Named Director Pioneer Village

Albert Colucci, curator of the Metro Toronto & Region Conservation Authority's Pioneer Museum has been named director of the Edgley Pioneer Village and the Black Creek Conservation Area by the Authority's Committee.

In the new capacity, he will be responsible for the development, maintenance and operation of the Black Creek conservation area and the Pioneer Village. The area was formerly known as the Dalziel (Dee-ell) conservation area. It now comprises 86 acres, and is located in North York and Vaughan Townships near Jane and Steeles Ave. Part of the Black Creek runs through the conservation area.

VICTORIA SQUARE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. W. SANDLE, Victoria Square
Telephone Gormley 5421

Presentation

On Tuesday evening of last week, neighbours and friends gathered in the community hall to make a presentation to Mr. and Mrs. John Buchanan who have moved to their new home in Arrleigh Heights, Buttonville. The evening was spent playing court whist. After the games, John McCague on behalf of the community presented John and Jean with a set of dishes, a mirror, a rosebud vase, and a meat-carver. John and Jean thanked everyone for the gifts.

W.A. & W.M.S.

A representative group of ladies of the Victoria Square charge met in the Sunday School room of the Victoria Square United Church Wednesday evening of last week. Mrs. H. McCague conducted the Devotional and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson of Buttonville was the soloist, accompanied by Mrs. S. J. English. Speaker was Mrs. Clayton Searle of Toronto. She was introduced by Mrs. A. F. Binnington. Mrs. Searle spoke about the proposed new organization for the women of the United Church of Canada. She said its aim would be to enlist all the women of the church for the church's total mission, also the values of both the W.A. and W.M.S. would be preserved. A question period followed. Mrs. H. Collard extended the courtesies, and dainty refreshments were enjoyed by all.

White Gift Service

Sunday, December 6, the annual White Gift service will be held, when the Church and Sunday School will be combined. There will be no Sunday School, however the children and the teachers are asked to please be present at 11 a.m. in order that they may be ready to march up into church for the service at 11.30 a.m. Let us make this the best White Gift service ever, as the gifts we bring are for those less fortunate than we are.

W.M.S.

The Christmas meeting of the W.M.S. will be held on Wednesday, December 9, at 2:15 p.m. at the Mansie. All the ladies in the community are invited to attend.

Couples Club

The Couples Club held its November meeting on Friday evening of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Johnston. Mrs. Gagne Franey showed her pictures on Mexico.

The Couples Club Children's Party will be held in the Sunday School room on Friday evening, December 11.

Neighbourhood Notes

Birthday greetings to Mr. Harvey Collard for December 5.

Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Jarvis who on December 5, will be celebrating their 23rd wedding anniversary; to Mr. and Mrs. William Orr who on December 6 will be celebrating their 43rd wedding anniversary.

Last Sunday, Miss Mabel Sanderson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bolender, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Chadwick and Karen, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nigh and David, to din### ner.

Early Wednesday morning of last week, an attempt was made to enter Mrs. P. Willows' store. However, the would-be robbers were unsuccessful in gaining entrance.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hill (Thelma Hart) on the birth of a son.

Miss Mabel Sanderson had dinner on Tuesday of last week with Miss Ruth Hoover at Gormley. Mr. Frank Barker of Manilla spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barker and Ross.

On Tuesday evening of last week the family of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nichols entertained their parents at the Summit View Restaurant, the occasion being in honour of their 25th wedding anniversary. When Mr. and Mrs. Nichols returned home they were surprised to find that two lovely lamps and a purse of money had been left for them from the community, also a TV set from the family.

Friends will be pleased to hear that Mr. Frank Donnelly is able to be home from the hospital following his recent operation.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. John McCague in the passing of their grandmother, Mrs. Joyce.

Mrs. Alf Smith, Mrs. Herman Mortson, Mrs. S. Boynton, Mrs. H. Collard, Mrs. F. Gee, Mrs. H. McCague, attended a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Lumsden Cummings, York Mills, in honour of her mother, Mrs. Margaret McCague, on Thursday of last week.

The flowers in the church on Sunday morning were in loving memory of Mrs. Joyce Sr.

Please note that the Canadian premiere of the film taken by Mr. Paul Delmer on his trip to Russia will be shown in the Richmond Hill Theatre on January 21, 1960, instead of December 23, as was mentioned last week.

The new Thornhaven School for Retarded Children is open. Open House will be held Monday to Saturday, November 30, to December 12 from 8 to 10 p.m. This school is situated at Sussex and Centre Sts., Richmond Hill. An invitation is extended to everyone to come and bring your friends, and the children.

The many friends of Mr. Stanley Boynton will be pleased to hear that he is able to be out again following his recent illness. We hope he continues to improve in health.

Sr. Women's Institute

The Christmas meeting of the Sr. Women's Institute will be held Tuesday evening, December 8, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Dalton Rumney. The scripture will be taken by Mrs. N. Bell. Mrs. D. Houck will give the Christmas story. A demonstration will be given by Mrs. Herrington. Special music will be the singing of Christmas carols. Roll call, a gift for the Children's Aid. Hostesses: Mrs. P. Willows, Mrs. H. Barber and Mrs. S. Boynton. A hearty invitation is extended to all the ladies in the community to attend.

Former Reeve Of Markham Passes

Wesley C. Gohn, a former Markham Township Reeve and Warden of the County of York in 1931 died Sunday, November 29, after a lengthy illness.

The late Mr. Gohn farmed on concession 3 south of number 7 highway for many years and took an active interest in public affairs. He was elected Reeve in 1928 after serving as councillor and deputy-reeve, and in 1931 was Warden of the County of York.

Some eight years ago he suffered a stroke and had been in failing health ever since. He was in his 83rd year.

The funeral was held from the Dixon Funeral Home, Markham, on Tuesday afternoon and interment followed in Buttonville cemetery.

"Wes" Gohn, as he was popularly known, will be remembered as a good municipal man. He was well informed and an able debater and gave Markham Township outstanding service as a municipal leader.

To Celebrate Birthday Dec. 9

"Today's Teenagers Fine" Says Mrs. S. Peterman, 95

Mrs. Sarah Catherine Peterman of R. R. 2 Woodbridge is looking forward to something that very few have the opportunity of doing, and that is observing her 95th birthday. Mrs. Peterman is celebrating this wonderful milestone in her life with Open House on December 9 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Avery of Lot 9, concession 6, Vaughan Township. Her sister, Mrs. Maude Roberts of Toronto and her daughter, Mrs. Wilfred Maginn of R. R. 2 Woodbridge have been invited to share the honor of pouring tea for Mrs. Peterman's friends when they call during the afternoon hours between 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock. A family party is planned for the same evening.

Sarah Catherine McGillivray was born in Purpleville, the daughter of John and Nancy McGillivray and is a life long and most respected resident of Vaughan Township. She was educated at Purpleville Public School and on December 25, 1888 married Wesley Peterman, also of Purpleville. They were engaged in farming until her husband's death in 1935 and then lived in Kleinburg with her eldest son, Will, until after his tragic death in a motor car accident two years ago.

She is the eldest of a family of five children and attributes her great longevity to heredity. This is borne out by the fact that all her brothers and sisters are still living and enjoying good health. Her brother, Mr. Neil McGillivray, 93 and sisters, Mrs. Jessie Squirell, 87 and Mrs. Maude Roberts, 82 live in Toronto and her brother, Mr. John McGillivray, 91 lives in Maple.

Her descendants number four children, three of whom are living, seven grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. In September Mrs. Peterman became the great-grandmother of twin boys, Richard and Brian, born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Armitage of St. Catharines.

Four generations of the Peterman family of R. R. 2 Woodbridge, are seen above. On the left is Mrs. Kathleen Lighthouse; her son Douglas is held by his great-grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Catherine Peterman who is celebrating her 95th birthday, December 8, and Mrs. Peterman's daughter; Mrs. Gladys Maginn is on the right.

Women's Association of which she has been a member for nearly sixty years and on October 25, turned the first sod for the new extension of Toston United Church.

Mrs. Peterman has not travelled very much, the farthest away from home being Ottawa. Here she visited friends and all places of interest including the Parliament Buildings where she went up into the tower to see the clock.

Her attitude toward today's teenagers is one of confidence and pride. "They are a fine group," said Mrs. Peterman, and they "should take every advantage they can as there were no such privileges and opportunities in my day."

NEWMARKET — There is a three-way fight for Mayor's chair here. Mayor Belugin is challenged by George Haskett and J. D. Otton. Reeve Jack Luck is opposed by Alex Hands and there are ten candidates for six council seats. Mrs. Caroline Ion was acclaimed as deputy-reeve. Voting will be December 7th.
