King City Notes

JOIN GUIDES
A "Flying Up" ceremony for three new Guides graduating from Brownies was held last week in the United Church Hall. Donna Dixon, Linda Millard and Catherine Whalley had passed all their tests and were entitled to "fly up" and were wearing their blue Guide uniforms for the first time.

The new Guide Commissioner, Mrs. Alex Knight, questioned the girls about their tests. They passed along an avenue of Brownies and were welcomed through a gateway into a horse-shoe of Guides. Brown Owl Mrs. Roland Roberts presented wings badged to the three ex-Brownies. Enrolled as Guides were Pat Hurley and Susan Herring, bringing the number up to 18.

Also taking part in the service were Brown Owl Mrs. Donald Dixon, Tawny Owls Mrs. Lloyd Brown, Mrs. Ralph Church and Mrs. Kenneth Lawson, Patrol Leaders Shirley Knight and Joan Flucker and Acting Patrol Leader Diane Glass.

The Hi C Fellowship Group of Teston United Church with friends from King and Lasky travelled by bus recently to tour the new United Church House and Woodgreen United Church.

"The United Church House" which is the headquarters building of the United Church is situated on St. Clair Ave. east at the geographic centre of Toronto.

The tour was conducted through nine floors of beautifully appointed offices and committee rooms. They saw the lovely chapel furnished by many gift contributions among them a gold and blue dossal curtain behind the altar which was designed and woven by Korean widows.

The chapel windows form a mural in stained glass depicting the church and its mission. From here the fifty-six young people and adults went on to Woodgreen United Church, Queen St. East where they were welcomed by the Rev. Ray McCleary and then shown through this modern building which is a realization of a dream brought about by the untiring work and enthusiasm of Rev. McCleary and his congregation.

After seeing the chapel of remembrance with its fifty foot high memorial stained glass window, the group gathered in the church where Rev. Smith described the features of its construction and furnishings. They listened to the lovely pipe organ then went on to see the lounge, the nursery, where the tiny members of the congregation are looked after during church services, and the Sunday School rooms, finally meeting in Carrol Hall where they were served lunch by the members of the W. A. of Woodgreen. Both of these modern buildings give evidence of the great work of the church of our time.

The regular meeting of Teston Women's Association was held Wednesday with Mrs. H. Stephenson in charge. A thought provoking topic was given by Mrs. Martin Jenkinson. She spoke of the growing interest being shown by women's groups everywhere in the question of prison reform. Especially concerning conditions existing in woman's prisons. She told of some of these conditions and what is being done about it.

Mrs. W. Margin conducted a contest which was won by Mrs. Marwood and Mrs. McQuarrie.

The Hi C group of Teston have planned a costume party for Friday evening, Nov. 27 when everyone is asked to come dressed as their favourite comic strip or cartoon character. The committee in charge are working to make this party fun, all they need is a good attendance of fun loving comers young or old. How about you? Eight o'clock in the Sunday School room Teston.

A number of friends from Teston were entertained at a buffet supper by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence French of Huttonville Sunday, November 15.

A birthday celebration was held last Sunday by the family of Mrs. Albert Ireland of Teston in honour of her eighty first birthday. Among those enjoying a delicious turkey dinner were her three children, three grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. Mr. Saweyell of Gravenhurst was also a guest. We wish to extend our congratulations to Mr. Ireland and wish her many more happy birthdays.

Mr. Belford Panke who is with the R. C. A. F. stationed in France has been home for a short visit with his mother Mrs. John Downing and family. He attended services with them Sunday at Teston United Church.

Mrs. Austin Robinson of Guelph has been visiting in our district for the past week or two. She spent the weekend with Mrs. E. Carson and Mary. Mrs. G. Orr and Mary Carson returned with Mrs. Robinson to Guelph Sunday, where they attended church services and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Earl McNaughton and family.

We congratulate Carl Dickeyman on winning two trophies and becoming Junior Champion plowman of King and Vaughan townships.

4-H CLUB
The 4-H Club members of Temperanceville attended the Kiwanis luncheon in honour of all the York County 4-H members at the Royal York last Wednesday. Attending from here were Mrs. W. Jennings, leader of the girls, Audrey Herra, Patsy Macklin, Joan Hare, Donna Jennings, Gloria Alward, Roberta Wilson, Linda Chalk, Judith Paxton and Elaine Paxton; Garret Herrema, president of the York County Jr. Farmers and Bob Macklin.

Oak Ridges, Lake Wilcox Socials

Mr. and Mrs. Grant McCachen, Ridge Inn, are grandparents again. A son was born on Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Bill McCachen, a brother for Cindy and Janet, at Newmarket Hospital.

St. Paul's W.A. held a very successful Christmas bazaar on November 21. It was almost a complete sellout, and this year tea was served in the main body of the church.

The monthly meeting of the Boy Scout and Girl Guide Ladies Auxiliary was held November 19 at the home of Mrs. G. Rowe, Elmgrove Ave. Election and installation of officers was held and the following is the executive for 1959-60:

President, Mrs. C. R. Smith; vice-president, Mrs. A. Akerman; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. Seager; publicity, Mrs. C. W. Moore; sunshine, Mrs. G. Marr; sewing, Mrs. E. Lapelle; membership, Mrs. R. Hopkins and Mrs. A. Gibeault. Mrs. C. Cassidy, vice president of the executive board of York Summit District, installed the new officers. Plans were made to hold a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. C. R. Smith, South Lake Road on December 17 at 8 p.m. All mothers of Scouts, Guides, Cubs and Brownies are cordially invited to attend.

On Saturday, December 5 at 8:30 p.m., installation of both Branch 570 and Ladies' Auxiliary executives, Oak Ridges Cdn. Legion will be held at the Legion Hall, Aurora, and will be followed by a social evening. Installing team for the evening will be the Newmarket Branch Canadian Legion and Mrs. M. Clark, Woodbridge, Ladies' Auxiliary Zone Commander.

On Sunday evening at St. Paul's United Church, Peter John, son of Rev. Gordon Winch and Mrs. Gordon Winch of St. Paul's Church was baptized. Rev. H. L. Morrison grandfather of Peter John performed the baptismal rites.

Former residents Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Henderson and their sons, Tommy, Barty and Alec were involved in a serious car accident Sunday night at Niagara Falls, N.Y. All are hospitalized. The Hendersons now live at Niagara Falls, Ontario.

AURORA — Police plan sponsored dances on Saturday nights for teen-agers. "We have a good bunch of young people in town" said the Chief "but there is definite need to give them something to do."

"Watch, Pray, Do" Lay Cornerstone All Saints, King "Platitudes—Lifes ABC's" Bishop To Congregation

Another historic event in the records of All Saints' Anglican Church was the laying of the cornerstone of the new church building on Sunday morning by Right Rev. F. H. Wilkinson, Lord Bishop of Toronto.

Following morning service, about 100 people were guided through the partially-built structure by Boy Scouts to assemble around the Keele Street entrance.

As the cornerstone bearing the "1959" date was covered with mortar and pushed into place from a small platform, the Bishop prayed, "Bless what we now do!" The congregation stood, watchful and silent as he said, "In the faith of Jesus Christ we lay this cornerstone, in the name of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost. Here let true faith and brotherly love ever remain."

The Lord Bishop commented, "How delighted I am on this occasion. I congratulate all of you and certainly the present wardens, who have been most forward-looking and devoted members of the congregation."

"What you are doing here will be known throughout the Diocese," he said, referring to the "encouragement and inspiration" of such an undertaking.

Bishop Wilkinson assured his listeners, "You are establishing a tradition, which I know will bear fruit, and I hope this church will be a great source of comfort, strength, Christian witness and sympathy."

He was assisted in the brief ceremony outdoors in balmy, sunny weather, by All Saints' new minister, Rev. E. H. Costigan; the Rector's Warden, Mr. Ian Baxter, and Mr. David Stephenson representing the contractors W. A. Stephenson and Sons.

Earlier, during the Worship Service in Church, the Lord Bishop warmly welcomed Mr. Costigan officially into the diocese. "He will take his place, not only as spiritual leader and pastor for this ever-growing community of King, with its future before it, but will also take his part in the life of the diocese."

The Bishop's sermon was based on the 24th Chapter of St. Matthew in which he stressed the 46th verse, "Blessed is that servant whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing."

"One aspect of Christian faith we need, no matter how great the confusion or tragedy, is 'God's will shall prevail,'" he said, and urged the congregation to "watch, pray and do."

"Watching do we look out upon the world with intelligence and discernment? Is our vision determined by what we read? Do we seek the truth and see what is our responsibility as Christians? The church is here to carry forth the redemptive purpose of God," the speaker advised. He spoke of a sense of responsibility toward tradition and martyrs who went before. "Watch, and be vigilant!" he urged.

"All the building that our church is doing, and in doing tangible work we see the intangible blessings of stewardship and fellowship." The Bishop continued. "We must realize our responsibilities spiritually in this World Refugee Year. I hope this church will provide more young men for ministry and that you will pray."

Mrs. Belford Panke who is with the R. C. A. F. stationed in France has been home for a short visit with his mother Mrs. John Downing and family. He attended services with them Sunday at Teston United Church.

Mrs. Austin Robinson of Guelph has been visiting in our district for the past week or two. She spent the weekend with Mrs. E. Carson and Mary. Mrs. G. Orr and Mary Carson returned with Mrs. Robinson to Guelph Sunday, where they attended church services and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Earl McNaughton and family.

We congratulate Carl Dickeyman on winning two trophies and becoming Junior Champion plowman of King and Vaughan townships.
