Birthday greetings go out to Johnny Edgar Sprucewood Ave. who celebrated his fifth birthday on Thursday, February 25.

Miss Mary Perrault, Clarke Ave., returned home on Sunday, by train, from a very enjoyable trip to Timmins where she visited with relatives for two weeks.

On Monday, March 7, at the Thornhill Public School, the regular gala card party will be held at 8 p.m. sharp, featuring the euchre marathon finals. As usual there will also be plenty of tables for progressive euchre. Something new this time is a bridge competition. Proceeds of the evening will go to the 1st Thornhill Guide and Brownie groups. On hand will be many good prizes and refreshments.

Jim Butler's Fabulous Flyers, of the T & D H C house league require but one victory in their remaining games to snag first place for keeps. Ted Lougheed, of Glen Cameron Ave., can capture the first spot by winning the two remaining games, one of which is against the Flyers. Depending on the outcome of these games, Richard Barbour's Dinosaurs will end up in second or third place. David Barbour's Calypso Kings fell into a sad state when they were defeated by Norm Davidson's Mustangs. Last year's champion Calypso can escape the bottom only if the Mustangs go down to the Wings in the last game and then to the Kings in a fourth place tie-breaking extra game.

2nd Richvale Guides

On February 22, the Guides held a candy sale at Charles Howitt School. They raised $10.00 which will go towards the building fund for the new guide headquarters.

February 23 was Thinking Day and during the program each pair put on a skit pertaining to guiding in other countries. They each sampled the birthday cake in honor of Lord and Lady Baden-Powell's birthdays.

On February 27, the conclusion of a very busy week, the guides sang at the Kiwanis Festival and received a first award certificate. The very able conductor was Lena Martin. They were accompanied by Mrs. D. Wood at the piano.

Posture Titles
The Posture Queen and King were announced during assembly on Friday at the Charles Howitt School. Cheryl Groh was chosen Queen and John Peck was chosen King. In the primary grades, Princess Wendy Ross and Prince Jimmy Rootman were chosen.

Travelling Bake Sale
Due to the storm on Thursday, mothers of Guides and Brownies for 2nd Richvale were unable to get their baking to the depots. So on Friday morning the phones were busy and the baking was sold to immediate neighbours, realizing $60.00.

Congratulations
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jellicoe, of Peasars Ave., are the proud parents of a boy, born on February 21 at the Toronto General Hospital. This makes the fourth boy for the Jellicoes.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Kelly, MacKay Drive, became the proud parents of their fourth girl, on February 7, at Women's College Hospital, Toronto. They also have a son. The baby weighed 7 lbs. 13 ozs.

Hobby Show
The Boy Scouts Association of York Summit District put on a Hobby and Cub Handicraft and Hobby Show on Saturday, February 27, from 2 to 9 p.m. at the Richmond Hill Lions Community Hall.

There were many hundreds of entries and the show was very worth while seeing. Our 1st Langstaff Cubs won third place in the points standing and Akela Norma Webster is pleased and proud of her Cubs who entered.

First prize winners were John Peck for his bird house, Jim Coxworth for his family of puppets made from potatoes; Stephen Spears for his pencil drawing; and Tom Wilkinson for his potato puppet. Second prizes went to Ron Clark for his toy drum. Third prize went to Barry Maybury and Barry MacKillop for their potato puppets and to Bobby Morris for his stamps. Robert White for his wooden book-ends.

Good effort ribbons were given to Steven Jansson for puppets, Bradley Esau for feeding station, Roy Edwards for his shell collection. Refreshments were looked after by the ladies executive of the York Summit District with the various auxiliaries sending ladies to serve.

Breaking of Sod
Many members of the community were at the Holy Trinity Church in Thornhill on Sunday when Bishop Wilkinson turned the sod for the building of the new parish hall.

School News

There were mixed feelings among the Henderson Avenue school pupils on Friday due to the big snow storm.

Those who arrived at school were kept there and those who stayed home had an unofficial holiday. Not much regular work was done though and the children present enjoyed a few movies. All of the teachers arrived but only about 40% of the pupils turned up.

Henderson Avenue School Hockey Team played a hard game against Langstaff School at the Unionville Arena on Tuesday, February 23rd after school. Terry Aimore scored the lone goal for Henderson and Langstaff finished up with a close win, scoring two goals.

Powell Road School team played a close game of hockey with Thornhill Public School Team on Tuesday, February 23rd, after school at the Unionville Arena. Thornhill being the winners, this time with a score of 1-0.

Guides and Brownies
Five girls from the 1st Thornhill Girl Guide Company have earned their Skaters Badge - Catherine Lennie, Dyanne Snary, Jacquie Ferguson, Sharon Sturgess and Julian Dempster. Two other girls have earned their Astronomers Badge - Sharon Sturgess and Lucy Trudel. Some of these girls have earned most of their badges and will soon be trying out for their Gold Cord.

On Tuesday night, February 23rd, the Guides held their Thinking Day program and invited the 3rd Thornhill Company from Powell Road School and also Mrs. McTaggart-Cowan, District Commissioner and Cadet Norma Davis, a former Guide of this Company. At this meeting, two new girls were enrolled, Suzanne Morse into the 1st Thornhill Company and Melody Bradbeer into the 3rd Thornhill Company.

Experience is always a good teacher, and it seemed to have taught a few of us some truths. At least as far as storms go we seemed to be better prepared during this last week-end blow-up. We didn't hear of folk being stranded away from home during this storm; and the youngsters were delighted that the storm gave them at least one day out of school. However, the epidemic of mumps has flared up again, but by now should be on the wane. We sincerely hope so, anyway.

Headford W.A. will meet on Tuesday evening, March 9, at the home of Mrs. Melvin Wellman. The word for roll call is "Gospel".

Mrs. R. Perkins will be hostess to the Victoria Square W.M.S. on the afternoon of Wednesday, March 9, at the regular hour of 2.15.

It was very gratifying to their teacher to see all the boys of the junior class out for Sunday school.

The Burton boys had as their guest for week-end, Brian Polton, whom they brought along to Sunday School. A sort of exchange was effected, when Kathy Burton spent the week-end in the Polton home in Richmond Hill.

We hope everyone planning to attend the World Day of Prayer service on Friday at Brown's Corners Church will note the time is 2 o'clock.

Birthday greetings for Margaret McDonald, who will be twelve years old on March 25. Murray Acreman celebrates on that day; also March 9 is the birthday of Margaret Simpson. Many happy returns to all.

Mark-Vaun Women's Institute

The March meeting of the Mark-Vaun W.I. will be held on Thursday, March 3, at the home of Mrs. N. Hicks, Essex Avenue. The Program will be Citizenship and Education. Members are reminded to bring a donation for the Cancer Cupboard and roll call will be a beautiful thought expressed in poem or prose.

Langstaff Home and School
The monthly meeting of Langstaff Home and School will be held as an Open House from 7.45 to 9.45 p.m. Parents will be able to interview teachers in their own rooms to enable them to discuss their children's work. Education week commences on March 7.

Langstaff School News
The school hockey team seems headed for the playoffs in March after their recent win over Henderson Ave. There is only one more scheduled game against Clarke-Elgin on March 1, and we would enjoy the support of any parents who can attend.

We would like to thank the pupils and parents who helped make the Junior Red Cross candy and white elephant sale such a success.

During open house week parents are invited to visit classrooms of their children on Monday, March 7 between 1.30 and 2.30 p.m. and Tuesday, March 8, between 9.30 and 10.30 a.m. and on the same evening from 7.45 to 9.30 p.m. We hope you will have an enjoyable and enlightening visit.

Young Women's Institute
The next meeting of the Langstaff Young Women's Institute will be held on March 3, at the home of Mrs. Betty Patterson. Nominations of officers will be conducted by Fern Russell. Refreshments will be served by Colleen Jones and Verna Ablet.

Mrs. Gladys Smith and the eucharist committee thank the many people, including Mrs. O'Brien, Willowdale, who helped make the eucharist of February 25 such a success. Prize winners were: Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Binn, Mr. Hicks, Mrs. O'Brien, Mr. Ted Manol.

What do you look for in a new car? If you are considering a car in Vauxhall's class there are certain things you must look for. Roominess is one... space for you to stretch out, space for all the family's luggage. Economy is another... operating costs and resale value. Consider important aspects of design... all 'round visibility and things like that. Find out what features you get as standard equipment. Be sure of continent-wide service facilities. All these things add up to value. If that's what you're looking for, then your search is over. See your local Vauxhall dealer today!
