thanks his 500 supporters - - - he will continue to fight for good government in Richmond Hill.
"Better RIGHT and OUT of Council Than WRONG and IN Council."

THANK YOU!
MANY THANKS TO THE VOTERS OF RICHMOND HILL FOR THEIR OVERWHELMING VOTE OF CONFIDENCE, AND A SPECIAL WORD OF THANKS TO ALL THOSE WONDERFUL SUPPORTERS WHO GAVE SO FREELY OF THEIR TIME ON MY BEHALF.
MAY I TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO WISH ONE AND ALL A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR.

VISITING OVER THE HOLIDAYS?
Go CNR—the sure, the comfortable way. Snow-filled skies or icy roads will make no difference—you'll get where you want to go, and you'll enjoy every relaxing minute of your trip. And especially now with CN's new Group Economy Travel Plan you make tremendous savings when you travel in a group of two or more. For instance, for four people going to Montreal from Toronto the fare is only $15 each, return! The CN's new Group Economy Travel and the "All Inclusive" Western Travel plans cost so little—why drive!

Neighbourhood Notes
Joy Fuller was organist at Brown's Corners Church last Sunday in the absence of Dorothy Hood. Mrs. English was pianist and Mrs. Gordon Purves sang a solo. Mr. Tom Phillips conducted the service.
Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Paterson were guests at a wedding near North Bay last Saturday, December 5.
Two men in the neighbourhood who have been hospitalized for some time returned home last week. Mr. Ross, who spent three weeks in the Scarborough General, and Mr. E. Crisp who was in the Toronto East General for more than seven weeks. Both are convalescent but making good progress we are happy to report.
Sorry we missed George and Joan Hooper's youngest son from the list of children baptized at Brown's Corners United Church the last Sunday in November. How to spell his name was our problem — but here it is: Alan Joseph.
Mr. and Mrs. Milford Stots visited Mr. and Mrs. Ken Stots one evening last week while still on their honeymoon and Mr. and Mrs. F. Maw were pleased to have Derek and his bride with them last Saturday.
Mrs. Douglas Hood will entertain for her daughter Dorothy on Saturday afternoon and evening, December 19, from 2 p.m. to 5 and from 7 to 9 p.m. prior to her marriage to Don Reesor of Markham on December 26. The Hoods hope to see all their friends and relatives at their home that day.
On Saturday evening of last week there was a family party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reid. Miss Dorothy Hood was the guest of honour and was presented with crystal for her new home during festivities.
Mrs. Wm. Clark and Mrs. F. W. Baker attended a shower for Miss Helen Paisley of Stouffville at the home of Mrs. Jerry Mann on Friday evening of last week; a second shower was held Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. White, Stouffville, and among those present were Mrs. Wm. Clark, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. Ken Barnett, Mrs. Savage, Mrs. Carroll and Mrs. Macklin. Miss Paisley and Bill Clark Jr. will be married December 23.
Mrs. George Kelly has been on the sick list recently. We hope she will be in better health and back in the swing of things before long.
Another neighbour, Mrs. B. K. Wilson, is very seriously ill and at last report was in a coma.
Parents' Club Meets
A science lesson taught to senior room pupils by the school principal, Mr. Howard Atkinson, was the meat of the program of Buttonville School Parents' Club held at the school on Wednesday evening of last week. (Meeting was delayed one week due to damage caused by smoke from the furnace.) Class students were Ricky Grove, Paulette Morley, Fraser McTavish, Kathy Murgaski, Patricia Patterson and Mary Champion. Mrs. Jim Hood chaired the meeting and a good number of parents were present. No meeting will be held in December because of Christmas, and plans are being made for the January meeting.

Wedding
STOTS-WATTON
A wedding of quiet simplicity was solemnized in the chapel of Donlands United Church on Friday evening, November 27, when Esther Barbara Watton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watton, Toronto, became the bride of Mr. Milford Stots, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stots, Buttonville. The bride chose an afternoon gown of royal blue crepe with white moussé hat and white gloves. She carried a white new testament with corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Margaret McGibbon was her sister's attendant and her gown was similar to the bride's in rust shade with matching hat and accessories. Her flowers were pink carnations. Mrs. Stots assisted Mrs. Watton, wearing navy blue with matching accessories. Her flowers were blue and white carnations.
Following the ceremony which was performed by the Rev. I. G. Perkins, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 17 Somers Ave. Mrs. Watton received her guests wearing a wool dress of winter white with turquoise hat and accessories. Her flowers were pink carnations. Mrs. Stots assisted Mrs. Watton, wearing navy blue with matching accessories. Her flowers were blue and white carnations.
Following a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Stots will take up residence at 96 Springdale Blvd., Toronto.

Bereavement
The sympathy of this community is extended to the family of Mr. G. Williams whose sudden and untimely death occurred on Friday December 4, 1959. Survived by his wife and three children, Mr. Williams was a nominee for School Trustee, Markham School Area No. 1. He will be sadly missed in this community.
Personal
Birthday greetings to Christine Curtis and Gail Magee who celebrated their 5th birthday on December 6th.
Gay Lepkey celebrated his 12th birthday on Saturday, December 5th by entertaining a few of his school chums.
Catherine Wright has a birthday on December 8th this is her 14th. Many Happy Returns of the day to all these young people.
Miss Lynne Hutchinson entertained at a supper party in honour of Carol Martin prior to her departure for Europe on Saturday, December 5th.
We wish a speedy recovery to Mr. Curtis Green Lorne who entered Branson Hospital on Friday, December 4th.
Mr. A. Wright, John St. is a patient at Sunnybrook Hospital, we hope he is soon home again.

School News
Report Cards were sent home on Monday, let's hope everyone was happy with them. The Home and School executive meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Tiffer, Green Lane on Wednesday, December 2nd. Plans are underway to get the skating rink made at the school again this year, with the assistance from the Home and School members.
LEATHER UNIVERSAL
It is difficult to find any nation, ancient or modern, to which leather has not been known. Some of the early cannon were even made of leather.

Dates To Remember
Sunday, Dec. 13, White Gift Sunday at Brown's Corners Church (Miss Hart of Fred Victor Mission will speak at the Sunday School session); Wednesday evening, Dec. 16, those wishing church will meet at Victoria Square Church (evening) with Rev. A. F. Binnington; Friday, School concert; Sunday evening, Dec. 20, at 7:30 p.m. Candlelight service at Victoria Square church with CGIT, Explorers and Tyro groups participating; December 21, Sunday School Christmas concert at Brown's Corners Church.
Explorers Honour Leader
Mrs. F. Maw, Explorer leader on the Victoria Square charge was pleased recently, when she was presented with silver coffee spoons by children in the Explorer group. The gift was for the Maw's 25th wedding anniversary. The next meeting of the group will be held on Monday evening, December 14, at Victoria Square church and the girls' mothers will be guests. This will be a special Christmas party.
Grand Prize Awarded
Mrs. H. Mizen was grand prize winner for the autumn euchre series at Buttonville Hall Friday evening of last week when scores were compared.
Eighteen tables of players were present for the final game of the season, and prizes for the evening went to Mrs. Andy Grant; Mrs. Roy Woods, Mrs. Florence Denby; Messrs. Alcott, Bert Nichols and Ashton Calvert. The lucky draw, a box of candy, was won by Mrs. Mary Hill.
Following play prizes were awarded and refreshments were served by the committee in charge: Mrs. Don Arnott, Mrs. A. Robinson, Mrs. A. Stephenson and Mrs. K. Stots.
Death Takes Two Residents
During the weekend two neighbourhood families were bereaved. Sympathy of the community is extended to the Tweedie family in the loss of Mrs. Tweedie Senior, and to the Williams family who have lost a husband and father.
Bazaar Successful
Saturday afternoon, November 28 was a busy one for most people with Santa Claus visiting the Markham Shopping Centre, and the Grey Cup game in full swing, but there must have been a good many attending the Harmony Club Christmas bazaar at Buttonville Hall, for when receipts were counted more than $494.00 was realized. The booths were loaded with attractive articles, from fresh eggs and bread in the home baking booth to cast off necklaces and china in the White Elephant booth. When shoppers grew weary there was an attrac-
