Langstaff Home and School Association

This year's program committee for the Langstaff Home and School Association is to be congratulated on their fine choice of speakers and topics. The meetings have been extremely interesting and informative and the November meeting was no exception. Mrs. Zimmerman's room had the largest parent attendance for the Junior grades and Mr. Coates for the Seniors.

Mrs. Fairfield announced that the children from the school collected $90.00 in pennies, nickels and dimes on Hallow'en night for UNICEF, and she thanked Mr. Urquhart for his assistance. Also she thanked the ladies who assisted in counting the money, Mrs. Pickett, Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. Welsh and Mrs. Wood.

Mr. Clark introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Mr. Arthur J. Brown, Past President of the Big Brother Movement, and described him as an eminent speaker with an enviable record of public service.

Mr. Brown's informal and sincere description of the work of the Big Brothers, interspersed with amusing anecdotes and experiences made excellent listening. Organized in the year 1913 by a small group of men who became interested and concerned in the problems of boys appearing in the juvenile court, this movement has grown from a volunteer to a professional organization. There is a board of 16 Directors (non-remunerative), a staff of professional social workers, and 100 volunteer workers.

Mr. Brown stressed the importance of the work of the volunteer workers who take over the problems of these various boys, once their individual troubles are diagnosed. He said that the boys need someone to help them and believe in them, and need to be encouraged to take an interest in neighbourhood activities.

There will be no Home and School meeting in December. The executive has lined up very interesting meetings for the new year. At the January meeting Mr. Perry will introduce the members of the new School Board. The February meeting will be a joint meeting of the Thornhill, Henderson and Langstaff Home and School Associations at the Thornhill High School with Dr. John Ritch, Psychiatrist, as guest speaker.

Mark Vaun Women's Institute

Mrs. Sim, Roosevelt Drive, was the hostess for the November meeting of the Institute. The theme for the evening was Home Economics and Health and the roll call "A Rule on Etiquette" was answered by twelve members.

During the business period, plans were made for a Travelling Bake Sale to be held on Saturday, November 21st. The annual family Christmas Party has been set for Saturday, December 12th and we hope that all members will keep this date in mind and plan to be present.

Mrs. Lepkey read an interesting paper on the Associated Countrywomen of the World Conference which was held in Scotland this summer. Interesting news from the Canadian Association of Consumers was given regarding the Trading Stamp issue and resolutions which their organization is trying to pass. The Santa Claus suit will be available for rent again this year to any interested parties and will be advertised in the Liberal as in the past.

The meeting was turned over to Home Economics and Health Convenor, Mrs. Glassey. Literature was distributed to the members regarding the Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service and members were urged to give blood. Plans are being made for a Clinic to be opened up in our district.

The sympathy of the community was extended last week to Mr. and Mrs. M. Holt, of Garden Avenue, on the sudden passing of Mrs. Holt's mother, Mrs. Hannah Edney of Bradford. Funeral service was held in St. Paul's Anglican Church, Coulson's Hill and burial in the church cemetery.

Sympathy is extended also to Mrs. Mary Brown of Garden Avenue on the death of her mother. We are pleased to report that Mr. Thompson, Morgan Drive, is convalescing nicely and is able to be up for short periods every day. We hope he continues to make such good progress.

Birthday greetings to Ronald Charles, Sussex Avenue, who celebrated his birthday, on Saturday, November 14th. Also to Bruce Palmer, No. 7 Highway, who has a birthday on Friday, November 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. Speckenheuer, Essex Avenue, entertained at a party last Saturday evening for the neighbours on the street.

TEMPERANCEVILLE

Correspondent: Mrs. Milton Wells, R.R. 3, King
Phone PR. 3-5239

The November meeting of the Temperanceville W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. W. Jennings. The financial report gave a balance of $91.72 on October 2nd. $1.00 per member was voted toward the World Refugee Fund to be sent to the World Refugee Committee of Canada. The 4-H Homemaker Clubs of this district meet at Newmarket Town Hall on December 5 for achievement day. Mothers are invited to attend the afternoon session at 1.30 p.m. The Temperanceville Happy Gang will be among those attending the Kiwanis luncheon given in honour of 4-H members at the Royal York Hotel.

The euchres sponsored by the Temperanceville W.I. will be held monthly during the winter season beginning December 2.

In charge of this euchre are Mrs. C. Beynon, Mrs. W. Jennings, Mrs. N. Thompson, Mrs. M. Wells and Mrs. R. Jennings.

The program convenor on Citizenship reviewed the very wholesome attitudes expressed by the panel and audience at a recent Home and School Association meeting. She mentioned a meeting of teachers at which Inspector Adams had discussed the report card.

Splendid reports on the W.I. convention at the Royal York were compiled and read by delegates, Mrs. Ray Jennings and Mrs. Wm. Mitchell. The next meeting on December 9, will be a Christmas party held at the school.

Personals

We are very glad to report that Mrs. Robt. Turner is now making satisfactory progress after a serious operation in Women's College Hospital.

AURORA — Building Inspector Sam King reports building permits were issued for 183 homes during October, 156 permits were for single homes in a new subdivision.

CHARLES S. LAVIN ANNOUNCES NEW ORGANIZATION PLANS . . . .

CHARLES S. LAVIN, whose ideas have been editorialized in Reader's Digest, announces the addition of the famous Palm Beach Hotel at Palm Beach, Florida.
