

Canada Is Heaven On Earth Says Speaker To Richmond Hill Jaycees

THE JUNIOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE (Richmond Hill) held its regular dinner meeting at the Summit View Restaurant last Thursday. As it was one of the membership participation nights, the speaker was the Chamber's treasurer Jaycee Brian Longbottom who spoke on "Canadianism". To promote more interest in Canada and Canadian affairs is one of the objects of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Jaycee Longbottom said that the average immigrant family is generally proud when they obtain Canadian citizenship. He compared the interest of the New Canadian in civic and other community interests to the rather apathetic display of the born Canadian which is so often the case, regretfully.

Land of Opportunity
He declared that facts and figures about Canada well supported that this country could still prove the immigrants dream of a land of opportunity and even "Heaven on Earth."

Jaycee Leon Lambert, himself a New Canadian, thanked the speaker with the assurance that

The Junior Chamber of Commerce would continue to keep these facts before the public.

Christmas Auction
Ted Duffy spoke on the Jaycees' Christmas Auction to be broadcast over the local radio on the evening of November 25th. Jaycee Duffy congratulated the local businessmen who had generously supported the project with numerous gifts which would ensure the auction's success as a part of the "Shop Locally" drive organised by the Jaycees.

Fourteen New Members
An induction ceremony followed these addresses and fourteen new members were enrolled officially as members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. This was a satisfactory result of the recent drive for new members conducted by the Chamber. The new members who were made welcome, were Peter Coppin; Cec Bolton; Ed Davidson; Don MacLennan; Clayton Miner; Glen Phillip; Gord Trussler; Jim Airth; Ralph DeForest; Jim Featherstone; Don Paton; John Schaeffer; Sandy Smith; and Bob Fountain. All the new members are enrolled in the Public Speaking Course and Business Administration and are serving on various community betterment committees.

Open Invitation
The next dinner meeting at the same rendezvous will be held November 19th (Thursday at 7 p.m.) and interested potential members should attend or may contact Jaycee Lindsay Christie at TU. 4-3777 for further information.

Big Sale Next Week At Bayview Plaza

THE MERCHANTS AND BUSINESSMEN OF BAYVIEW PLAZA on Bayview at North Taylor Mills are co-operating together next week to entertain their customers over a period of three days during which a number of exciting events will occur.

Many Free Gifts
Every merchant is giving a prize and the events will include a beauty contest for Richmond Hill's third "Queen" as well as something for the children, a lucky draw and the Majorettes on Parade. Prominent citizens have agreed to participate and on Saturday, the last day a "Royal" tour will be organized starting and finishing at the plaza and with all three queens participating.

Miss Richmond Hill
Next year a "Miss Yonge Street" will be elected in another contest and from the four queens the town will then have a "Miss Richmond Hill" will be elected. Naturally Yonge Street and all the shopping plazas will co-operate to present all the queens as attractively and lovely as possible and the event will be an exciting climax to the series of contests which have been held this year.

Successful Indoor Parade
Although it is late in the year for a beauty contest it was found last week to work quite successfully on the Richmond Heights Plaza where the participants were presented before the judges within a store. The entrants parade in the store window where the public can see them without difficulty while the girls parading in one piece swim suits never go outside the centrally heated store, thus there is no risk of catching cold. This is how the contest will be organised on the Bayview Plaza with the large window of the Bayview Outlet Store acting as stage.

No Worries About Weather
So you may enter the contest girls without the slightest qualms about the weather. Come to the plaza and report to the Outlet Store wearing a one piece bathing suit under your ordinary dress. You will be able to disrobe in the privacy of the stores dressing rooms (it is a ladies wear store) and to dress there after the judging.

Last Contest This Year
This will be the last contest this year so it is a last opportunity for a lucky girl to capture a crown and a load of prizes. Many girls who read the reports of the many presents received by first "Miss Allencourt" and then by "Miss Richmond Heights" must have been envious of their good fortune. But here is still another opportunity with if anything even more and lovelier prizes than ever before.

Age Limit 15-25 Years
The contest is open to all girls aged 15 to 25 whether married or single. If you are a lucky winner you will hardly need to buy any presents this Christmas - you will receive so many gifts as queen or runner up.
The stores will offer specials during these three exciting days and will specially be glad to lay-away any gift you wish to buy for Christmas or New Year. Make a small deposit to reserve your gifts at bargain prices during these three days. All participating stores will be exhibiting the special "Layaway Sale" banner. Make a point of patronizing those for best results.

Details Next Week
For further and full details of the three day events make sure of your copy of "The Liberal" next week as early Thursday morning as possible.
Enter now girls and take your chance of some wonderful presents absolutely free of charge.
