 Mrs. D. Goulding was hostess at a birthday celebration last week when the guests of honor were Mrs. W. Bell and Mrs. I. Peterson. Others present were Mrs. E. Hall, Mrs. E. Gamble and Mrs. L. Clubine.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Darker, Mrs. E. Locke, Mrs. J. Pike and Mrs. A. Locke stayed a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. B. Locke.

John McFee recently visited John Salsnek in his new home on Sheppard Avenue. The Salsneks moved from the district just a short time ago.

Lyn and David Jack of Islington spent the weekend with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waters.

Mrs. Forest Snell and her mother Mrs. Healey left on Monday for New Smyrna Beach, Florida.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Irvin who have taken up residence at Elgin Mills. Mr. Irvin conducts Thornhill Sales and Boarding Stables at Mariday Farm.

Mrs. R. Williams was hostess to the Monday Nighters this week when they enjoyed an evening of euchre. The prize winners were: Mrs. E. Gamble, Mrs. R. Williams, Mrs. E. Hall and Mrs. R. Kerwin.

1st Jefferson Cubs, Brownies, Scouts and Guides
 The Mothers' Auxiliary will hold a meeting at the school on Tuesday, November 17th when the speaker of the evening will be Mrs. Banks of the Richmond Hill Gift Shop, who will demonstrate gift wrapping and the tying of bows - very timely with Christmas not far off. Come and bring a friend. There will be a lucky draw, and refreshments.

A sixers' conference was held last Saturday at the Markham United Church and four boys, Ronny Saul, Dennis Gamble, Carlo Cappy and Cornelius Sommers, attended the meeting.

Birthday Greetings
 Many happy returns of the day to Jeannie Corbin, to Andrea Goulding on the 16th and Chuckie Morris on the 17th.

Jefferson School Community Club
 A successful bazaar was held last Saturday at the school. There was home baking, white elephants and aprons, all three tables reporting complete sell-outs. The tea tables did a rushing business also.

One of the features of the afternoon was the draw for the door prizes. Miss A. Leary drew the names and the lucky winners were Mr. Douglas Hillaby, Mrs. C. Knappett and Miss P. Graden.

On behalf of the Community Club Mrs. S. Leno, wife of the Chairman of the School Board, made a presentation to Mrs. A. Morrison in appreciation of all Mr. and Mrs. Morrison did for the club while living here.

The executive thank everyone who helped to make the bazaar such a success with special mention to Mr. C. Hanson for the lovely flowers for the tearoom and to all the ladies who worked so hard Saturday afternoon.

St. John's Church News
 The Evening Branch of the Women's Auxiliary will hold a meeting at the parish hall on this evening, Thursday, November 12th at 8.30 p.m.

The fall Deanery meeting was held at St. Mary's Parish Hall in Richmond Hill on Wednesday, November 4th. The Diocesan President, Mrs. S. Snively, said a few words about the United Thank-Offering service to be held the 5th of November at St. James Cathedral.

The Rev. E. A. Tomlinson, who has spent 9 years in Ethiopia with the Sudan Interior Mission, was the special speaker. He illustrated his talk with slides of his work in Africa, giving a vivid picture of the life of a missionary in that part of the world.

The Evening Branches of the Deanery were hostesses at this meeting. Mrs. C. R. Wilcox, Mrs. S. Snively, Mrs. J. Passmore and Mrs. E. Terry attended from St. John's.

The 1st Jefferson Cubs Scouts, Brownies and Guides paraded on Sunday to the morning service. In the colour party were Cornelius Sommers, Fred Waters, Douglas Greig and Carlo Cappy.

Don't forget the bazaar and rummage sale, sponsored by the Afternoon W. A., to be held at the parish hall next week. See Coming Events for time and date.

School News
 There was a splendid turnout at Parents' Night held at the Jefferson Public School on Thursday, November 5th. The work displayed in all the rooms was of a high calibre and most parents expressed satisfaction at the progress being made by their children.

Most of the visitors, after completing their tour of the rooms, went to the teachers' room for a cup of tea and cookies, served by Mrs. Stanley Leno.

On November 13th the senior room and last year's graduates will be entertained by the Community Club with a square dance at the school.
