All Candidates Speak

Enjoy Lively Meeting
Richmond Hill Junior Chamber of Commerce held its monthly meeting at the Summit View Restaurant. Making it an unusual occasion was the fact that all candidates in the forthcoming Richmond Hill Council elections had been invited to attend and to address the gathering. School board candidates were also present. Mayor Tomlin opened the meeting and spoke first and was followed by all the other candidates. Limited Time
Each speaker was limited to a set time for his address and at the end of the allotted time, Jaycee Bob Fountain led the applause whether or not the speaker had concluded. Everyone agreed that this novel method of limiting each candidate to exactly the same time in which to state his platform, was a fair way to handle such a meeting. Public Speaking Course
After the dinner meeting the Jaycees adjourned to the public speaking course where the speech of the evening was to be a prepared forceful one followed by others of an impromptu nature.

1st Richvale Cub and Scout Mothers will greatly appreciate donations for their bazaar in the Community Hall on December 1st. Mrs. D. Hazelwood, Avenue 5-4193 is in charge of the white elephant table; Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. S. Lowe, Avenue 5-3940, the sewing and knitting table; Mrs. P. Martin, Avenue 5-3900, the fish pond; Mrs. J. Richvale Home and School
Mrs. Blanche Gordon, of the York County Health Unit, brought to the attention of parents the positive approach to child-training in her address to the Richvale Home and School meeting on November 16th. Feeding was the earliest training children receive and Mrs. Gordon pointed out that from accepting the regular frequent feedings the child later learns to accept the three-meal-a-day routine. If he does this in a pleasant family atmosphere he also learns to accept the dictum of hand-washing before meals and in other ways also learns to be a socially acceptable member of the family. This in turn leads to his becoming a happy member of society at large.
In childhood he learns to make his own decisions and from "all these are mine attitude" when he is very young he learns the joy through experience in playing with others. It is the parent's job to let him make his own decisions unless it is a case where the decision is beyond his ability. Here the parent steps in and assists him in his decisions.
Learning to accept the consequences for his behaviour is an important lesson. Mrs. Gordon pointed out, urging the parents to be consistent in their rulings so that the youngsters can depend on them, and thus feel secure.

Then followed a film called "The Terrible Twos and the Trusting Threes," showing the advancement that is made in childhood of that age in one short year of growing.

Bazaar
A very successful bazaar was held at Charles Howitt School on Saturday, sponsored by the 1st Langstaff Cub and Scout Mothers. It was a wonderful display of hard work and co-operation among the members of this group, and it was encouraging that so many neighbours and friends turn out to make it a good day.

Home and School Executives Meeting
The Charles Howitt Home and School had an executive meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. A. Pollock, Westwood Lane, on November 16, to discuss the November meeting which will be held on Monday the 30th. The meeting will be in the form of two discussion groups, one for the lower grades and one for the upper grades - taken by the teachers. The discussion will be about understanding report cards and problems pertaining to the different teachers.
