

King City, Oak Ridges Lake Wilcox

King City Notes

Since King Memorial Library became a public one almost a year ago, membership has shown a big increase, it was revealed at the Board's first annual meeting. Reports showed the library has 231 adults and 241 children, totalling a membership of 472. A year ago the figure was 366.

Of seven appointments to the 1960 board, four are definite, last year's chairman, Mr. Harry Cheetham, Mrs. George Berry, Mrs. Jack Cargill, and Chairman of Village Trustees, Mr. Ronald Bolton. Others are to be appointed within a month.

Forming the public library's first board for the past year were Mr. Cheetham, Mrs. Berry, Mrs. N. J. Coe, Mrs. Cargill, Mrs. Harvey Malcolm, Mrs. J. Jones and Mr. Donald M. Findlay.

During the year 224 books were added to fiction, non-fiction, boys' and girls' and reference sections. The library is stocked with 3,503 books. Circulation took a leap to 8,282 books, from 5,785 the previous year.

Mrs. A. E. Jarvis is chief librarian with a staff of eight other volunteer librarians, Mrs. John L. Greig, Mrs. Harold G. Ratcliff, Mrs. Edmund Wallis, Mrs. Eric White, Mrs. George Berry, Mrs. J. Williamson, Mrs. Quentin Hardy and Mrs. Gordon Wells.

The reading centre is now open ten hours a week: Monday, from 7 to 9 p.m.; Wednesday, 2:30 to 5:30 and 7 to 9 p.m., and Friday, 2:30 to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Berry's secretarial report showed several improvements made, due to extra grants made possible by public library status. The north side of the roof was shingled; eavestrough was added. A stone window box and step were added to the front of the building and petunias planted in the box, "not only improving the appearance of the building but aiding in our drainage problems," said Mrs. Berry. The attractive stone planting area was the work of the late Mr. A.E. Kelley.

The storage room at the rear was completely renovated, providing another large bright room, suitable for use as a reading room, and allowing books to be much better allocated. Drapes were given for this room without charge, by Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Coe.

Mrs. Berry thanked the public for its support and said the many books donated were appreciated. The board issued a financial statement, showing total income for 1959 of $2,137, including Provincial grants of $700.75; King Township grant, $50; tax levy, $768.60; membership fees, $60; fines, $78; donations for books, $114; Women's Institute rental for Health Centre, $50; sale of used books, $25 and sale of rear room garage doors, $25.

Expenses totalled $1,670.45, leaving a favorable balance of $466.58. Among expenditures were $468 for new books; $115, fuel; $30.99, hydro; $112, office supplies; $81, mortgage interest; $129, maintenance. Among special projects were renovating of the back room, costing $378, and addition of window box, step and lawn, $120.

Laid To Rest
Funeral service was held Saturday.

Mr. Herbert Nightingale had been heading north on the Sixth Concession, taking his son and nine-year-old Ruth Newton to Strange School. At the snow-covered intersection at King Side-road, his truck and the west-bound bread van driven by Donald Farquharson of Bolton collided.

Dr. Quentin Hardy of King City was summoned to the scene. Mr. Nightingale was treated at York County Hospital for broken clavicle and concussion, and Ruth Newton, for scalp lacerations and concussion, police said.

Investigation was directed by Constable John Closs of Vandorf Detachment, O. P. P.

The child accident victim is survived by his parents and sister and brother, Mary Rose and Quentin, of Laskay.

Open Meeting
St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church W. M. S. is extending an invitation to the public to attend an illustrated talk at the church on February 7. Professor D. Wade of the University of Toronto will show slides and describe his trip to the Orient last year.

Polio Clinic
Next polio clinic for adults will be in King City Masonic Hall on Wednesday, February 3, from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. The free clinic is sponsored by York County Medical Society physicians, in co-operation with York County Health Unit.

Dog Complaints
Township Constable Harold Russell confirms all complaints about dogs made to King City Village Office or to Township Office will be investigated and the dog catcher, William Lowe of Bradford, notified immediately. He asked for the co-operation of residents in placing complaints with either office, and laying a nuisance charge if necessary.

Triple Occasion
Tuesday, January 19 was a special day for members of the Clubine family. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clubine of Tannery Hill Farm quietly marked their 45th wedding anniversary and received flowers from relatives. A son, Russell, and his wife of Willowdale had been married 14 years and their son, Russell, celebrated his 13th birthday the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clubine were married in 1915 at home, where the Aurora phone office is now located. Conducting the service was the late Rev. Dr. Daniels.

Evening W. A.
Mrs. George Cruickshank of Heritage Park was hostess for a meeting of the Evening Branch W. A. of All Saints' Anglican Church when coming programs with speakers were planned.

At the February meeting at the rectory, officers will be installed by Rev. E. H. Costigan. Prjamas cut out by Mrs. Ross Walker were distributed for inclusion in the Dorcas bale sent out in April. Mrs. Robert Walker presided and Mrs. George Hatley was named social convener.

Mrs. Robert Arbuckle and Miss Betty Arbuckle outlined chapters from the Study Book, "Out of Africa," at last week's meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church W. M. S.

Mrs. Donald McCallum presided and Mrs. Gordon Agar led in devotions. The new executive was installed by Rev. Gordon Agar as members joined in the singing of a hymn, Scripture lesson and prayer.

Real Superintendent
A new Superintendent of King Township is expected to be appointed by March 1. Following the resignation of Mr. Chalmers Black, applications are being received by Township Clerk Harold Rose.

Vestry Meeting
Annual Vestry meeting of All Saints' Church is being held tomorrow evening at eight.

Induction
Next Wednesday evening the new incumbent of All Saints' Church, Rev. E. H. Costigan, will be officially inducted in a service to be conducted by Right Rev. George B. Snell.

Skate Exchange
With greater local interest in skating shown as a result of the rink at the park, the Scouts' and Cubs' Ladies' Auxiliary feel their "skate exchange" this Saturday morning in All Saints' Parish Room will be timely and useful.

The exchange will open at ten a.m. Those wishing to sell skates are requested to tie them together, and label with name, address, phone number, size, and desired sale price. The Auxiliary is charging a 25 cent fee on each pair sold.

The centre will re-open at one p.m. Saturday, when money can be collected and any unsold skates returned.

Invested
Seenee Cub Pack has invested Glen Faulkner as its newest member. With the Malcolm family moving to Scarborough, the Scout Troop lost Chris Malcolm as a member, and the Cub Pack, his brother Stephen.

Mr. Harry Lacey recommended easing parking problems outside the post office by having an underground culvert and angle parking. Secretary Thompson was asked to contact Toronto and York Roads Commission to learn costs and village responsibilities. Mr. Lacey pointed out it was "an emergency situation" as traffic grows heavier.

No immediate change in waterworks equipment was foreseen by Water Commissioner Bolton. He said there was provision for a gas engine in the new pump house, "but we haven't had money." One ratpayer interjected, "We pay taxes. What do we get for our money?"

Mr. Bolton explained the waterworks is now sustained by bills. "Our storage tank carried 30 hours without power. Maybe a larger tank is needed, such as Richmond Hill has. We are not going to do any expanding until we know what is going on outside the village. If we can hold off till there is development, then we can put in proper facilities."

He noted the present system had served 11 years before failing in the first ice storm and he questioned the expense of maintaining a gas engine all those years for perhaps one emergency. He mentioned possible building development east of the village where a well should be.

Asked if subdividers contributed toward waterworks, Mr. Bolton said $50 a lot from impost money was used and 50 per cent of the new pump house had been financed by new building.

New Fire Pumper
King council's permission will be asked regarding the purchase of a fire pumper truck. "We definitely need this and will be asking for tenders in the next few days," Fire Chief Glass confirmed. "It's very essential we have it." For the benefit of newcomers, Mr. Bolton explained the new equipment should mean a saving of about $6 on $10,000 fire insurance for three years for houses.

"Asked if a debenture would be necessary, the chairman explained the purchase will be cashed from tax revenue and impost fees."

Threaten Shooting
One annoyed ratpayer said, "I love my flowers. They love their dogs, but my flowers don't go on their property." Another resident suggested there might be shooting of dogs by home owners if the problem went unchecked.

Councillor Taylor confirmed, "The situation is common in the township, but the catcher is getting dogs. About 150 was December figure." He explained a neighbour can lay a charge, as he successfully did last year when bothered by a neighbour's dog.

Trustees decided to meet complaints with warnings and copies of the dog control by-law to offending householders, and court action if witnesses are willing to lay charges.

Ratpayers were asked to telephone Secretary Thompson, who agreed he would not divulge complainants' names.

Trustees sanctioned a letter to the CNR about the road crossing beside King City Station, at the request of Mrs. Robert Innes, who claimed lives of car drivers were at stake when Station Road was not properly snow-cleared between the tracks.

Mr. Loney sought Trustees' support in improving a county road, Keele St. South, between King City and Maple, which he termed, "One heck of a mess."

Mr. Loney explained, "There's no salt and little sand on it and a lot of the village has to use the road early in the morning." At Mr. Loney's request, Councillor Taylor said he would pass on the information to the county.

Mr. Loney inquired what hours the policeman was on duty. Constable William Jensen, "You can call me any time. I'm usually available at night and weekends."

Mr. Jensen said when he undertook the part-time job it was on the basis of "roughly 20 hours a week. It has been anywhere from 15 to 40 hours." Mr. Bolton explained Mr. Jensen was "a fully qualified constable."

Want Roads Assumed
Clearview Gardens representatives wanted to know how to get their section assumed, after township council has refused assumption until a judgement is lifted. Trustees decided to send the township a letter first, then meet with council and a ratpayers' delegation in mid-February.

NEWMARKET — Predictions are that Newmarket Council will have pressure brought to bear, regarding a liquor vote — following Aurora's example.

was installed by Rev. Gordon Agar as members joined in the singing of a hymn, Scripture lesson and prayer.

King City Trustees Ronald Bolton Is 1960 Chairman

Mr. Ronald Bolton, beginning his fourth year as trustee, was chosen chairman of King City Village Trustees at the inaugural meeting in the fire hall.

For a fourth term he will be Fire and Water Commissioner. Mrs. Mary Scott was re-elected Roads Commissioner and new trustee, Mr. Warren McKendry, undertook duties of Police Commissioner.

Among the two dozen people attending the inaugural meeting Councillor Norman Taylor of Oak Ridges and ex-trustees Donald Findlay and John Dew.

Secretary Mr. G. T. Thompson called upon retiring Chairman Mr. Findlay to swear in the new Council. Trustees stood and simultaneously touched a small bible while Mr. Findlay read the oath of office, by which they agreed to "truly, faithfully and impartially" execute their office without payment or reward. Trustees signed their declaration and Mr. Findlay said he wished them well and "all success in a heavy task, as I am sure others present do."

Thanking Mr. Findlay "for doing the honors," Mr. Bolton commented, "It will seem awfully funny without your guiding hand, although I know we can count on you to give us assistance we will need, no doubt about it."

Dog control came in for heated discussion after Mr. Ralph Loney, Chairman of Clearview Gardens Home Owners' Association charged, "Some people are warning but warnings are not followed through."
