Neighbourhood Notes

Mrs. Alick Gardner who made such a hit as a model at the fashion show the W.I. sponsored recently is suffering because of her labours! She has fallen prey to dermatitis.
The Buttonville W.I. ladies have a full calendar for November:
Nov. 12: Evening refreshments served to Milk Producers executive; Nov. 23: Euchre and bridge at 2 p.m. in Buttonville Hall in aid of Christmas Gift Cupboard of the Cancer Society; Nov. 24, in Buttonville Hall, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., "How to Plan a Meeting" discussion led by Mrs. E. Armstrong. All interested persons in the community are urged to attend. Bring a box lunch, tea will be supplied by W.I. members. Nov. 26: Junior Farmers' Dinner at Buttonville Hall, W.I. to cater; Dec. 2: Markham Fair Board banquet, W.I. to cater.
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Purves and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reid who celebrated wedding anniversaries last week. Miss Elizabeth French, whose birthday was on Monday of this week came in for special attention at a pot-luck luncheon the W.I. held at Buttonville Hall.
Wedding bells will ring for Mildred Stots and Esther Whatten on November 27 in Toronto, and for Dorothy Hood and Don Reesor at Brown's Corners United

Church on December 26

Mrs. Jean Cook and Mrs. John Wilkins represented Buttonville W.I. at the area convention at the Royal York Hotel. Mrs. Garnet Francy also was a convention guest and Mrs. Charles Hooper and Mrs. Joe Robinson were among those who attended the luncheon held in the Canadian Room on Thursday.
Mrs. Walter Craig was a delegate from North York Schools attending the Ontario Association of Curriculum Development convention in the King Edward Hotel last week.
Mrs. George Kelly, Mrs. Russell Boyington, Mrs. James Rodick, Mrs. Don Arnott, Mrs. John Donaldson and Mrs. Fred Leaf motored to Orangeville on Friday of last week for the annual meeting of the local fall fairs executive. Twenty-four were present from the Markham area, and Mr. Tran, Markham Fair chairman, was pleased to bring home the cup for high attendance.
At the Victoria Square District Lions night recently Alick Gardner speculated aloud that the lucky draw was fixed — Lawson Mumberson picked him up on it and asked Mr. Garner to draw a number. Mr. Garner drew his own!
Thanksgiving Speaker
The retiring executive secretary of the W.M.S. of the United Church of Canada Mrs. Loveys, was the colourful and interesting guest speaker at the Brown's Corners W.M.S. autumn thank-offering meeting.
Mrs. Loveys spent the summer months in Jamaica on W.M.S. work, and while there she put her colour and talent to good use, with a pictorial account of that beautiful island and the life of its people. There have been no slaves in Jamaica since 1838, and the protestant church has been active since before that.
Mrs. Roscoe Chapin of Unionville conducted the devotional service. The soloist was Mrs. W. J. Russell, also of Unionville, who was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. S. J. English.
W.I. Euchre Series
There were 14 tables of players at Buttonville W.I. Hall for the third game of the present euchre series. Winners were Mrs. Miles, Mrs. P. Smith, Mrs. O. Denby, Messrs. Bill Lunan, Matt Davie and Ashton Calvert. Mr. Freeman won the lucky draw a chicken. Refreshments were served.
Next game will be November 20 Christmas Gift Cupboard Benefit
A dull time of year, you say? You're in the dumps? Take the best cure of all and do something for someone else!
On Monday afternoon of next week (November 23) the Buttonville W.I. is sponsoring a euchre and bridge party. Funds will be used to purchase comforts and cheering gifts to stock the shelves of the Christmas Gift Cupboard of the Canadian Cancer Society in this area.
Christmas Bazaar
At a pot luck luncheon held in the home of Mrs. A. W. Miller on Tuesday afternoon of last week final plans were made for the Harmony Club Christmas Bazaar which will be held in Buttonville W.I. Hall Saturday afternoon, November 28, commencing at 2 p.m.
Sector Over The Top
After weeks of study and planning, interested laymen and women of Brown's Corners United Church visited church members and adherents in this area on Sunday of this week and report much interest shown throughout the community. As an added boost the financial objective of $11,400.00 was exceeded.
Buttonville School Parents' Club
As evidenced by the fine attendance at last month's meeting of the newly formed Buttonville School Parents' Club, there is much interest among local parents in school affairs and methods.
Following last month's programme in which a grade 1 demonstration reading lesson was taught by Mrs. Helfenstein, Mr. H. Atkinson will show teaching procedure with senior grades in the school. Can't afford to miss this one.
Mrs. Morrison Sellar of Owen Sound spent some time with her family at the Rodick farm last week, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rodick were pleased to have John home from Pickering College for the weekend.
The men of the neighbourhood have been hunting lately. Of those who have returned, we heard that George Hooper's party brought back six, and Mr. Baldwin's party was also successful.
On Saturday afternoon of last week Mrs. W. Wardenier of Arleigh Heights entertained at a tea at the Four Winds, Steele's Ave. W. The guest of honour was her mother, Mrs. Millicent Glanman whose 75th birthday it was.
Mrs. Gladman was showered with gifts and good wishes from her friends and relatives, many of whom travelled long distances to attend.
Several community members are in hospital as present, and we hope they may return home shortly. Mrs. John Brown underwent surgery at Scarborough General last weekend; Mr. A. Rose whose home is on the old Thompson farm on 7 Hwy. is also at Scarborough General following a serious accident which occurred while he was at work; Mr. E. Crisp has been in the Toronto East General Hospital for some time now but is progressing well, and Mrs. Russell Burr is at home recuperating from an operation on her foot.
Mrs. Maw tells us that the Explorers group of the Victoria Square church is sponsoring the newly formed Tyro group at Victoria Square. So far they have voted more than $8.00 for purchase of essential equipment. No doubt TYRO will return the compliment by helping the girls at a later date.
C. G. I. T. this week met at the home of Janice Farquharson.
