

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Mrs. and Mrs. W. H. Purvis, Bridgeport St. are in Kansas City this week, attending the four day conference of the National Association of Photo Lithographers.

Mrs. Mel Dalley and Mr. and Mrs. D. MacWilliam have returned from Sault Ste. Marie, called there by the sudden death of their relative, the late, Mr. James A. Depev.

The many friends of Mrs. Angus Mowat will be pleased to hear that she expects to be leaving St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, within the course of the next few days, for her home in Port Hope.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of the late Herbert Boyle, who passed away at York County Hospital, Newmarket, on Saturday evening, after suffering a stroke early Friday morning.

Mr. Ivan Peterson, genial owner of Pete's Snack Bar, North Yonge Street advertises a novel method of securing publicity for his "Giant Burgers." Presentation of his advertisement appearing in this week's "Liberal," secures a 35c Giant Burger, absolutely free.

The Women's Missionary Society of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church held their November meeting at the home of Mrs. Milton Savage Sr. Despite a very wet day there was a good turnout of members. The mite boxes were received. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by the hostess.

Tonight Thursday, November 19th promises to be a very interesting evening for the members of the Beverley Acres Home and School Association. Miss Joan Robbins, School nurse of the York County Health Unit will outline the School Health programme and a member of the school staff, Mr. Jim Morrison will present a gymnastic display. A social half hour with refreshments will complete the evenings entertainment.

2 ways to feel good...
give a portrait—the truly personal gift... the one gift that only you can give... a gift that's always appreciated because it's a little bit of you.
give a portrait gift certificate—always in good taste... and always sincere... the nicest way to say "I want a portrait of you."
For your portrait, for a gift certificate, drop in soon.

LAGERQUIST STUDIO
63 YONGE ST. S. RICHMOND HILL TU. 4-2791
Avoid The Christmas Rush

BABY RULES THE ROOST
He's "Head Man" at your house and that's why baby is important to us, too. We give your baby's prescription especially good care and attention. Baby "Rules The Roost" here... just as at home... for he's still the most important customer that we have... and we know it.

Clarke's Pharmacy
For Complete Drug Service
Phone TU. 4-1201
Richmond Hill

Sheila Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Yotoff, Concord, Ontario, received the Sacrament of infant baptism at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on Sunday afternoon, November 15th. Sheila was also presented with a New Testament from the Sunday School.

Not enough time to bake a Christmas cake? If so, the local Civitan Club may be able to help you. They are raising funds for charity by selling special Christmas cake on a door to door campaign. The cause is good and so are the cakes! Further information may be obtained by phoning, TU. 4-4939 or TU. 4-2203.

The 1st Beverley Acres Scout Troop, on November 17th, finished up their Fireman Badge Course with a trip to the Richmond Hill Fire Hall. In the absence of Fire Chief Alf Stong, fireman "Curly" Lynett gave the boys and leaders, a very informal but informative talk on the dangers of fire and what to do if faced with such an experience. Following this tour, the group committee brought the boys back to troop head quarters where they helped the scouts examine the troop on the badge. The results were better than 70%.

All Crosby Heights parents are welcome to this month's Home and School Association meeting to be held in the school auditorium on Wednesday, November 25th at 8.15 p.m. A well planned evening has been arranged by the programme committee. A film of great interest to parents, "The Age of Turmoil" will be shown. A panel consisting of Mrs. Grace Jackson, Dr. Nazaryk, Nurse J. Robbins, Teacher, Mr. Fred Browning and parent, Mr. James Haggart will discuss the film and answer questions.

Richmond Hill Kinettes held a business meeting at the Yangtze Pagoda on Wednesday, November 11th. Guest was Mrs. Faye Weiss of North York Kinettes. The Kinettes will this year buy Christmas gifts for patients in mental hospitals and will also be sponsoring the March of Dimes Campaign in January 1960.

Final plans for their annual Tea, Bake Sale and Bazaar were made and this is shaping up to be fun for all mothers and children. There will be bazaar items, home-made candy home baking, fish pond, white elephants. A farewell party was held at the home of Gail Methe for Patty Mathers, who is leaving with her family on Friday for Victoria, British Columbia. The party, which was a complete surprise to Patty, was attended by twenty four guests, who during the course of the evening, presented the guest of honour with an ever-night travelling bag. Games and dancing were enjoyed, followed by delicious refreshments. The "Liberal" joins with the many friends of the Mathers family, in wishing them every success in their new environment.

CANADIAN CANCER SOCIETY
Richmond Hill & District Unit
For information call
Richmond Hill TU. 4-1229
TU 4-3463 AV. 5-4825
Thornhill AV. 5-1602
AV. 5-1742
Maple 247W
AV. 5-2406
Unionville 239

DEPT. OF HEALTH
Infant Emergencies
During infancy emergencies may occur when prompt action on the part of an adult could be life-saving.
In case of severe CHOKING:
(1) Hold the baby head down, by his feet and ankles, and pat him on the back.
(2) If the above fails, put your index finger between his tongue and the roof of his mouth to bring the tongue forward and allow a better airway.
(3) If choking persists take the baby to your doctor or to the emergency department of your nearest hospital.
First of a series of articles
CARL E. HILL, M.D., M.O.E.

Can You Count On Safe Stops?
Good brakes are a "must" for safe stops. Have the peace of mind of being 100% brakewise. Come in for a brake check. If needed we'll reline and adjust them.

COOK'S BP
Auto Service
Complete Service To All Makes of Cars
ELGIN MILLS
TU. 4-3151

The Kinettes of Richmond Hill have been noted in the past for their honest to goodness efforts in fund raising projects, so don't miss their Bazaar and Bake Sale, at the Masonic Hall, Crosby and Bedford Park Avenues, this Saturday, November 21st. Bring your friends along, and not only pick up a few bargains for Christmas, but enjoy a quiet cup of tea in some very pleasant company.

On Sunday morning last the Sacrament of Baptism was observed in St. Matthew's United Church. The following children were baptized: Karen Leone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Marshall, 453 Balkan Rd., James Hillton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Canning, 446 Balkan Rd. Carol Anne, and James Alan, children of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Barker, 158 Maple Ave.

The regular meeting of the 1st Richmond Hill Scout Mothers Auxiliary met Wednesday, November 11th at the Municipal Hall. Following a short business meeting Mrs. Ruth gave a demonstration on gift wrapping which was greatly enjoyed by all. The next meeting will be the pot luck supper being held in the home of the President, Mrs. Norman Todd. A social half hour followed and lunch was served.

On Tuesday, November 10th, Mrs. Ruth Banks gave a very interesting gift wrapping demonstration to more than 60 members and friends of the W. A. of St. Gabriel's Anglican Church. Mrs. Marjorie Harriman won the door prize, and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

The W. A. held a short business meeting prior to the demonstration. Their next meeting will be on Tuesday, November 24th, at which time, elections will be held, and study slides of Africa shown.

St. Mary's Catholic Women's League, Richmond Hill held their regular monthly meeting on Monday, November 9th at Our Lady Help of Christians School at Beverley Acres. The President Mrs. Mary Henderson opened the meeting with a prayer and then introduced Col. McKamuish, Vice President of the Ontario Division Blood Donor Service. Col. McKamuish gave a very interesting talk on the history of blood donor clinics. A film shown by Mr. Goodfellow followed, emphasizing the many uses and the great need for blood clinics sponsored on behalf of the Red Cross. Final plans were also completed for the coming Bridge, Euchre and Turkey Draw to be held at Our Lady Help of Christians School, Beverley Acres.

Yonge St. Lights For Christmas
In preparation for the Christmas season hundreds of brightly colored lights were turned on in the Yonge Street business section this week. The main street will be really dressed up for the festive season and in keeping with decorations merchants have shelves well stocked with good things for Christmas.

"Discipline for a Democratic Society" is the topic on which Mrs. Harry Johnson, M. A. Supervisor of Parent Education Institute of Child Study, University of Toronto will speak to-night, Thursday, November 19th, Mrs. Johnson, guest speaker at the November meeting of the Walter Scott Home and School Association will outline a plan of discipline designed for guiding children to make their own decisions, to teach them how to think, other than what to think as preparation for living in a rapidly changing world.
A question period will also feature this meeting, to which members are asked to bring along their friends to this very interesting meeting. Refreshments will be served.

This being November the W. I. President, Mrs. Sanderson opened the meeting, held last Thursday, November 12th, with a Remembrance Day poem, followed later by two minutes silence and one verse of "Oh Canada." The treasurer, Mrs. Dahl had several bills to present, a Remembrance Day wreath, a High School prize, gift magazines to England, and the secretary's brief case.
The W. I. received an invitation from the Library board to hold its meetings in the MacLaren auditorium at the Library. The members were pleased to accept. The custom of sending Christmas gifts to the folks in York Manor is to be continued this year. Include a short description on the outside to help in the distribution. This being world refugee year, it was decided to send $25 to assist in getting those people a better way of life. The Convener of this meeting was Mrs. B. Cook. She introduced two young men from the Bell Telephone Co. who brought us an interesting and instructive film. They showed the towers and transmitters that are required to send messages across Canada.
Mrs. Pollard read the comprehensive report of the W. I. Area Convention held at the Royal York. Mrs. Dewsbury, the delegate who prepared the report was unable to be present. The W. I. are pleased to report three new members. The meeting closed with a social half hour, the hostesses being Mrs. W. Sayers, Mrs. R. Cooper, Mrs. G. Paterson and Mrs. A. Pattenden.

Mrs. Mona Robertson, Associate Editor of the Liberal is today attending the Canadian Women's Press Club cocktail party and buffet supper, held at the Lord Simcoe Hotel, Guest speaker for the evening will be Oakley Dalgleish, Editor and Publisher, who has just returned from a trip to the Orient.

Anne Stephenson returned from New York on Sunday for an appearance at the Granite Club Tuesday night.

This Sunday afternoon, November 22, Anne will be guest soloist with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra, when Walter Susskind will conduct.
Among the numbers Anne will sing are: "Mi Chilan Amo Mimi" from "La Boheme" by Puccini; "Airdellia Le Enfante Prodigue" by De Bussy; "Song to the Moon" by Dvorak. The Sunday afternoon concert is open to the public and the doors at Massey Hall open at 1.45, the program starts at 2.30 p.m. C. B. C. radio will carry the program across Canada from 3-4 p.m.

Past Warden Fred Armstrong was host to members and wives of County Council and three former wardens, Tom Taylor, Marshall McMurphy and Ralph Corner and their wives at a turkey dinner held at the Summit Restaurant on Tuesday evening. Mr. Armstrong, who is the celebrated Reeve of Woodbridge promised to "treat County Council and their wives" and the press to a turkey dinner at the Ontario Municipal Board adusts the assets and liabilities" - resulting from the passing of Bill 80 and the County's separation from the City of Toronto as of January, 1954.

Notice was received in time for the commencement of the November session of County Council, and as good as his word "dinner was served." Members are now looking for an excuse for the 1960 Council to make this an annual event.

The annual meeting of the Richmond Hill United Church Young People was held on Sunday evening with Mr. John Spanner as chairman for the evening. The officers for the year are the following:
President: Brian Smith; Vice President: Lois Perkins; Secretary: Edward Addison; Treasurer: John Perkins; Past President: David Kerwin.

The rest of evening was spent in discussing future events for the coming year. These will include a Christmas party for the True Blue and Frange Home, Christmas Caroling in institutions for the aged, and a collection of magazines for young and old institutions. This year the group looks more spirited than for many years and the executive is looking forward to a successful year. The next meeting will be held this Sunday at 8.05 p.m. in the Christian Education Building to which all young people are invited.

The Richmond Hill Jayceettes held their monthly meeting at the Summit View Restaurant, on Wednesday, November 11. After dinner, Yvonne Taylor introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Murray MacLeod, President of the Jayceettes. But before starting his talk, Mr. MacLeod presented Hazel Lomberton, Jayceettes president, with a gavel on behalf of the Jayceettes. He then gave an interesting and informative speech outlining parliamentary procedure, stressing its reasons and importance.

At the business meeting which followed it was decided the club would again fill Christmas stockings for the Ontario Hospital School at Orillia.
Estelle Martin presented the six Jayceettes, who completed the effective speaking course held for six weeks at the home of Norma Hogarth, with certificates. A prize was also given to Ingelung MacLeod who took top honours in the contest.

The monthly social meeting of the Senior Citizens Club was held in the Education building of the United Church on Wednesday, November 11. Mrs. Fred Jackson, chairman of the Advisory Council spoke to the meeting and welcomed the new executive to office. (For the next fortnight Mr. H. Calverley vice-president, will be acting president as Mr. A. E. Plewman is away on holiday).
Impromptu talent was the feature of the afternoon following group singing informally led by members of the choir. Mrs. F. A. Stapley, the first entertainer was quickly followed by Mr. Percy Walton in several numbers, Mrs. Ethel Hall and Mrs. Lew Clement sang a duet, and Mrs. W. Adlam sang about the club, composed by herself.
Mrs. A. E. Powell had written a poem which she recited to the club, and Miss Marjorie Gray recited Albert and the Lion. The program was held under the guidance of Mr. A. McLatchy, and followed by tea and home-made goodies with Mrs. Tina Boves in charge.
Members and prospective members are reminded to keep December 9th open for the special Christmas party being held as usual in the Primary Room of the Christian Education Building of the United Church at 2 p.m.
Members will be informed well ahead of time when Day Centre Activities transfer to the old children's library room in the municipal hall, which has just been made available to the club. The monthly social meetings will continue in the United Church Education Building.

Joins Staff Of Wright & Taylor

Photo by Lagerquist
GRANT MARSHALL

Stanley Pipher, has announced that Grant Marshall has become a member of the staff of the Wright & Taylor Funeral Home, Richmond Hill.

Mr. Marshall has been a resident of Richmond Hill since last September living at 453 Balkan Rd. Born at Orangeville he started his profession in that town with the John Turner Funeral Home. He served his apprenticeship with Turner & Porter in Toronto, and for the last three and a half years has been associated with the Morley Bedford organization.

Mr. Marshall is married to the former Leone Parker of Mona Mills, and they have a four months old daughter Karen. He attends St. Matthews United Church where he is one of the elders.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to express my sincere thanks to all my friends and neighbours for cards, gifts and acts of kindness, love and understanding during my recent illness.
Mrs. Howard Atkinson
c1w21

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank all our neighbours and friends for their deep concern and offers of help during our son's (Edward) accident, and a special thanks to the gentleman who took Edward to the doctor and then to the hospital (name unknown).
Frank and Rita Shorter
*1w21

CARD OF THANKS
May we at this time express our sincere appreciation to relatives, friends, neighbours, "The Baby Booth Group," and "Harmony" who kindly remembered us with gifts, flowers and cards on the occasion of our 25th wedding anniversary.
Laura and Norman Reid
c1w21

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our friends and neighbours for their messages of sympathy and acts of kindness during our recent bereavement; a special thanks to Mr. Langstaff, Rev. C. E. Hunn and Mr. Pipher of Wright and Taylor Funeral Home.
Mr. and Mrs. Eric Morby
*1w21

"FOR GOODNESS SAKE!" (and your own) do NOT miss this Bazaar
KINETTE Bazaar & Bake Sale
Saturday, November 21st - 2 to 5 p.m.
MASONIC HALL
Crosby & Bedford Park Avenues, Richmond Hill
Fish Pond for the children. Bring along your friends for afternoon tea.

Spirits Anyone!
What happens when a happily re-married English gentleman receives a visitation from the pookish ghost of his first wife... who decides to stay on for a fortnight or so?
Well, first of all, it creates a rather unusual situation for him... and a most difficult situation for his earthly wife. But most important of all it creates a wonderful excuse for you to have a chuckle-provoking evening when you come to see...
BLITHE SPIRIT
by Noel Coward
Presented by the RICHMOND HILL CURTAIN CLUB at the HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM... Thursday, Friday and Saturday, NOVEMBER 26th, 27th and 28th...
TICKETS: $1.00 unreserved
$1.25 reserved
Both reserved and unreserved tickets are available from Mainprize Drug Store, Wight's Pharmacy, Clarke's Pharmacy. Or phone TURNER 4-1493.

Deaths

BOYLE, Herbert James - At the York County Hospital, Newmarket, Saturday, November 14, 1959, James Herbert Boyle of Chip St., Elgin Mills, beloved husband of Mary Rutledge, dear father of Frank Lorne and Mrs. Fred Sprinette (Margaret) in his 71st year. Rested at the Wright and Taylor funeral home, 126 Yonge St. N., Richmond Hill. Service was held on Tuesday at 2 p.m. Interment York cemetery, Willowdale.
c1w21

COOK, Jane Stubbins Swan - After a lengthy illness, Jane Stubbins Swan passed away at the Lockwood Clinic, Toronto, Tuesday, November 17, 1959. Dear mother of Jean (Mrs. W. Garnett), Doncaster; Lil (Mrs. E. Gunthorpe), Paris, France; and Charles Swan, Oak Ridges. Funeral service will be held Friday, November 20, at 1 p.m. from Roy Miller's Funeral Home, 1695 St. Clair Ave. W., Toronto. Interment Thornhill Cemetery.
c1w21

LINE, Henry Frank - At his home, Maple, Saturday, November 14, 1959, Henry Frank Line, husband of the late Clara Eva Lewis; dear father of Lewis, Mrs. R. Clegg (Minnie), Mrs. G. Metcalfe (Muriel). Rested at the Wright and Taylor funeral home, 126 Yonge St. N., Richmond Hill. Funeral was held Monday at 2.30 p.m. Interment Maple cemetery. c1w21

McKENNA, Mary - At the Toronto General Hospital, Friday, November 13, 1959, Mary Allen, beloved wife of the late James McKenna of Belfast Ireland; dear mother of Mrs. H. J. Doyle (Martha) Richmond Hill, Mrs. H. McCarvil (Madge), James H. (Jim), Dominic (Don), and William (Bill), of Toronto, Denis, Molly and Harry of Ireland and the late Gerald and Cuthbert. Rested at the Wright and Taylor Funeral Home 126 Yonge St. N., Richmond Hill. Funeral Monday to St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church for Requiem Mass at 9 a.m. Interment Holy Cross Cemetery.
c1w21

In Memoriam
FINDLAY - In loving memory of Talbot Findlay who passed away November 22, 1957. So many things have happened, Since you were called away, So many things to share with you, Had you been left to stay, But God knew that you were suffering, And the hills were hard to climb, He closed your weary eyelids, And whispered "Peace be thine." - Ever remembered by wife, Gladys and family.
c1w21

Teen Town
RICHMOND HILL
Its time once again for Teen Town next Saturday night. There will be dancing to the fabulous CHUM, with terrific prize dances. Dress in the usual school clothes. doors open 8.30 p.m., usual prices.

"Ghostly Spectre, Ghoul Or Fiend?"

Photo by John Thomson
Madame Arcati (Margaret Bergin) looks into her crystal ball to try and find a solution for Charles Condomine (Ron Solloway) and the ghost of his first wife, Alvira (Mary Monks). A difficult task as the audience will realize when they see Noel Coward's delightful comedy at the Richmond Hill High School, next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 26th, 27th and 28th.

To mark both an ending and a new beginning
At the turning of life's last page, the spirit enters a new and brighter realm that is eternal. Worthily to commemorate this transition is ever our aim.
WRIGHT and TAYLOR
TU. 4-1311 FUNERAL HOME
Serving this community since 1878

Warwick House
"For Women Who Deserve The Best"
Kay & Warwick Butt
AV 5-4741
14 Levendale Rd Richmond Heights Plaza

dance to dreamland in fashion newest sleepwear. From short-short ballet lengths to the most glamorous of nighties; from classic pyjamas to snappy loungers... we've got them all. Snooze news galore... come choose yours.