BUTTONVILLE NEWS
CORRESPONDENT: Mrs. F. G. LEAF
R. R. 2 Gormley - Phone AXminster 3-6186

With April fast approaching, cancer campaign workers are going into high gear, and in this vein Mrs. Gordon Purves tells us there will be a film presented at the Richmond Theatre, Richmond Hill, for women only, next Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m., entitled "Breast Self-examination." His many friends will be glad to learn that Mr. Douglas Hood came home from Branson Hospital recently. We wish for him a rapid return to health.

On Thursday afternoon of last week, several members of Buttonville W.I. were guests at the Thornhill W.I. birthday party. Supporting part of the interesting program were Mrs. George Hooper, soprano soloist, and Mrs. Alice Gardner, elocutionist. Mrs. John Wilkins, elocutionist from the Buttonville group.

Wine Euchre Series
Although the euchre game at Buttonville Hall will continue until the weather decides that spring is here, the game played on Friday evening was the last of the winter series and the winner of the season was decided. Mrs. Russell Boyington, a charter Buttonville W.I. member, was the winner of the series and took home the grand prize, a turkey, just in time to celebrate her birthday on March 25.

There were 13 tables of players and prizes for the evening went to Mrs. Jewett, Mrs. Jameson, Mrs. Irene Wray; Messrs. Wm. Wray, Russell Burr and Russell Boyington. A chicken was won by Mr. R. Burr on a lucky draw.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. James Rodick, Mrs. George Oakes and Mrs. Fred Leaf. The next game will be played on April 1.

Entertainment School Boards
Buttonville W.I. members catered at Buttonville W.I. Hall on Tuesday evening of last week when Markham Township Council entertained Township school trustees at their annual dinner and finance meeting.

It was interesting to note that possibly one-third of the trustees present represented separate school boards, and the various parish priests were also in attendance. This for Markham Township is a comparatively new feature.

Choral Group
On Saturday evening, April 2, the Unionville Junior Farmers have invited the Ontario County Junior Farmers' choir to present their musical program "Cavalcade of Holidays at Buttonville W.I. Hall."

Don Brodie of the Unionville Farmers group, who told us about the program, was most enthusiastic about this talented choir. Come along and hear for yourself - Saturday night, April 2.

Spring has arrived (at least by the calendar) but icy spots can still prevail on our sidewalks and roads. These often cause accidents to even the most careful so take warning, "Watch Your Step." Mrs. James Gillham was the unfortunate victim of just such an incident this past week and has suffered torn ligaments of the shoulder.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Macklin had a delightful evening of fun this past Saturday playing euchre, chatting and partaking of the delicious buffet supper. Many thanks from all.

Recreation Committee Presents Annual Report Richmond Hill Council

Richmond Hill Council at its regular meeting received a delegation from the towns Recreation Committee headed by Mrs. Woodburn Thomson its Chairman, with Mrs. Malcolm Thomson its director (part-time) and Mr. Grant Gibb.

Programmes Wide Scope
The budget showed that total membership of organizations receiving grants from the committee amounted to some 4,204 children, 339 adults. The Committee is also serving in one way or another other groups of adults not receiving grants amounting to 132 adults.

Subsidy Required
Last years subsidy amounted to $9,500. This years budget anticipates an expenditure of $10,400. This amounts to 75c per person in Richmond Hill.

The Committee had been responsible for the establishment of that now much prized Senior Citizens Club which has proven a definite boon to the older people in the municipality.

Of the amount budgeted, $2,500 goes to the part-time director; $800 goes to labour to maintain the playgrounds appearances.

One large piece of equipment has now been provided for use in each playground. Other equipment is loaned by the Parks Dept.

Teen Town is now almost self-supporting; and once its equipment is paid for the police band and majorettes will be self supporting.

Volunteer Workers
Numerous volunteer workers turn out and give their services free of charge. They form the backbone of the whole movement to provide the town with maximum possible recreational facilities.

Hockey & Softball
Largest groups sponsored by the committee were those of Hockey and Softball both of which were very popular recreational sports.

Pared To Bone
Councillor Bradstock said the budget had been pared down to the bone and represented the absolute minimum on which the programme be carried on.

HOFFVILLE - The salaries of Stouffville District High School teachers will be little changed in 1960. The three-level system, based on academic qualifications has been maintained. A request to institute a fourth level was rejected by the Board.

Mark I Club
The Mark I Club is proving of value," she added, "particularly to the non-school and older teenagers." She congratulated the local police for its co-operation and the splendid contribution it was making to the clubs success. She said the club had not yet taken advantage of affiliation with the Recreation Committee.

Senior Citizens
The Senior Citizens Club was enormously popular with the older folk and its members really did enjoy the facilities provided.

Excellent Secretary
Mrs. Thomson said the Committee was grateful to Council for its support and welcomed back Mr. E. Butlin to the committee. There are seven members of the committee including two councillors. All members were proving their worth in the recreation field. Mrs. G. B. Phibbs was proving an excellent secretary.

Mayor Jokes
The Mayor raised a laugh when he commented in response to a statement from Councillor Whillans concerning value of track work and his own earlier ability as a runner. Said the Mayor, "You've shown some good running in elections too."
