Rev. Hugh R. MacDonald, B. A., B. D., commenced his ministry at Carrville United Church on Sunday. There was a good size congregation on hand to welcome him.

School News
On November 10, Mr. George Green, teacher at Carrville school held a very nice Armistice Service with the children, and explained the meaning of the holiday, and it left the children very much impressed.

Mr. Green has always done such things before any special day, such as Easter or Christmas; explained the reason why, and we are sure all parents thank him for it.

Party
Mrs. Jack Barton and Mrs. Bert Middleton had the pleasure of attending a surprise party at the home of Mrs. David Barton, Beverley Acres, Richmond Hill, on Thursday evening when Mrs. Bob Middleton was presented with a lovely pram suit for her wee daughter, Denise, also a box of baby toiletries and a beautiful nylon dress and slip. Mrs. Jas. Ash, of Moorefield, who was visiting that week with relatives, assisted Mrs. Barton. Other ladies present were Mrs. Chas. Jordan, Doncaster; Mrs. Jack Oliver, Richmond Hill; Mrs. Chas. Ash, Edgeley; and Mrs. John Ash, Sr. Concord. Mrs. Percy Ash and Mrs. Dean Wilson were unable to attend.

Birthdays
A very happy birthday is wished Mrs. R. A. Kirk who has a birthday, November 17; and Miss Evah Sheppard on November 18; and little Bobby Bone who will be 2 years old on November 26. Happy birthday to all on your special day.

Also belated anniversary greetings to Mr. and Mrs. E. Bone, whose wedding anniversary was last week.

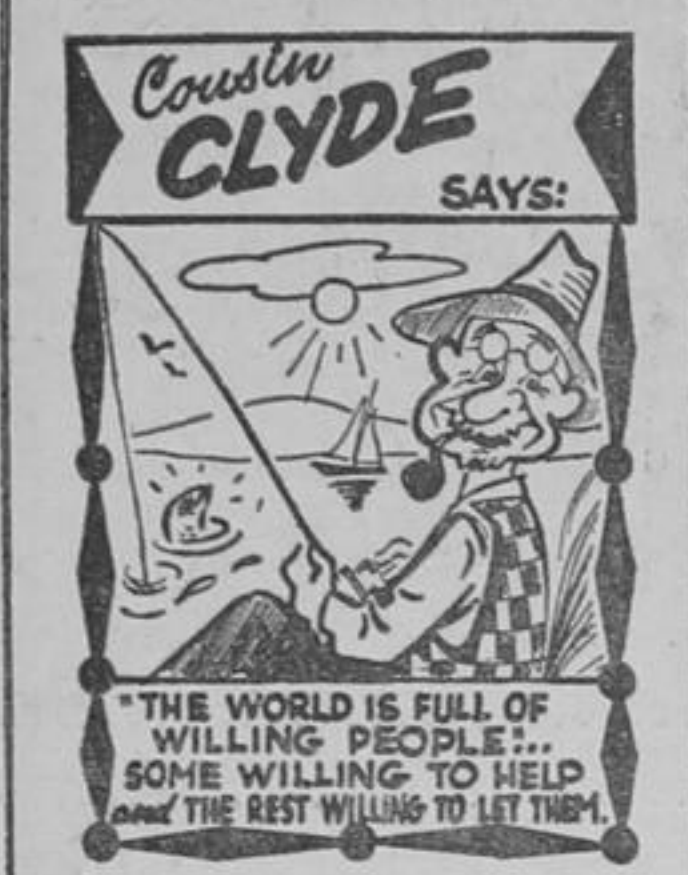

Mrs. Jas. Ash and Robbie and Donna Lyn Ash of Moorefield, returned to their home Saturday following a weeks holiday visiting relatives.

Election Day, November 23
Don't forget to vote on Monday — from 12 noon to 8 p.m. At the Legion Hall Carrville Road.

Headford W. A. held its November meeting on Tuesday last, with a good attendance. Initial plans were made on a project to restore the lovely old chairs in the choir loft; and it is hoped to have at least one to show at the next meeting, which will be held on December 8 at the home of Mrs. Hugh Deverell.

Guest for last Tuesday's meeting was Mrs. Garnet Francy, a former Headford girl, who showed some lovely slides of Alaska.

Buttontville 4-H Homemakers were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Johnstone.

Headford folk enjoyed very much having Mr. Tom Phillips, who preached on "Love and Forgiveness." It was nice too, to have Mr. Deverell back in his accustomed place.

Mrs. Joe Fisher and Mrs. Acreman were guests of Melvin and Mrs. Wm. Wellman at the Royal on Monday of this week.

Miss Betty Gay and Mr. Graham Stewart of Toronto were recent guests of Hal and Mrs. Acreman.

So glad to know Brenda Wellman is feeling better and able to return to school.

Charlie Barker has returned from his hunting trip, the only one in his party to capture a deer.

Word was received from Mr. and Mrs. Len Bagg from Virginia, en route to St. Petersburg, Florida.

Mr. Frank Barker, brother of Mrs. Wm. Wellman, with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nixon (Lillian Barker) of Manilla, and their sons, Mark, Jimmie and Grant, had dinner on Saturday with Mrs. William Wellman.

Birthday congratulations to Diane and Frank Toyne, twin son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Toyne who will celebrate their fifteenth birthday on November 24.

nesday with Mrs. Beulah Jones. Mr. E. J. Swalm of Duntroon spent several days visiting friends and relatives here.
