Headford congregation held its annual meeting on Monday, January 25 at the home of Mrs. N. Brodie, with 12 members present. The treasurer's report showed a balance on hand, the missionary gifts also were up a little, and two new stewards were appointed. Committees were appointed to do work on the basement ceiling, and on motion of Cora Brodie, a definite start was made toward procuring furnace facilities for heating the church. It was also decided to have something done about insuring the value of the insurance on the church.

After dainty refreshments, served by the Brodie family, and an invitation to return next year (D. V.) the meeting adjourned. Miss Cora Brodie and Mrs. Acreman attended the Training School for leaders of 4-H Home-making Clubs, on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. The Spring project is "Cottons may be smart."

Mrs. Hugh Deverell and Mrs. Acreman attended the Third Annual Meeting of York Presbytery on Thursday, January 28, in Stouffville United Church. A bus had been chartered by those attending from Richmond Hill, and there was room on it for those attending from Victoria Square. The morning worship was conducted by Rev. Douglas Davis, using a text from the Book of Joshua, "Give me this mountain." Mrs. J. L. Halpenny, formerly of the Dominion Board, brought us a wonderful message which she titled "New Friends Overseas," dealing with her recent trip through Continental Europe and the British Isles. Our allocation for 1959 had been exceeded by over one thousand dollars, and the projects of G. B. A. to which this surplus may go was voted on by those present. Mrs. Dike, Secretary for Stewardship then presented the 1960 Allocation, which is $17,500, and this was unanimously accepted.

Following the lunch hour, a wonderful film "New Face of Africa," gave us new insight into our study on Africa. Roll call disclosed a larger attendance than any previous year. Mrs. Robert McLaren from Simcoe Presbytery, conducted the election and later the Installation of Officers. A list of these will appear elsewhere, but it shows the main, most former officers were re-elected. Our sincere thanks to all the people of Stouffville United, who made such a wonderful rally possible. A delightful skating party on Rumble's pond for those of Headford Sunday School was held last Friday evening. There appeared to have been lots of fun on the ice, with prizes won, etc., when the hungry crowd returned to the Sunday School room for hot chocolate and lunch. The committee is especially gratified at the number of parents who were able to attend, making it the largest crowd in several years.

Sunday, being the fifth Sunday in January, was Missionary day in Headford Sunday School. Mrs. Lee conducted missionary choruses, and taught a new one; Mrs. Welman read the scripture from John 14: I am the Way; and a flannelgraph "The Way beyond the Moon" was shown. There was a special collection, and Mrs. Acreman had a contribution to the Birthday Box. Irene Watters, a former pupil in the school here, was one of the student teachers last week. Mrs. T. McDougal, and her friend Mrs. Tansley, (Aunt Lillie to the Cummer Lees), was visiting for a few days last week with Jean and the family. Headford W. A. will meet next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Wellman; and the word for roll call is "Understanding." Victoria Square W. M. S. will hold its February meeting on February 10 at the home of Mrs. Storey. The committee is Mrs. S. Boynton and Mrs. Bennett.

Annual Meeting Held At Carrville United Church

At Carrville United Church, Monday evening January 25, the annual congregational and pot-luck supper was held.

About 30 sat down to a delicious meal about 7 p.m. All were more than pleased to have the two little daughters of the minister and his wife, Rev. Hugh R. and Mrs. MacDonald present at the dinner. It was the first opportunity for many to meet the family.

Rev. Mr. MacDonald called the meeting to order around the tables following the dinner. Meeting was opened with prayer and Mrs. J. Bushell acted as secretary. The minister reported for himself and Session of the church stating there are 64 members on the roll of which 2 are non-resident. There were two baptisms 1 marriage and three funerals in the past year.

Rev. Mr. MacDonald reported on the relationship between Carrville and Thornhill and while Carrville is under the Thornhill charge it will be separate as far as maintenance of each congregation. Rev. MacDonald will be the minister to both congregations Carrville is to have a representative to Presbytery when such time presents itself Mr. Robert A. Kirk was appointed to hold this position.

Mr. Jack Bushell gave the treasurer's report of which he holds the office and reported a balance of $326.65. The welfare fund was reported on by Mrs. J. Williams, President of the W. A. and reported a balance of $25.26.

Mr. Robert Kirk, chairman of the cemetery board reported on the work of the board and reported a balance of $177.96.

Mrs. John A. Baker, treasurer of the Women's Association read the report and stated a balance of $371.10 on hand.

Mrs. R. Middleton reported on the Sunday School work and stated a balance of $37.12 was on hand.

Mrs. Gordon Read reported for the Young People and stated a balance of $125.52 on hand.

Then when all these reports were accepted Rev. MacDonald asked for the appointment for various vacancies in the offices of the church. Bert Middleton was again appointed Superintendent of the Sunday School for 1960. Jim Bushell was appointed organist of the church and Mrs. John A. Baker as assistant. Then the session was appointed. Due to a letter from Mr. Jack McEwen, requesting to be released of his office, Mr. Jack Bushell was appointed to fill this vacancy also two more were added to the session being Mr. Edgar Anning and Mrs. R. A. Kirk. Messrs. Bert Middleton, Jack Oliver, Ernest Bone and Wm. George are also on this board.

Saturday, February 6 the Carrville Sunday School and the public school children are hoping to have a skating party in the afternoon on the school rink. We hope the weather co-operates. Each family bring a tin of vegetable soup, which will be served following the skating.

At the Annual meeting last week, a congregational Fellowship evening was planned for Friday, February 12, at 8 p.m. Rev. MacDonald will secure some film, and Mrs. Gordon Read; Mrs. J. Williams and Mrs. J. Barton were appointed as a committee to complete plans for this event. Rev. MacDonald spoke on the forth coming plebiscite vote in Vaughan and was anxious to know the feeling on this matter; and asked for a couple of representatives from Carrville. As yet nothing has been decided.

Rev. Mr. MacDonald also spoke on the mission work of the church, how very important it is to use the red side of the envelope. Rev. MacDonald closed the meeting with prayer. We were sorry Dr. Brock Walker and Miss E. Wickson were appointed Auditors for the coming year. Mr. Kirk expressed appreciation to Rev. MacDonald for his interest in Carrville and hoped this would continue for sometime. Rev. MacDonald thanked Mr. Kirk and said he was most anxious to help in anyway he could. As the young people haven't been having meetings he is most anxious to meet with them and see what would be best for them.

A Congregational Fellowship evening was planned for Friday, February 12, at 8 p.m. in the church hall. Mrs. G. Read; Mrs. J. Barton and Mrs. J. Williams are a committee to plan the evening. Dr. and Mrs. Wilbert J. Walker and Lois and Jimmy Walker of Ingersoll visited on Sunday with the Bert Middleton family and attended Carrville United Church. Mrs. Clarence C. Price visited on Saturday at the Bert Middleton home on Saturday and also with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Middleton and family of Doncaster.
