Richmond Hill Bookmobile Could Serve Distant Readers

The Walter Scott Home & School Association held its January meeting last Thursday evening in the school auditorium. Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Israel, Richmond Hill Public Library gave an outline of the library services provided for the school and drew attention to the reference facilities available to everyone.

Mr. Israel told those present that since the library is totally responsible to the Council of Richmond Hill, they, as taxpayers, affect the library and its operation. The library receives a grant of $1.49 per person on the assessment roll (in 1959 this was $1.21). An additional amount equal to 30 per cent of this levy comes from the Ontario Government.

When Mr. Israel came to Richmond Hill a year ago to survey the area he recognized the obvious need for library services on the east side of town. Few children were using the library and it seemed the reason for this was the distance involved. To overcome this, regular visits to the schools were arranged. Mr. Israel said it is hoped that by the end of 1960 at least a part-time solution to adult needs may be found either by branches or bookmobile.

Mrs. Israel explained the system of rotating the books and agenda and circulation within the class is their responsibility.

The boxes are changed every month and at this time Mrs. Israel gives the children a brief outline of one or two stories in order to introduce them to some of the books offered. Mr. Israel emphasized that this is a recreational reading programme "just for fun" and judging from the eager response of the pupils they seem to agree.

During the social period that followed, Mr. J. Peace, assistant principal of the school, explained the new P.A. system and its operation from the principal's office. Refreshments were served by four charming Girl Guides working for their Hostess Badges. The Parent Attendance Cup was awarded to Mrs. Ingledew's class.

Richmond Hill Students Attend United Nations Model Assembly

On Friday, January 15, the United Nations Model Assembly met in the Legislative Chambers of the Parliament Buildings in Toronto. Over 600 students, from 52 secondary schools in the Toronto area gathered to discuss problems confronting the United Nations, each school representing one of the member nations.

The proceedings were opened at 7.45 by the Past President, after which the officers for 1960 were elected. The opening speech was given by Kirk Swinton, President of U.N.A. in Toronto. During the discussion on the general agenda which followed, the Chinese and French delegations walked out when the questions of Red China and the situation in Algeria arose. Votes were taken on disarmament, outer space, technical assistance, trusteeship, and the problems of Red China and Algeria. These were then placed on the agenda and moved to committees. The meeting adjourned at 10 p.m.

The delegations met again at nine o'clock Saturday morning, and the various groups gathered in their separate committee rooms to discuss the questions on the agenda and draw up resolutions to be sent to the General Assembly.

The delegates lunched at Hart House, the business resuming at 2.15, when each committee presented its resolutions which were subsequently voted on. Gerry Dunn, of de La Salle College, President of the Model General Assembly, closed the session of the Assembly for 1960.

The students met finally on Saturday evening in Convocation Hall, Trinity College for an end of Assembly dance.

The students from Richmond Hill High School were representing Argentina, and were led by Robin Wood. Other members of the delegation were David Gibson, Jim Jackson, John Thomson, Tom White, David Rabinowitch, Victor Last and Larry Lucas.

This gathering is the largest assembly for high school students to be held anywhere in the world, and the resolutions passed are sent to the United Nations Headquarters in New York.

Miss Gertrude Lever spent Sunday of last week in Aurora, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Durie and Beverly in their new home.

On Sunday, in St. Mary's Anglican Church, Carol Anne Bickelstaff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bickelstaff, Oak Avenue, was christened by Reverend J. O'Neil. Godparents were Mrs. J. Zubce and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meadows.

Mrs. Ainslie Baskerville of Georgetown was a week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Smith.

This is Jubilee Year for Guiding and the official launching of the 50th anniversary took place in Eaton Auditorium on January 20th. Over 1200 Guides from all parts of the Dominion were on hand. From Richvale were: Girl Guide Commissioner, Mrs. F. Bigley, who is also Brown Owl of 1st Richvale Brownie Pack, Captain Mrs. H. Jarman, Tawny Owl Mrs. J. McCarthy, Mrs. Wm. Weir, Captain of 2nd Richvale Girl Guides, Lieutenant Mrs. Alan Peck, Brown Owl Mrs. A. Baird, and Tawny Owl Mrs. Wm. Pontin. Accompanying them was Mrs. D. Ford, Lieutenant of the Sea Rangers, Scarborough.

There will be a training meeting in Richmond Hill tonight (Thursday) for the Blue and Brown Guides. It will be held in the United Church.

Richmond Hill Refuses—

W. R. Sayers former High School Board Chairman, W. J. Taylor, a former Reeve, W. J. Mason, William Lazenby and Howard Jackman.

County Council
 Reeve W. J. Haggart reporting to council on the opening session of County Council stated that plans are under way to include the improvement of Markham Road in the current year's roads budget. He urged that Richmond Hill cooperate by expediting in every possible way its part of the job. At his suggestion an early meeting will be sought with the Municipal Board to expedite approval of the storm sewer project. On motion of Mr. Haggart council will immediately call tenders for the work, subject of course to the Board approval.

Reeve Haggart, Works Committee chairman reported the estimated cost of service extensions to serve the proposed new High School at Bayview and Markham Road as $12,708.14. Cost of such extensions will be paid for by the High School Board.

On motion of Councillor John Bradstock a letter will be sent to Thomas Buchan thanking him for his public service as a member of the Planning Board.

Parking
 Councillor Broadhurst reported the Police Committee had many complaints about parking on side streets near Yonge St. He said the committee is considering by law prohibiting parking on Arnold, Centre and Richmond Streets in the area near Yonge. Council members approved the suggestion.

Chlorine
 Works Commissioner Whalen said his office received only three complaints about chlorine in the water supply. Present practice is temporary he explained and dosage is no greater than in Toronto. "They get used to it in Toronto" someone remarked.

Kleinburg Library To Hold Annual Meeting

By Janet Berton

A lively discussion of why some of the so-called old favorites in children's books have been discarded from library shelves is expected at the special 10th annual meeting of the Kleinburg Public Library on February 8 in the school.

Miss Barbara Smith, director of children's library services for the department of education, will be guest speaker at the birthday celebrations.

Organized in the fall of 1949 by a group from the Farm Forum, the library has grown steadily to a collection of nearly 3000 carefully chosen and recommended volumes.

Circulation last year jumped to more than 3500 - which librarians point out is a high per capita rate - but Mrs. Roy Cain, librarian regrets that some of the more expensive adult books do not circulate enough to make their original purchase worth while. Children's books, on the other hand, get lots of use and are well liked.

Board members this year are Mrs. James Reid, chairman; Mr. Harry Burnfield, secretary; and Mrs. T. E. Matthews, treasurer; with executive members Mrs. Michael Bevan, Miss W. K. Balshaw, Mrs. Harvey Burbidge, Mrs. J. R. Leslie, Mrs. W. Weber, Mrs. Leslie Longworth, Mrs. Walden Griffith, Mrs. Van Christenson, Mrs. Douglas Zimmerman, Mr. Al Snider, Mrs. T. W. Clarke, and Mrs. Pierre Berton.

Charter members listed on the declaration for the establishment of an association library on September 19, 1949, were Chris Marland, chairman; Rev. W. A. Westcott, T. E. Matthews, G. Bell, Robert Purves, Harley Ballantyne, Keith Wardlaw, Mrs. Edwin Roden, Miss Merle Hambly, and Mrs. Arnold O. Miller.

Records down through the years list many other well known community workers who have given their time to the project; for example - Miss Betty MacKerrow, a recent past president, David Eadie, Mrs. James McKay, Mrs. Ronald Hambleton, Mrs. Sam Kaiser, Mrs. William McCrow, Miss Olive Dooks, Mrs. Chuck Ellis, Miss Enas Presseley, Mrs. H. N. Taube, Harold Wardlaw, Rev. W. R. French, Dr. E. R. Westman, Ron Holland, Lorne Miller, Mrs. Lloyd Hanna, Mrs. G. King, Mrs. Howard Campbell, Sinclair Stevens and Mrs. W. H. Maude.

During the presidency of Mrs. J. R. Leslie a couple of years ago an effort was made to establish a larger library unit with possible bookmobile service together with neighboring centres. Librarians are still hopeful that this plan can some day be carried out.

In the early days, according to Mrs. Arnold Miller, librarian and chief spark for the group for years, there was considerable opposition to the library. I remember one big teen age boy who stood outside the library door muttering suspiciously "no one's going to make me go in there."

Angus Mowat, well known librarian who was then in charge of librarians for the department of education, opened the library formally in May of 1950. It has been especially painted and decorated for its birthday year, with new shelves put up by Al Snider, one of the board's active members through the years. Mr. Harry Burnfield is another of its most faithful members.

The library board is hoping everyone will turn out to make the tenth birthday a success. Admission is free and there will be free refreshments after the meeting.

A thrice postponed party was finally held at the home of Mrs. Acreman for her Sunday School class of boys, on Wednesday 1. On their way home, after supper and games, the boys got an extra thrill, watching the Northern Lights, the very first time for some of them.

Mr. Freeman Barker and Mrs. Wm. Welman seemed to be the only Headford folk able to take advantage of the wonderful opportunity afforded by the Annual Sunday School Convention held last Thursday in Markham. Mr. Barker gave the teachers and officers of Headford Sunday School a brief resume of the highlights after Sunday School, mentioning with great enthusiasm the Panel Discussion on the Convention theme of Foundations for daily living, with special reference to faith instilled in children by their parents.

Mr. Merrill Johnson is very enthusiastic about the performance at the Youth for Christ centre in Stouffville meeting last Thursday evening, when the Weatherford Choir of Akron, Ohio, entertained with their singing, before an audience of some three hundred people. This is a dedicated quartet of singers who with their organist, travel in their own bus on a mission of Evangelistic singing. Merrill took a few friends on Friday night to The Stone Church in Toronto to hear a repeat performance; and the group were invited for Saturday to Brantford.

Next Sunday will be Missionary Sunday in Headford with a special Missionary offering. It was also announced that there will be a skating party, weather permitting, of course, on Rumbles' pond on Friday evening, returning to the Sunday School room for refreshments.

The Murray Acremans entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cox on Saturday for dinner, and were later joined by the Jimmy Ewarts for an evening of bowling.

Belated birthday greetings to Connie Berton, who proudly put her name in the Birthday Church on Sunday and told us she is now five.
