King City Notes

Study Recreation

The result of tonight's meeting of King City Home and School Association may be the launching of a Recreation Committee for the village. The executive is hoping for a good turnout at Doris M. Patton School at 8:15 to hear what progress has been made by its committee investigating possibilities of a recreation centre to accommodate all ages.

Representatives of interested organizations. Reports are to be given this evening of efforts of Mrs. Ralph Loney, Mrs. E. Lamonte, Mrs. James B. Houston, Mr. Seymour, Mr. William B. Cook and Mr. James Williams in learning how to promote a community centre and sports arena. The meeting is the last for the season at the North Keele St. School. Next month the Association will start meetings at Eva L. Dennis School.

Resignations. At a special meeting last week of King Township Council, Building Inspector Charles Ross, who had submitted his resignation, was asked if he were willing to continue. Mr. Ross replied, "Yes."

A warm welcome is extended to all mothers of Scouts and Cubs to attend the Ladies' Auxiliary meeting next Monday evening at All Saints' Rectory, 101 Keele St. S. at 8:30.

Wedding

HERREMA - PECK

White baskets of white chrysanthemums formed a lovely background in the Baptist Church for the wedding of a well-known King City - Temperanceville couple, Miss Helen Mary Peck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Peck of R.R. 1, King, and Gerrit Wilbert Herrema, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Herrema of Temperanceville.

A former minister of the church, Rev. John Galloway of Agincourt, conducted the double ceremony in the presence of forty-five guests. Miss Dorothy Armstrong played the wedding music and Mr. Roger Rawlings, also of King City, sang two selections.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a lovely long white gown of Italian embroidered peau de soie, fashioned with rounded neckline and front panel of pleats continuing around to the back to form a chapel train. The long fitted sleeves ended in points over her hands and her fingertip veil of tulle illusion was caught to a pert half-pilbox sparkling with opalescent sequins.

The bride wore a pearl necklace and carried a white carnation bouquet strikingly centred with a single mauve orchid. Four girls beautifully dressed in frosted green velvet attended the bride.

Her youngest sister, Miss June Peck, gave her the bride veil. Her bridesmaid, Miss Sheila Ash of Gormley, and Miss Suzanne Grew of King City were bridesmaids and Miss Yvonne Hiemstra of Columbus, Ontario, acted as flower girl.

The senior attendants' dresses were made with rounded necklines and three-quarter length sleeves. They had fitted bodices and dropped waistlines, the short-length full skirts fashioned with unpressed pleats. The little hats were semi-circles of three bows in matching material. They carried heart-shaped bouquets of red and white carnations.

As flower girl, little Yvonne Hiemstra had a frosted green velvet frock with puffed sleeves and white sash. She wore a velvet headband and carried a basket of red and white carnations.

Mr. Gerald Jennings of Temperanceville was best man and ushers were Mr. Fred Peck of King, brother of the bride, and Mr. Robert Beynon, King.

At the wedding breakfast which followed at Summit View Restaurant, guests were welcomed by the bride's mother, wearing a royal blue dress with white hat and corsage of white and red roses. The groom's mother assisted in receiving, wearing a navy gown, accented with white hat and corsage of pink and white roses.

After the reception the bride and groom took the bridal bouquet to Mrs. Anne Peck of Willowdale, grandmother of the bride.

For the wedding trip through the States, stopping at Jamestown, New York and Niagara Falls, the bride travelled in a royal blue embroidered sheath dress and jacket with blue-trimmed white hat, a dark grey coat and corsage of white carnations.

The couple will be living in the former home of Roy Folliott on King Sideroad, while the groom farms and the bride continues to teach grade two at Dorset Park School in Scarborough.

KESWICK: The blue-back herring are running in Cook's Bay and Lake Simcoe. Catches of 20 to 30 herring have been reported. It is too early as yet for huts and cars to be out on the ice, but fishing has been going on since before Christmas.

Oak Ridges, Lake Wilcox Socials

The Oak Ridges Rod and Custer Club, comprised of older teenage boys in the community are looking for a building capable of holding 1 to 5 cars, the aim of the club is to gain a better working knowledge of cars and give the young men of the district a use for their spare-time. A membership drive is in full swing at the moment and the only necessary qualifications for entry to the Club is a "valid" driver's license and the ability to abide by the rules. Anyone having an empty barn or similar building could phone Chuck LaBelle at PR. 3-5087 or Roy Geary at PR. 3-5429.

The January meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to Cdn. Legion, Br. 570, will be held on Monday, January 17th.

During the past week Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ensor were the victims of a fire, which gutted their home, and left them with nothing but the clothes they were wearing, fortunately the fire occurred during the daytime and no one was injured. The fire was caused when Mrs. Ensor's dust cloth took fire from a gas fire place and although the burning cloth was extinguished the fire went back under the fireplace and set the insulation on fire.

Belated congratulations to Mr. Jacob Williams who celebrated his 77th birthday last Wednesday.

Mrs. Sheridan of Queensville is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McKendry.

Rev. Elmer Steckley of Fort Erie has been quite sick since New Year's and is now in Fort Erie Hospital under observation. Mr. Steckley is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Steckley and has many relatives in our community.

Miss Miriam Heise spent Sunday at the Brillinger home.

Mrs. Beulah Jones is spending a week with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones and family of Windsor.

Mr. Lloyd Harvey developed flu last week so was delayed in leaving for his work in Northern Quebec until this week.

Rev. F. Wellington "The Musical story man" spoke to the children (and the adults) on Sunday morning and evening in the United Missionary Church. Meetings continue through the week from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. Mr. Wellington has many ways of presenting his message and certainly holds the interest of his little listeners. His programme may be seen each Saturday morning 11:30 to 12 on Channel 11.

We have a belated report of a Christmas programme as it didn't come in until after our column was written last week. The annual concert of Lloyd Public School was held at the school on Monday evening, December 18. A crowd of slightly over 300 was present.

The programme opened with all the school on the platform singing several Christmas numbers. The concert was officially opened by Glenn Pederal of Grade 1.

The intermediate room presented a religious play entitled "The New Born King." The Sr. room presented two humorous plays. Paul Schlichter played a musical number on his accordion.

Some other interesting numbers were the Joseph Children vocal numbers, David Craig's monologue, Carl Hunking's recitation, and grades 3 and 4 drill. Presentation of the evening included the Card Sales Prizes by Bellefair Card Co.

Mr. Mullings presented these gifts to the three top salesmen of the school. They were Malcolm Elms, Susan Reed and John Brinkman.

Mr. Hunt then presented the Field Day Trophy to Ed Doner and Peter Diersson who were the Sr. girl and boy champions at the annual Whitcure Track and Field meet last June.

Mr. R. Baycroft was chairman for the evening. Mr. R. Ellas also spoke on behalf of the School Board, Santa Claus then paid his awaited visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Morby and children visited Mrs. Morby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Toronto on Saturday. Mr. Brown has been quite ill.

This seems to have been a quiet week. Everyone seems to be resting and settling back to routine after the holiday festivities and the disrupted week caused by the ice storm. Hydro is back to normal but a lot of telephone lines are still out of order.

Old Xmas Cards
If you have used Christmas cards to dispose of, will you please leave them at Gormley store. Mrs. Allan Doner is very glad for them for their work in Africa. Or if you wish to mail them direct - just tie them in a bundle, wrap in brown paper, leaving ends open so it can easily be seen they are cards - and mark on outside USED Christmas Cards - No Commercial value. Mail to Mrs. A. Doner, Ilorin, Nigeria, W. Africa. Postage is 9c a lb.

Of course, this crack train isn't likely to pull in at your Imperial Esso service station, but it, too, is an important Imperial customer and plays quite a part in your everyday driving.

Why competition among oil companies for customers like "The Canadian" benefits you

You and customers like the railroads want to be sure that you are getting the best products, the best service and the best price.

In Canada there are 74 oil companies competing to serve you and your car. Imperial is one of them and has 13,000 people working in oil fields, research laboratories, refineries and sales forces—all helping to compete for business.

The standards of quality, service and price that it takes to win railroad business benefit all our customers, large and small.

That's one reason Canadians have made Esso stations the busiest on Canadian roads.
