P. Service Station at Elgin Mills on the death of his mother last week. Neighbourhood Notes One of our local residents, Mona Robertson (Mrs. Hal Robertson) of Brookside Road, has announced she will be a candidate for the new area school board for Vaughan Township. Nomination day, November 16.

Wonderful the way neighbours came to your assistance when in trouble. Last Thursday evening Sheila Ratchford could not be located by her family. Within a very short time after the alarm was given, most of the men and boys on Brookside Road were out looking for her to be joined later in the evening by Vaughan Township, Markham Township, Richmond Hill and Provincial Police. The Richmond Hill Fire Brigade and men from all over the district.

We are pleased to report a happy ending to the frantic searching when little Sheila was found safe at home, asleep in a cupboard. Well Hallowe'en, that very special and long anticipated occasion, second in importance only to Christmas for most children, is over for another year, but happy memories remain with the youthful masqueraders who went "shelling out." Early in the evening the streets were filled with ghosts, gypsies, princesses, tramps, etc. with their bags or baskets filled with treats, thanks to all their kindly neighbours.

These days Mr. and Mrs. W. Bell are enjoying visits from quite a few of their friends who drop in to see how Mrs. Bell is. They do appreciate these visitors helping pass the time. 1st Jefferson Cubs Scouts Brownies and Guides There is to be a church parade on Sunday, November 8th to St. John's Anglican Church, Yonge at Jefferson, for the 11 a.m. Morning Prayer service. Will parents please try to have the boys and girls at the church by 10:50 a.m.

Don't forget the euchre next week. (See coming events) sponsored by Mothers' Auxiliary in aid of the building fund for the new Scouting headquarters to be erected in 1960. Our new guide pack was so pleased to learn their guide leader, Mrs. Retzer, is able to carry on. They are a very eager group and so happy to have such an enthusiastic captain.

St. John's Church News The Afternoon Branch of the W. A. are industriously working on a quilt to be offered for sale at their bazaar on November 18th. See Coming Events for time and place. This is the first quilting to be done in the new parish hall. At the dedication of the parish hall last week there were quite a few people there who used to be members of the church years ago. Among those present were Mrs. W. R. Capell, Mrs. O. Freer, Mrs. Fred Legge, Miss Bessie Legge, Mrs. J. W. Douglas, Graham McCutcheon, Shelburne, Mrs. and Mrs. J. Barry, Thornhill, Mrs. Foulkes and Miss Olive Foulkes, Mr. and Mrs. C. Rumble and Mr. and Mrs. Witherspoon, all of Toronto. Other former members present who have only recently left the district were Mr. and Mrs. A. Morrison and Miss Grace Hobbs of Toronto. There were representatives from many of the surrounding parishes. In the procession when the Lord Bishop of Toronto, the Right Rev. F. H. Wilkinson dedicated the parish hall were the Rev. J. Rhodes, Newmarket, the rural dean, Dr. R. Armitage, new rector of Maple and former principal of Wycliffe College, Toronto, Dr. J. Abbott and the Rev. J. W. Newton-Smith of St. Gabriels, Richmond Hill. Other clergy present were the Rev. J. Morley, Richmond Hill, the Rev. R. Symons of Schomberg and the Rev. Bishop, rector of St. Hilda's, Toronto. Members of the congregation will be so happy to learn Miss H. Boothman is able to be out. She visited Mrs. G. Kerswell last week.

Socials Miss Judy Kerwin attended a party on Friday night at Margaret and David Sorenson's in Toronto and had a wonderful time. Mr. and Mrs. Donald McFee and family of Hillsburg visited the Archie McFees on Sunday.
