CARRVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. BERT MIDDLETON

Telephone AL. 7-8920

Service on Sunday, December 13, was withdrawn as the furnace wasn't working and the weather too cold for service without heat. So Christmas Sunday, December 20. The White Gifts are to be brought to the church and will be taken care of by Mrs. E. Bone and Mrs. J. Barton.

On December 22, the Sunday School children and parents are invited to the church hall for a Christmas get-together at 7.30 p.m.

The December meeting of the Women's Association, was held at the home of Mrs. J. McEwen, Bathurst St., on Wednesday evening with 23 ladies present.

The theme of the meeting was "Perfect Harmony" and that was just how the Christmas meeting turned out.

Mrs. Williams welcomed all the visiting ladies present, especially greeting our new ministers wife, Mrs. MacDonald. Others present were Mrs. Laura Stevenson, Mrs. Bob Middleton, Jr., Miss Dorothy Baker, Mrs. Gordon Read, Mrs. D. McLagen of Cobalt and Mrs. A. Ladd.

The W. A. decided to sell some of the old white dishes at the church and with the money, purchase some of their metal dishes. The sale was made through Mrs. R. Kirk, Mrs. E. Bone and Mrs. J. Barton are to look after the gifts from the white gift service.

Mrs. A. Read is to purchase a hassock for the parsonage and asked Mrs. J. Baker to assist her. Mrs. Middleton is to look after gifts for senior citizens and flowers for church on Christmas Sunday.

Mrs. McEwen was Santa Claus and distributed the exchange of Christmas gifts among the members adding a pleasant period to the evening.

She was assisted with the refreshments by Miss Dorothy Baker, Mrs. Gordon Read, Mrs. Doug Bone and Mrs. A. Todd.

The January meeting is planned for the church. Mrs. J. Bushnell will give the paper, Mrs. R. Kirk the scripture and Mrs. J. Barton and Mrs. R. Middleton the refreshments.

School News

The Carrville public School children are busy practising for their Christmas Concert on the afternoon of December 22, when all parents and friends who can will be expected to attend. Not only to the concert but the noon meal is a highlight in the days events.

We are sorry that Mary Nielsen has the mumps and hope she won't be too sick with them, and feeling better by Christmas.

Birthday greetings to Miss Dorothy Baker who has a birthday on December 14. Hope you have a nice day Dorothy.

Mrs. D. McLagen of Cobalt

is spending the winter with Mr. and Mrs. Jack McEwen. Mrs. McLagen is the first friend with whom Mrs. McEwen got acquainted when she came over from Perth, Scotland, to make her home in Canada.

Please to hear of the safe arrival of a baby daughter for Mr. and Mrs. Grant Drewery, a sister for Donnie. Donnie has been staying with his grandmother Mrs. A. Read.

Several of the ladies in the community called on Mrs. A. Hayter on December 10, the occasion being her 85th birthday. Some of those who dropped in for a piece of cake and a cup of tea were Mrs. V. Del Brocco, Mrs. J. Clement and Mrs. R. Gray. Mrs. Hayter received many lovely birthday cards from friends and neighbours and was very pleased to get them.

Candle Light Service

On Tuesday evening, December 22nd at 8 p.m. the Leaside United Church Girls' Choir will present a Candle Light service of Christmas Carols in the Richmond Hill United Church on Yonge St.

The choir is conducted by Mr. Glen Wood who is the choir leader at Crosby Heights School. The Girls' Choir from Leaside has a fine record of performances at Kiwanis Music Festivals, and last year won the Grand Challenge Shield for Open Girls' Choir.

The interesting, hour-long Candle Light Service has become a tradition in the Leaside United Church and the performance here will be a duplicate of this.

The service is being sponsored by Crosby Heights Public School and is a project to help raise funds for musical instruments. There will be no charge for admission; an offering will be received during the programme.

Wimpy Invades Old England

A copy of the Telegraph & Argus published in Bradford England reached our desk this week and contained an interesting account of the opening there of a new "Wimpy Bar."

Specialty of the house will be "Wimpy" and what is a "Wimpy?" It is explained that it is a portion of prime beef, chopped and shaped into a round patty and grilled with sliced onions on an electric hot plate, served between sliced bun. The slogan of the house is "a square meal in a round bun." Sounds mighty like the American hamburger.

Horticultural Society Has Christmas Meeting

Against a background of Christmas decorations, beautifully arranged with candles, star ornaments and pine boughs, the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society held their Christmas meeting, Thursday evening, December 10th in the Lions Community Hall.

The Christmas message "Say it with Flowers," delivered by the Rev. Wm. Patterson of St. Matthews United Church, brought to the audience, the story of the part flowers play at Christmas time. The legend of the Rose disclosed how often, in song and literature the Rose refers to the Babe of Bethlehem. Holly, with its blood red berries and glossy leaves symbolizes the Crown of Thorns. The evergreen tree, was originally taken as a pagan gift to the Church. Then from Rome it was taken to Germany and decorated with candles for festivities, and now, it is well-established throughout the world for Christmas rejoicing. From Mexico and Central America come the Poinsettia, and it has become an abiding joy of Christmas with its brilliance and gaiety.

Featuring the programme for the evening were the "Escorts" a barber Shop Quartet, members of the S.B.E.S.Q.S.A. and winners of the Ontario District Contest, 1959-60. Their magnificent harmony and versatility delighted the audience. In the lead was Fred Shoutbridge - Toronto, Tenor, Bruce Curtis, Richmond Hill, Baritone, Jim Boyd, Toronto, and Bass, Ed Fertick, Toronto. Following their programme, Bruce Curtis led the audience in carol singing with past president J. Large at the piano.

Prizes for accumulated points won at the flower shows were presented by president G. Longworth assisted by the secretary Gladys McLatchy, after which a turkey and prizes draw took place. Mrs. J. Large was the lucky winner of the turkey and Mrs. L. Glass, R. D. Little, A. Stong and Mrs. J. Large won other prizes.

Mrs. G. Longworth wife of the president was presented with a beautiful bouquet of yellow mums.

A happy Christmas spirit prevailed throughout a splendid evening which concluded with coffee and Christmas cake and "get-acquainted" period.

Guide Notes

The East District local Association held a tea and sale on December 5th at St. Gabriel's Church which was well attended. The three Guide companies in the district had various tables at which were sold candy, plants and various articles they had made such as aprons, earrings, dolls clothes etc. The local association had a bake table which was well supplied with delicious home baking donated by mothers of guides and brownies and members of the local association. This table was under the supervision of Mrs. Smith who was assisted by guides. The tea court was the big attraction, the tea tables were served by guides, convener for the tea was Mrs. Firman assisted by Mrs. Pitt.

A playroom was provided for the small fry where they could relax, read comic books, draw pictures, eat cookies and drink freshie served by Mrs. Sparling and guides. A lucky dip, well supplied with novelties for children of all ages was very decorative and exciting. Mrs. Pitt spent many hours providing such an attractive display. Mrs. Whitaker who was assigned the job of handling the ticket sales was so well assisted at the door by guides, she was free to lend a hand at the bake table and in the tea court. Mrs. Currie, Division Commissioner, officially opened the tea court and sale, and poured the tea at a table beautifully decorated in silver and midnight blue. It was a pleasure to have Mrs. William Patterson who has shown a great interest in guiding, pouring tea again at the annual Christmas tea. Mrs. McGregor, District Commissioner, expresses her sincere thanks to all brownies, guides, guiders, local association members and mothers who helped in so many ways to make the evening a success.
